A HOPEFUL SIGN

41,256 people joined the Knights of Sleep in 1930. This number is likely to be exceeded in 1931 judging from the expansion in our sales of mattresses in January.

It is a hopeful sign because the success of the movement for more sleep will "lift" the depression from which the world is suffering.

Clarity of mind results directly from sleep and 100% clearness "on top" is the standard for users of "OD" mattresses.

Membership of the Knights of Sleep brings with it entry to the Elysian fields where there's neither oppression nor depression—where Mussolini, Stalin, Gandhi—to mention but a few world-famous names—become just ordinary mortals like the "rest."

Is it any wonder then that there is a rush to "get in"?

245 M.P.H.

If the BLUEBIRD did not weigh 3½ tons she would not have held her course and broken the world's speed record on a rough Daytona Beach.

The CITROEN 4-cylinder will not do 245 m.p.h., but she will do 45 m.p.h. in comfort for years over the roughest of roads, because she weighs 23 cwt., is solidly built, well balanced and well sprung.

If the roads you travel are bad, treat the "light six" brigade with caution. Study weight. It spells comfort and long life.

These powerful brakes, in conjunction with the internal front brakes, ensure complete safety under all road conditions and in all weathers. They operate smoothly and have no tendency to "grab."

BIGGER-DIAMETER CLUTCH. The new 10-inch clutch gives a larger gripping surface, which makes starting and gear-changing smoother.

NEW STURDY BACK AXLE. The back axle, shafts and gears have been strengthened, and provide a still further margin of safety.

THE ONION CROP.

Writing on this subject in the Weekly Irish Times, the Garden Correspondent says:—Although most wait for the advent of March for the spring sowing of Onions, on one occasion we took advantage of a fine spell at mid-February to sow a good breadth on mellowing ground previously well prepared by well manuring and good, deep digging, and, although we were not without subsequent frosty nights that did not affect the hardy Onion, and our early sowing was successful inasmuch as it escaped the Onion fly, of which neighbouring gardens with later sowings suffered severely. Early raising under glass and eventual transplanting is, of course, the modus operandi for escaping the pest indicated, but rarely available in the small garden, but we have seen excellent results by planting Scallions coming to our markets galore later on, for such are merely varieties of the Silver Skin, or White Lisbon, Onion.

POULTRY, CAGE BIRDS, DAIRY.

REARING DURING FEBRUARY.

Writing on this subject in the Weekly Irish Times, the Poultry Correspondent says:—As early hatching is increasing, numbers of chickens are already running about, and very often these very early birds thrive better than the late-hatched ones with a little extra care. They require protection from wind and rain, but if the stock is healthy and in charge of good mothers they can brave many weather changes, provided the coops are always kept dry inside and the surrounding ground clean and firm. Chickens thrive better in the open, but they must not be exposed to much wind or heavy rain. Dry cold does not affect them so much. When cooped out they need frequent changes of ground, and the highest and driest places should be chosen for the coops, which should have wooden floors and be raised from the ground. It is a good thing to have a movable roof on a frame to shelter the coop and provide a dry place for feeding. It should be pegged to the ground to keep it from being blown down. The feeding of chickens must be the best this month, and the time of feeding extended from early dawn till as late as daylight lasts. Some give an extra feed after dark by artificial light. Biscuit meal, ground oats, rice boiled on milk are all good, but a little mixed meat should be given every day. A feed of small wheat, boiled, will suit for a last feed.

Unsatisfactory dealing by any Advertiser in this column should be immediately reported to the Manager of the "Irish Times."

YESTERDAY'S CASES IN THE COURTS.

COMMITTAL OF CHILDREN.

HABEAS CORPUS APPLICATION.

(BEFORE MR. JUSTICE O'BYRNE.)

An application was made for a writ of habeas corpus to produce John Martin Kavanagh and William Robert Kavanagh, two children of John Kavanagh, a railway worker, of North Great George's street Dublin, who were ordered by one of the Dublin District Justices to be sent to the Artane Industrial School and the House of Charity, Drogheda. Alternatively, applications were made for a writ of certiorari to quash the order of the District Justice and for a mandamus to compel the acceptance of a notice of appeal against the order.

Mr. Hector Hughes, K.C., who, with Mr. Tobias (instructed by Messrs. Gerald Byrne and Co.) appeared for John Kavanagh, the applicant, read an affidavit of his client, who stated that the children were aged six and eight years. On a certain day they were brought to the front garden of 41 Lower Drumconda road, Dublin, and were offered a halfpenny or a penny by Miss McLoughlin, a welfare worker, who, upon their acceptance of the money, accused them of begging, and had them brought before the Dublin District Court. The Justice made the order of which the applicant complained, and the children were sent to the Artane Industrial School and the House of Charity, Drogheda, to whose Superintendents counsel asked that the writ of habeas corpus should be directed, to deliver up the custody of the children to their father.

Counsel based his applications on an information of the father and on the fact that, as he said, what the children did was not begging for, or receiving alms, but having regard to the nature of the transaction and the age of the children it was made a colourable prosecution. He further urged that the District Justice had no jurisdiction to make the order which he purported to make under the Children's Act of 1908. The application of the certiorari was grounded on the fact that the orders for the committal of the children were made, as he submitted, without jurisdiction.

Mr. Justice O'Byrne—In regard to the mandamus, can you show me that the ruling requiring that the prosecutor should be named in the affidavit has been complied with?

Mr. Hughes submitted that the affidavit showed that the father was, in fact, the prosecutor, though not expressly mentioned in the affidavit. He asked, however, that the application for a mandamus should not be refused upon a technicality when there were very substantial grounds why such an order should be made.

Mr. Justice O'Byrne—I will give you a conditional order for a writ of habeas corpus and also a conditional order for a writ of certiorari, but I will not give you the order for a mandamus, as the rule has not been complied with.

LIMERICK FISHERY ELECTION.

ALLEGED IRREGULARITY.

(BEFORE MR. JUSTICE SULLIVAN.)

In a case of the State, at the relation of John Mescall, of the Spa, Castleconnell, Co. Limerick, fisherman, against Henry Bindon Alton, of 84 O'Connell street, Limerick,

Mr. Michael Comyn, K.C., with whom was Mr. Thomas O'Donnell (instructed by Messrs. Kenny and Burke) applied on behalf of the plaintiff for a conditional order for a writ of quo warranto directed to Mr. Henry Bindon Alton, clerk to the conservators of the Limerick fishery district, to show cause why a writ of quo warranto should not issue against him for using and exercising without legal warrant or authority the office of clerk to the Conservators mentioned.

The application, he said, was grounded upon the affidavit of John Mescall, fisherman, the holder of a licence for fishing for eels, who alleged, that, the Limerick conservatory district, being divided into six areas, an election was held at Tarbert for one of the electoral divisions, and six conservators were purported to have been elected. These conservators were subsequently ousted on the ground that their election was irregular, inasmuch as persons who voted at the election were not entitled to vote. Before the six conservators were ousted two of them, it was further stated, had joined with one Thomas Foley in calling the meeting of the conservators, at which Mr. Alton was elected clerk; and it was now submitted that all acts done by the conservators who had been ousted were void, and that consequently the meeting at which Mr. Alton was elected clerk was illegal. The convening of the meeting was illegal, and the meeting and the nomination and election of Henry Bindon Alton thereat were illegal.

It was also stated in the affidavit that Mr. Alton had since his election continued to act as clerk, and that he had taken legal proceedings against various persons in his capacity as clerk, including two civil bills against Mr. Anthony Mackey, of the Fisheries, Castleconnell, for rates with respect to fisheries in the River Shannon.

Mr. Justice Sullivan asked if Mr. Mescall, the relator, had held a licence when Mr. Alton was elected in October, 1928?

Mr. Comyn said that it did not appear from the affidavit whether Mr. Mescall was one of the holders of a licence then, but he held a licence when he made the affidavit. Counsel submitted that Mr. Mescall had a locus standi in the matter.

Mr. Justice Sullivan granted the application.

BELFAST MERCHANTS' ACTIONS.

ALLEGED DEBTS DENIED.

(BEFORE MR. JUSTICE SULLIVAN.)

Two applications were heard in which claims were made by Mr. Patrick McMahon, merchant, Royal avenue, Belfast. In the first action he claimed £175 as being due by Mr. Harry Evans, turf commission agent, carrying on business in Dublin.

Mr. McGuckin, who (instructed by Messrs. McIldowie and Sons) appeared for the plaintiff, said that a debt was incurred in matters not unconnected with the Turf. The plaintiff swore in his affidavit that the money was due, while the defendant positively denied that it was. Plaintiff was satisfied that the action should be set down for plenary hearing.

Mr. Nolan Whelan (instructed by Mr. P. H. O'Reilly), for the defendant, asked that the case should be transferred to the Circuit Court.

Mr. Justice Sullivan transferred the action to the Dublin Circuit Court.

In the second action, by the same plaintiff against Mr. Charles Fagan, also a Turf commission agent in Dublin, a similar application was made by Mr. McGuckin.

Mr. Sherry, who with Mr. Finlay, K.C. (instructed by Mr. O'Reilly), appeared for the defendant, said that the subject matter of the action had already been heard and dismissed by a domestic tribunal, and he thought it was a case that the Court could not entertain, even on the facts as set out in the plaintiff's affidavit.

Mr. McGuckin pressed to have the case transferred to the Circuit Court.

Mr. Justice Sullivan said that he had been informed by counsel for the defendant that this was a betting transaction, and should not be entertained, and accordingly he would strike it out.

BLANK AMMUNITION.

ACTION AGAINST MINISTER SETTLED.

(BEFORE MR. JUSTICE SULLIVAN.)

In a case of which Daniel John Stapleton, of 2 Charlton terrace, Kilmainham, Dublin, and William Doyle, of 35 Havelock square, Sandymount, Dublin, the former being a commandant, and the latter a lieutenant, in the National Army, against the Minister for Defence.

Mr. Marnan (instructed by Messrs. Cartan, O'Meara and Kieran), for the plaintiffs, applied to have a consent to the settlement of the action received and made a rule of court. He said that the plaintiffs claimed a declaration that they were entitled to compensation by the defendant for making use of certain inventions of theirs relating to blank ammunition and machine-gun appliance and fitting. The consent provided for the payment by the defendant to the plaintiffs of £500 in full discharge of their claim for royalties.

Mr. Justice Sullivan received the consent and made it a rule of court.

REPORTED MISSING.

PRESUMED DEATH OF CO. DUBLIN MAN.

(BEFORE MR. JUSTICE HANNA.)

In the matter of the goods of Hugh Wilfred O'Hagan, late of Heathville, Monkstown, Co. Dublin, and formerly assistant works manager of the Great Northern Railway at Dundalk,

Mr. Geo. R. O'Connor (instructed by Messrs. Cartan, O'Meara, and Kieran) applied for an order presuming the death of Mr. O'Hagan.

It appeared from a number of affidavits that Mr. O'Hagan left Dundalk in May, 1914, to take up work with the Peruvian Corporation, Ltd., and was residing at Arequipa. He was home on leave in 1930, and on 28th October he left to return to his employment, being a passenger in the Pacific Steam Navigation Company's steamer Orbita. On 4th November Mr. O'Hagan was reported missing, and he was never heard of afterwards. He had been seen and had talked with ship's officers and passengers at half-past nine o'clock on the night of 31st October, when he appeared to be in his usual state of health. Next morning it was discovered that his cabin had been unoccupied, and no trace of his whereabouts could be obtained.

Mr. Justice Hanna, granting the order asked for, said that it was reasonably clear from the affidavits that during the night of 31st October this gentleman's death had been caused by some unfortunate accident on board the steamer.

FORESTERS' BENEFIT SOCIETY.

NOTICES SENT TO BANK.

(BEFORE MR. JUSTICE MEREDITH.)

Mr. Poole (instructed by Messrs. Miley and Miley) applied on behalf of a number of branches of the Irish National Foresters' Benefit Society in Dublin and Bray for an order to the liquidator to withdraw notices which he had sent to the bank to refuse to honour cheques which had been drawn upon the funds of the branches for the payment of benefits, despite a winding-up order which had been obtained against the society. It was also sought that the district branches should be at liberty, pending the dissolution of the society, to carry on their business of making payments, receiving moneys and admitting members into the organisation. The members further asked that, in the event of the dissolution of the society, they should be in a position to register as a separate society, and carry on the business which they had hitherto been conducting.

Mr. Dickie, K.C. (instructed by Messrs. Horan and Devine), who appeared for the liquidator, said that he would not have any objection to the order if the applicants paid the debts and made arrangements to discharge the liabilities of the society. His client, however, was entitled to hold up the money available until the debts were paid, and provision was made for adjusting the matter that was involved in the winding-up order. The liquidator, he remarked, would do all he could to help the branches.

Mr. Justice Meredith reserved judgment.

GRANARD WIDOW'S CLAIM.

ACTION SETTLED FOR £1,000.

(BEFORE MR. JUSTICE SULLIVAN.)

A consent to settle the action was received and made a rule of court in a case in which Mrs. Margaret Jane Donohoe, of Barrack street, Granard, claimed damages from the Irish Omnibus Company on behalf of herself and her two children, for the death of her husband, which she alleged was caused by the negligence of a servant of the defendant company in the management of an omnibus on the road between Ballinalack and Bunbrosna, Co. Westmeath, on the 28th July, 1930.

Mr. O'Leary (instructed by Messrs. N. J. Downes and Co.), who appeared for the plaintiff, said that the consent provided for the payment by the defendants of £1,000 and £75 costs.

Mr. Justice Sullivan said that the money would have to be apportioned by the court between the plaintiff and her two children.

ALLEGED DEFAMATION.

PUBLICATION OF A REPORT.

(BEFORE MR. JUSTICE SULLIVAN.)

In a case of Albert Leo McDermott, of 76 Dame street, Dublin, against the Irish Times, Ltd., which is an action for damages for alleged defamation,

Mr. Wood, K.C., who, with Mr. Joseph O'Connor, K.C., and Mr. Barry T. O'Mahony (instructed by Mr. Michael Noyk), appeared for the plaintiff, applied for an order that two paragraphs of the defendants' statement of defence be struck out on the grounds that they were calculated to prejudice, embarrass, and delay the fair trial of the action.

In his statement of claim, the plaintiff referred to the hearing, before the District Justice on the 5th November, 1930, of three summonses against McDermott and Co., Ltd., Dame street, Dublin, charging them with keeping open their shop for dispensing and compounding medical prescriptions without having a qualified pharmaceutical chemist or licentiate apothecary employed to manage the shop and the dispensing and compounding of medical prescriptions. The plaintiff stated that he was a qualified, registered druggist and a certified assistant, by the Apothecaries' Hall, Dublin. As such registered druggist, he had been qualified since the 14th April, 1914, to carry on business as a druggist, and as such assistant was qualified to compound or dispense medicines to an apothecary. He was also qualified to practice as a dentist, and was a member of the Incorporated Dental Society of Ireland. In the Irish Times of the 6th November, 1930, there was published what purported to be a report of the proceedings in the District Court, containing the words: "Mr. Albert McDermott, the managing director of the company, said that he had no qualifications. He had no intention of opening a chemist's shop again. He was now practising as a dentist."

The plaintiff alleged that by the words complained of the defendants meant that he was without any qualifications, either as a registered druggist or as an assistant in dispensing and compounding medicines, and that he was practising as a dentist without any qualifications.

The defendants denied that the words bore the meaning alleged by the plaintiff, and in the two paragraphs of their statement of defence which the plaintiff now sought to have struck out, the defendants said: "The said words, in their true and natural meaning, having regard to the context and the subject matter of the said report, mean, and were, and could only be understood to mean that the plaintiff 'had no qualifications to dispense and compound medical prescriptions.' The defendants say that the words with the meaning in the last preceding paragraph were true in substance and fact."

Mr. Wood submitted that these paragraphs set out or created a new innuendo which was not declared in the statement of claim and that they sought specifically to justify it. For this reason, he said, they should be struck out.

Mr. FitzGerald, K.C., who, with Mr. Marran (instructed by Messrs. Casey, Clay and Collins) appeared for the defendants, opposed the application, and said that the defendants had done in these paragraphs what they were entitled to do. They asked the jury to give the natural meaning to the words in their context, because the plaintiff was not entitled to have words taken out of their context and have them treated as if they were a libel.

Mr. Justice Sullivan said that his view on this matter was that Mr. Wood was right. He did not think that it was competent for a defendant in an action for libel, where words were pleaded first of all simpliciter and afterwards by innuendo to set up himself the meaning which he said the words bear, and which was a meaning that was not alleged in the statement of claim, and to proceed to justify the words. He thought that a plea in that form might embarrass the trial of the issue, and accordingly he would set aside those two paragraphs of the defence. He would allow counsel for the defendants to amend their defence and gave them ten days in which to do so. The plaintiff must have the costs of this application.

DUBLIN CIRCUIT (CRIMINAL) COURT

WARDER CHAINED TO RAILING.

CHARGE AGAINST YOUNG MAN FAILS.

(BEFORE JUDGE SHANNON.)

A young man named Percival Casey was charged on several counts with conspiring to assault Guard Patrick Farrell, and Cornelius Sugrue, Daniel Corcoran and Jeremiah O'Leary—three warders in Mountjoy Prison—on different dates in 1930.

Mr. P. J. Roe (instructed by the Chief State Solicitor) prosecuted, and the prisoner was undefended.

Outlining the case for the State, Mr. Roe said that on the 19th of April last Warder Corcoran was having tea in a friend's house in Berkeley road, when some men entered, seized him, took him out and chained him to the railing in Sarsfield street. They pinned a label on his breast, containing the words: "Warder Corcoran tortures political prisoners in Mountjay Jail." Counsel said that he could not prove that the prisoner was there, but he submitted that the label was in the same handwriting as another label which was made by the prisoner. On August 31 last Chief Warder Sugrue was coming from church with his wife, when he felt a tap on his back, and, looking round, he saw two men disappearing round the corner. On his back was pinned a label, containing the words: "Warder Sugrue tortures political prisoners in Mountjoy." It was in the same handwriting as the other label. In the case of Guard Farrell, an assault was committed on him on September the 20th, but the label attached to him was not in the same writing as the others.

SEARCH OF HOUSE.

Counsel could not give any evidence that the prisoner was present on either of these occasions, but in the house where he resided there was found a label in exactly the same handwriting as the first two, and the lettering was: "Warder O'Leary tortures political prisoners in Mountjoy."

Detective-Officer Mordaunt gave evidence of having found the produced label in a bedroom in the house, 14 Northbrook avenue. It bore the inscription: "Warder O'Leary tortures political prisoners in Mountjoy Prison." On a subsequent visit to the house he found prisoner in bed in a room, and he arrested him. When charged and cautioned at the Bridewell prisoner said he would say nothing.

Superintendent P. Ennis, Detective Department, said that on October 18th last the label found by the previous witness was produced to the prisoner and he was asked to account for it. Prisoner said: "Yes, it is mine; I made it, and that's all about it."

Warder Corcoran bore out counsel's statement as to the assault made on him, and his being chained to the railings. He was unable to identify any of the men concerned in the assault.

Chief Warder Sugrue gave evidence of the pinning of the notice to his back as he was coming from Mass on August 31st.

GUARD HANDCUFFED.

Guard Farrell also gave evidence as to the assault made on him by a number of men. His hands were handcuffed, and he was chained to a lamp-post, a label being attached to his tunic. The label was inscribed: "Informer Farrell arrests Republicans."

Captain A. J. Quirke gave evidence as to the handwriting on the various labels. He had formed the opinion that the labels in the cases of O'Leary and Corcoran were written by the same person, as also was the name "Sugrue" on that label.

This closed the case for the State, and Judge Shannon directed the acquittal of the prisoner on the count of assaulting Guard Farrell, as there was no evidence to connect him with the assault.

The prisoner declined to give evidence or to make any statement.

The jury found the prisoner not guilty, and he was discharged.

GUARDS' PURSUIT OF MOTOR CAR.

EXCITING CHASE AND CAPTURE OF "JOY-RIDERS."

Leo Ganter and John Eakins were charged with stealing a motor car, the property of Robert C. McHugh, on November 27th. On a second count they were charged with stealing one gallon of petrol, and on a third count they were charged with attempting to injure two Civic Guards by running them down with the motor car.

Mr. T. A. Finlay, K.C., who (instructed by the Chief State Solicitor) prosecuted, said that Mr. McHugh left his car on Burgh quay, and later it was missed. When the Guard motor cycle patrol pursued the defendants towards Rathgar and called upon them to halt they declined. The Guards got in front of them, and the motor car came within a yard of them, when one of the Guards jumped on to the running board of the motor car, applied the brake and brought the car to a standstill.

The Guards, in evidence, bore out this statement.

Eakins said that they took the car without authority from Burgh quay, and went out towards Rathgar. They did not intend to injure the Guards, and the acceleration of the car when the Guards called on them to halt was due to the fact that he stood on the accelerator instead of the brake. He got excited when one of the Guards jumped on the running board of the car and presented a revolver. They took the car for a "joy ride."

Ganter said that they had intended returning the car to Burgh quay.

Judge Shannon said that he did not believe the prisoners intended to keep the car, and he thought that the ends of justice would be met if they put £5 each in the poor box, and undertook not to do such a thing again. They had acted in a shameful manner, and were lucky that they had not killed somebody. The Guards acted with great courage and promptitude in the case.

The prisoners gave the undertaking and were discharged.

COLLISION AT A CORNER.

ACTIONS BY BOTH PARTIES DISMISSED.

(BEFORE JUDGE MOONAN.)

Holding that both parties were in default, Judge Moonan dismissed two actions for damages that arose out of a collision between a motor cycle and a motor car near the junction of St. Mobhi and Ballymun roads at about 3.30 o'clock on the afternoon of June 4th, 1930. Charles C. Gick, of Claremount, Glasnevin, a minor, through his father, sued Michael Dineen, farmer, of Capel street, the owner of the car, a Talbot touring model, for damages for personal injuries sustained, while Dineen claimed £100 for damage to his car.

Gick, in evidence, said that he was cycling around a corner on his proper side when Mr. Dineen drove down the road on his wrong side and ran into him. His motor cycle was smashed and he sustained personal injuries.

Dineen stated that he was on his proper side and that Gick was on his wrong side. When he saw Gick he swerved to the right and ran his car up an embankment in an endeavour to avoid the accident. He could not do anything else to avoid the accident, because if he had kept his course along the road there would have been a head-on collision, and the boy Gick probably would have been killed.

Trip on a Lifeboat.

NEW MOTOR VESSEL AT COURTMACSHERRY.

BY A SPECIAL CORRESPONDENT.

THE "No. 716" is stationed at Courtmacsherry, Co. Cork, and is the very latest word in lifeboat design. I clambered aboard as gracefully as my safety-jacket would allow—it was dead calm in the bay; but orders are orders—and watched the crew make ready. Once a month the "716" is taken out for practice, and this time I had been invited to go with her.

In the cockpit the engineer was busy with something that looked like a cross between a giant wireless set and the dash-board of a car. He turned a few handles and the engine started. The cox took charge of the wheel, and, leaving moorings, we moved off down the bay at a steady six knots. Her top speed is a little over eight, and bad weather scarcely affects it at all.

The boat seemed full of all manner of devices. In the cockpit were the searchlight, the signalling lamp, and the Verey lights. Other apparatus is kept in the forward cabin—a comfortable place, whose amenities include central heating from the engines. Here I inspected a converted Martini rifle with a heavy metal stock, used for throwing the life-line on to a wreck. Its range is eighty yards, and the recoil will break a man's collar-bone if care is not taken.

I squeezed down a narrow manhole, to where the two forty horse-power engines were raising pandemonium in a little room of their own. "What do they run on?" I shouted to the engineer, and he yelled back what sounded like "methylated spirit," but which I afterwards discovered to have been "aviation spirit"—a special brand of petrol.

On deck the crew were sitting round the cockpit eating toffee (of all things!) and discussing life. They told me that the "716" is virtually unsinkable, being entirely surrounded by air compartments, and that there is room on her deck for nearly a hundred "passengers." She is provided against any emergency, and can be quickly converted into a sailing boat in case the engines misbehave.

The crew are all local men, and must be ready to take their stations at any hour of the day or night. In the event of a wreck the news is telephoned from the Galley Lighthouse or the Old Head of Kinsale, and the men are summoned by maroon. The new lifeboat has had no genuine "job of work" as yet—she has been scarcely two years in commission—but there is little doubt that her services will be needed.

AT FULL SPEED.

We skirted the Old Head and turned westward, doing our full eight and a quarter knots now, though by the "bone in her teeth" I should have judged it more. The crew yawned and consulted their watches; practice runs must take at least two hours, and the novelty wears off after a time. "If we had a couple of lines now," said one, "we might do a bit of fishing."

I was given the wheel for a time, and we made for Barry's Point, while the skipper told of a rough-weather test when they took the boat out on the worst day that Courtmacsherry had seen for years. It was done, as he said, to give the crew confidence in her, and can hardly have been a comfortable experience; for the cockpit became continually flooded in the heavy seas, and the men were sometimes up to their waists in water.

At last we turned for home, coming up the channel at a pace that set the fishing-boats rocking at their moorings. The engines slackened, reversed for a moment, stopped, and there we were. "Nice enough," said the skipper, pulling out his watch. "Just on the two hours."

DUBLIN DISTRICT COURT.

SOLICITOR CHARGED.

EVIDENCE OF ILL-HEALTH.

(BEFORE MR. O'SULLIVAN.)

Richard W. Lynam (54) a solicitor, of no fixed address, was charged on remand with fraudulently converting to his own use the sum of £64 9s. 7d. entrusted to him by Mr. James Slator, Emmet street, off North Circular road, to be paid to the Revenue Commissioners as legacy duty.

Mr. Slator bore out an information which he had sworn in regard to the transaction with which the defendant was charged, and produced a receipt from the Estate Duty Office for £68, which he had paid when Lynam had defaulted. He said that he had known the defendant for many years, and had heard only recently that Mr. Lynam had been ill for some time. He had not recovered his money yet.

Mr. W. P. Corrigan, solicitor, for the defendant, said that there was no criminal intent on the part of his client.

Mr. Charles E. Digges, chemist, Sandford road, said that for the last two years the defendant had been in very bad health, and had been operated upon in the Richmond Hospital. He was still under the care of a doctor.

Mr. John P. Gleeson, accountant in the Munster and Leinster Bank, Lower Baggot street, deposed to the lodgment of a certain cheque in the bank.

The defendant was again remanded, on bail, for a week.

A PLAUSIBLE ROGUE.

Patrick Moore, Keogh square, was charged on remand with obtaining £5 from the National Army Benevolent Fund by false pretences.

Mr. O'Sullivan said that during 1930 the defendant, by means of the same plausible excuse—the death of his wife—had obtained sums of money from Lord Glenavy, Major J. J. Tynan and Mr. J. C. M. Eason. For that he had been bound over for three years. "His action now makes a farce of the Probation Act," said the Justice, "and I sentence him to two months' imprisonment."

ALLEGED FRAUD ON TAILORS.

John Joseph Hutch (39), alias Gately, Summerhill; Christopher Carroll (28), Lower Wellington street, and Christopher Maguire (37) were charged on remand with obtaining by false pretences from Messrs. Burton, Towell and Fallons, tailors, suit lengths to the value of £2 12s. 6d., £5 17s. 6d., £3 15s., £1 19s. 10d. and £1 15s. Hutch separately was charged with the illegal possession of a suit length of brown tweed, owner and value unknown.

A further remand for a week was ordered.

FROM THE UNITED STATES.

Raymond Walsh, of no fixed business or address, who said that he had come from the United States of America and was waiting to return there, was sent to prison for one month for assaulting a man named Haughton with a shoemaker's knife in the Salvation Army Hostel, Peter street, a week ago.

Haughton, who appeared with his face bandaged, said that the doctors now pronounced him out of danger.

STOLE FROM NEWSBOYS' CLUB.

Patrick J. Ryan, Moutague Court, was sent to prison for twenty-one days for breaking and entering the Belevedere Newsboys' Club, Pearse street, and stealing therefrom an overcoat and several pairs of boots. It was alleged that he and John Marshall, of Magee's Court (who was similarly charged) pawned the articles and then went to Liverpool, where they were arrested.

The case against Marshall was adjourned for a week so that evidence of character might be produced.

A MONTH FOR LOITERING.

John Mackey (25), of no business or fixed address, was sentenced to one month's imprisonment for loitering in Benburb street between 12 and one o'clock yesterday morning.

Daniel Redmond, Gloucester street, of no business, was remanded in custody for a week on a charge of loitering in North Earl street between one and two o'clock yesterday morning.

THEFT OF MOTOR RUG.

Bridget Judge, alias Kelly, of no fixed business or address, was sent to prison for fourteen days for stealing a rug worth £2 from the motor car of Mr. Patrick Sheridan, of Navan, when the car was in Eccles street, Dublin.

PATENTS IN FREE STATE.

SYNTHETIC BUTTER METHOD.

A NEW SEED-SOWING MACHINE.

The official statistics for January, 1931, of the Industrial and Commercial Property Registration Office of the Free State is as follows:—

PATENTS BRANCH.
New applications received—Foreign, 74; Irish Free State, 3	77
Complete specifications accepted	54
Patents granted	53
Patents renewed	448
Patents lapsed	37
Patents expired	2
Applications to register British patents	17
TRADE MARKS AND DESIGNS.
Applications for registration of new marks received—Foreign, 232; Irish Free State, 14	246
Applications accepted and advertised	126
Trade marks registered	106
Applications for registration of new designs received—Foreign, 16; Irish Free State, 2	18
Designs registered	12

Synthetic food products are becoming more and more highly developed, as evidenced by the patents that are being taken out for new processes of manufacture. For instance, Specification No. 10639, published in January, describes a method of imparting a butter-like aroma to edible fats such as margarine. This is often done by adding a percentage of butter fact, but synthetic methods are now used. A Dutch firm describes such a method in which diketones such as diacetyl are added to, or caused to be formed in, the margarine, at any stage of manufacture. With synthetic butter and synthetic sugar developing at the present rate, the Irish farmer will require to look ahead.

SEED-SOWING MACHINE.

The problem of constructing a seed-sowing machine capable of delivering a predetermined number of seeds at a time, from one seed upwards, has always attracted inventors. A promising solution is described in Specification No. 10652 by a Czecho-Slovakian applicant, and consists of a wheel with a series of channels disposed radially round one side.

These channels each form two turns of a spiral and are connected at one end to the seed supply and at the other to the delivery. The spiral is so arranged that of the seeds picked up all but the required number fall back down the straighter portions of the spiral as the wheel revolves, while the remainder pass on to be deposited on the ground.

AIRCRAFT DEVELOPMENT.

That remarkable development in aircraft, the Cierva Autogiro, has by no means reached finality yet. The rotating wings, which, when the craft is flying, are rotated by its motion through the air, in the original form had to be started rotating by extraneous means before taking off.

Specification No. 10678 describes a simple and ingenious method of obtaining this initial rotation. Suitable surfaces are arranged on the machine in the slipstream of the propeller. These surfaces are pivoted and provided with a control from the cockpit, so that they may be turned at will and deflect the slipstream upwards against the rotating wings to produce the initial rotation. In one form the tail plane is arranged to act as the deflecting surfaces.

REINFLATING SOFT BALLS.

All tennis players will be interested in the inventions described in Specifications Nos. 10687 and 10688. The ordinary tennis ball soon loses its "life," owing to leakage of air, and various schemes for reinflating soft balls have been proposed, usually depending on the use of an inflator with a hollow needle-nozzle, a soft rubber plug on the inside of the ball being provided for the needle to pass through, the soft rubber closing the hole on withdrawal of the needle.

It has been found, however, that, owing to the slowness with which the hole closes, air is lost; the new method overcomes this difficulty by making the inner part of the plug of a harder rubber, which closes quickly, but imperfectly, and the outer part of a soft rubber, which closes perfectly, but slowly, the combination giving a plug of the desired qualities. The second specification deals with a needle-nozzle provided with a safety valve, which can be attached to an ordinary bicycle pump.

INDEX OF TRADE MARKS.

The number of trade-mark applications was again very high, as many as 246 new registrations being applied for during the month.

It is desired to notify traders and others interested that a complete index of all trade marks registered in Saorstat Eireann, and also information relating to marks in respect of which applications are pending, are available in readily accessible form at the office, 45 Merrion square, Dublin. Persons who contemplate applying for registration of a mark will desire to know, in the first instance, whether a particular mark is already registered or applied for, and they can satisfy themselves on this point by making a search of the material. An expert staff is available to give any desired assistance or information.

BUTTER MARKETING SCHEME.

SEVENPENNY LEVY AGREED TO.

A levy of sevenpence per cwt. on the output of butter from all co-operative creameries in the Irish Free State has been agreed to by the Committee which was appointed on Wednesday last to examine and report on the cost of financing the scheme for marketing butter recommended by the Butter Marketing Commission. It is estimated that the gross amount of the levy would amount to about £21,000 per annum. A levy of 1s. per cwt. was suggested by the Butter Marketing Commission, but at last Wednesday's conference, held under the presidency of Mr. Hogan, Minister for Agriculture, this was considered too high, and a special Committee was appointed, with the result indicated. At the meeting which came to this decision there were present:—Mr. P. Colbert, who presided; Mr. P. Coleman and Mr. E. C. Semple, Irish Creamery Managers' Association; Mr. J. Noonan, Freemount; Mr. J. O'Donovan, Limerick, and Mr. Foley, Department of Agriculture.

Hole in Wall.

Lone Old Woman Robbed of £600.

Court Sequel.

FROM OUR OWN CORRESPONDENT.
MULLINGAR, Friday.

A SEQUEL to the Collinstown robbery, in which over £600 was taken from the house of Miss Kate Gibney, an old woman residing at Kilpatrick, was furnished at Multyfarnham District Court to-day, before District Justice Beatty, when Patrick Shinners was charged with entering, on the night of December 26 last the dwellinghouse of Kate Gibney, and stealing the sum of £675.

MONEY IN FLOUR.

The evidence of Miss Gibney was to the effect that she lived alone in a one-storey house. She had £576 rolled up in a flour bag in notes. There were eight shillings on the dresser. The money was there for the last sixteen years, since her brother died. On December 26, about 6 o'clock, she locked the kitchen door and went to bed. She heard no noise except what she believed to be "Wren Boys" on the road. On the morning of December 27 her suspicions were aroused, and on going to the room she found everything in it distrubed. All the money in the room and the eight shillings on the dressed were gone, together with a penknife.

There was a hole broken in the wall, through which a man could get in. There had been no break, or hole, in the wall before that night.

SLEPT IN COW-HOUSE.

James Brien, Kilpatrick, deposed that on Christmas day the accused man came up to him and asked: Is that Gibney one gone to Mass? Witness said "No." The accused man said that he thought he met her on the road going to Mass. Witness said that she did not go for a considerable time as she was not able. The accused man said he slept in Miss Gibney's cowhouse.

Witness recollected having seen the defendant on the road some time in November. He then said that he was "dodging the Guards," and that that was a quiet place. He told witness that his name was Whelan.

ROADSIDE INCIDENT.

Denis Smith, Whitehall, stated that a few days before Christmas, as he was cutting a hedge about dusk, a man came down the road from Kilpatrick direction, and spoke to him. He identified the man as the accused man. He was inquiring for the way, but did not say where he was going. He said that he had been sitting on the edge of the road, and an old woman came to put him off. The description corresponded with Miss Gibney. The man in question said that the old woman had plenty of money, and added, that he had been arrested for robbery down the country, and that there was suspicion of him.

Sergeant Carty deposed to taking the defendant into custody from the Guards at Newport. He had not completed investigations and asked for a remand, which was granted.

To Improve Live Stock Markets.

FROM OUR OWN CORRESPONDENT.
WEXFORD, Friday.

WEXFORD Development Association has written to Mr. J. W. Dulanty, High Commissioner of the Free State in London, congratulating him on his appointment, and expressing appreciation of the valuable services rendered by his Department for the development of trade between the Free State and Britain. The Association also pointed out that they were anxious to cooperate with him in that direction; that there were many excellent building and factory sites in and adjacent to the town, which were within easy reach of road, rail and shipping services. Wexford town was a highly developed industrial centre, offering ample facilities in the way of skilled labour, and was situated in the principal agricultural county in the State.

In a further communication to the High Commissioner they ask him to furnish a list of the more important cattle and pig buyers in England and Wales, with a view to improving the live-stock markets. For the shipment of live-stock there were now three cattle boats available, between Wexford and Birkenhead, and they were assured by the shipping companies concerned that they are prepared adequately to cater for the shipment of all live-stock offered by providing extra and special boats when required.

Mr. Dulanty has replied, acknowledging the congratulations of the Association, and assuring them that it would be a great satisfaction to him and his colleagues to do anything to promote the interests of Wexford. He was having inquiries made, and would forward a full list of all buyers in England and Wales who handled live stock from the Free State. In addition, he was arranging to ascertain the views of such buyers as to the relative merits of the service from Wexford.

The City of Cork Steam Packet Company are inaugurating a cattle boat service as between Wexford and Birkenhead next week, for which they have specially re-conditioned the steamer Pembroke Coast.

"Virtual Death Trap."

FROM OUR OWN CORRESPONDENT.
LISTOWEL, Friday.

"IT is difficult for me to find words sufficiently strong to express adequately my condemnation of the premises. The place is a virtual death-trap, and entirely unsuitable in every way for the purpose for which the applicant proposes using it."

The foregoing is portion of a report made to Listowel Urban Council by the Civic Guards in regard to premises which have been used as a picture house in the town for the past thirteen or fourteen years.

At a previous meeting, when the proprietress of the cinema, Mrs. M. Cooney, applied for the annual renewal of her licence, the Council, in view of the fact that she had been prosecuted and convicted for a breach of the regulations in December, asked both the Guard and the Town Surveyor to inspect and report before they took action. The surveyor reported that the building was safe for the purpose of showing cinematograph pictures.

The Council decided to place the matter in the hands of their solicitor, and to adjourn Mrs. Cooney's application pending his report as to what steps they should take.

Coming Exhibition.

FROM OUR OWN CORRESPONDENT.
WATERFORD, Friday.

EVERYTHING points to the success of the forthcoming trade and industries exhibition which is to be held at Waterford from March 10th to March 14th.

In a conversation to-day with a member of the Waterford Chamber of Commerce, who also is an energetic member of the exhibition, he informed me that there is a great demand for stall space, seventy-five per cent. of which was applied for within two days of the issue of invitations. Stallholders have expressed their determination to make an effort to outdo all their previous efforts, not only as regards the quality of the goods to be shown, but also as regards the artistry of the display. Arrangements also are being made for the inclusion of an "old Waterford" section. In regard to this feature a special sub-committee has been appointed, consisting of Messrs. W. E. Jacob, C. S. Jacob and P. Bardon.

There was a net decrease of 1,326 in the number of persons unemployed in Northern Ireland last week. The total was 77,237, of whom 63,780 (an increase of 255) were wholly unemployed; 10,131 were out of work through temporary stoppages (a decrease of 1,544), and 3,326 were casual workers unemployed (a decrease of 37). The decrease in the number under the heading of temporary stoppages was due to short-time workers in the linen industry being in employment.

MAKING PEOPLE ABNORMAL.

EFFECT OF "JAZZ" ANDTHE CINEMA.

DISTRICT JUSTICE'S VIEWS.

FROM OUR OWN CORRESPONDENT.
DUNDALK, Friday.

MUCH public interest was taken in an application heard and decided at Dundalk District Court this afternoon. The case as one in which Peter Donnelly, proprietor of premises in Church street, Dundalk, applied for a licence for the holding of dancing. The application was strenuously opposed by the State, Dundalk Urban Council, and by the Rev. Father Tohall, Adm., Dundalk.

Justice Goff, having heard the evidence, visited the hall. In giving his decision he said that so far as the dance hall, cloakrooms and supper room were concerned he must describe he premises as being very nice, well decorated, and with a fine floor. But, apart from this, he was in the difficulty that the application was opposed by the Urban Council, who were charged with the responsibility for public safety. The Urban Council, having received the report of their engineer (Mr. Sellars), thought it right to come into Court and strenuously oppose the application. If he (the Justice) granted this licence, was he not flying in the face of the considered opinions of the urban authority? If he did that he ould be doing something unprecedented, and in a case of this kind which came before any Court the deciding factor must be the action of the responsible authority. It was with some regret—Mr. Donnelly having spent a lot of money on the premises—that he had to refuse the application for the licence. Considerable portion of the yard to which an exit ran was dark, and this was not a desirable place to have an exit.

SERIOUS ABUSES.

"Unfortunately, in connection with some of these dance halls," said the Justice, "there have been some very serious abuses. We are now dealing with a kind of dance which has been described by one of the gramaphone manufacturers as dancing to savage rhythm. Savage rhythm is, I am afraid associated with the arousing of certain base passions, and is associated in that way in the minds of a very large number of people who are not normal. We are dealing with post-war times and with a large number of people who have a very peculiar outlook as a result of the terrible things that happened during the last fourteen or fifteen years—with a large number of people who have been subject to exceptional influences. I am afraid that the influence of this "Jazz" dancing and the influence of the cinema has been very bad; that it has made a terrible number of people abnormal, and that these people, who I might call "Jazz" addicts, have lost control of themselves—in fact, you will see them on the streets, in the railway carriages, and on the tramcars, and they cannot keep quiet. Their bodies are being moved about, and are swaying to some imaginary "Jazz" rythm."

Concluding, the Justice said that he was refusing the application solely on the opposition of the Urban Council, because he was sure they were actuated solely with the necessity for public safety, and that they had no axe to grind.

Government for All Ireland.

Longford T.D.'s Hope.

FROM OUR OWN CORRESPONDENT.
LONGFORD, Friday.

ADDRESSING a meeting of his constituents in Edgeworthstown (County Longford), Mr. M. P. Connolly, T.D., said that he had no doubt that the derating scheme in the hands of the present Government would be accomplished satisfactorily without causing undue burden on any section of the community and with beneficial results to agriculture.

"I have heard references made by the Fianna Fail Party," he said, "to a desire that the farmers of the twenty-six counties should be placed on the same basis as the farmers of the six Northern counties. This is, I can assure you, not the ambition of our Government, but quite the reverse. You may take it from me that the aim of our Government is to place the farmers of the six Northern counties on the same high standard as the farmers of the twenty-six. Now, that statement bears a good deal of significance; it is all important. Our Government is directing attention towards creating one national Government for all Ireland, and they intend to achieve that result."

No Licence Fine.

Guards Raid Dance Hall.

FROM OUR OWN CORRESPONDENT.
DUNDALK, Friday.

A RAID by Civic Guards on a dance hall when more than a hundred people were dancing was described at Dundalk District Court to-day, when Messrs. P. McGorisk and Co., Ltd., were prosecuted for permitting their premises to be used for dancing without a licence.

Sergeant Rahilly deposed to entering the hall, which was a large one, approached by a long and tortuous staircase. At a table outside the door he saw two men and a woman, and one of the men explained that he was president of the dance club which had taken the hall for dancing. He produced two registers, containing the names of men and women. Just as witness went to the table two girls were going in, and he called them back, but they refused to come and ran into the hall. He questioned many of the dancers, and most of them admitted that they had no membership cards of the dance club and their names did not figure on the membership books. Dancing had been discontinued since the summons was issued.

Mr. Phelan, solicitor for the defendant, said that there was a technical offence committed, but immediately the summons had been served no dances had been held. Civic Guards often went there and danced, and there had never been the slightest objection to the premises being so used.

Mr. McCourt, solicitor for the Dundalk Urban Council, who prosecuted, stated that certainly Mr. McGorisk was a thoroughly respectable man.

Mr. Patrick McGorisk said that the premises were substantial, and were as safe as any other dance hall in the country. "That may not be saying a lot," added the witness.

Justice Goff convicted and fined the defendant £1 and £2 2s. costs, and stated that he would consider the question of whether applications for dance hall licences could be made at any ordinary sitting of the District Court, and not merely at the annual licensing sessions.

Kilkenny's Show.

FROM OUR OWN CORRESPONDENT.
KILKENNY, Friday.

KILKENNY County Council has received intimation from the Free State Local Government Department of a grant of £2,000 from the Relief Scheme Vote for a scheme of road works estimated to cost £3,000, on condition that the Council contributed £1,000 out of their own funds towards the undertaking.

The County Council passed a resolution pointing out that, in view of the fact that they had considerably increased the amount levied on the rates for the upkeep of the roads, and had not reduced their estimate for the coming year, they though it unfair to demand an additional £1,000 from the rates. They requested that the £2,000 for the relief of unemployment be given without any condition as to the raising of additional money.

A Claim for £10,000.

'Bus Accident Sequel.

FROM OUR OWN CORRESPONDENT.
BELFAST, Friday.

IN the King's Bench Division, Belfast, to-day, before the Lord Chief Justice, in an action in which Dudley W. Field, of Wolseley street, (Botanic avenue district), Belfast, is plaintiff, and Messrs. H. M. S. Catherwood, Ltd., 'bus owners, Upper Library street, Belfast, are defendants in a claim for personal injuries, Mr. E. S. Murphy, K.C., with whom was Mr. B. J. Fox (instructed by Mr. J. C. W. Rea) for defendants, applied for an order that the plaintiff deliver to the defendants further and better particulars of his injuries.

The case, said counsel, was one of considerable magnitude, the claim being for £1,000. The particulars supplied of medical attendance did not give dates of the visits of the numerous doctors, and there was no mention of loss of profits. He suggested that the particulars, as they stood, were perfectly worthless, and defendants would be prejudiced thereby at the trial. The accident occurred on April 29th last, when the plaintiff, who was an Irish representative of the International Correspondence Schools, Ltd., alleged that while seated in a private car, which was stationary, a collision occurred with one of defendant's 'buses.

Mr. E. Warnock (instructed b Messrs. M. H. Turnbull and Co.) opposed the motion, saying that the plaintiff had given all the particulars asked for in the original notice for particulars. As to the profits, that was a matter at large for the jury.

The Lord Chief Justice said that he would not make any further rule as to medical claims. As to profits, the defendants were entitled to know the earning power of the plaintiff, and he thought defendants would get that information by discovery. He made no rule on the motion, and ordered that the trial should not take place until a fortnight after discovery. He gave defendants costs of the motion, because plaintiff was in fault.

Guard and Civilian.

Court Sequel.

FROM OUR OWN CORRESPONDENT.
DUNDALK, Friday.

THERE was a sequel at the Dundalk District Court to-day to the action brought by Alan Keenan, of Ravensdale, an ex-soldier, against Guard McDonnell, in an action brought in the Circuit Court, claiming £50 damages for assault against the Guard, alleging that the officer had beaten him so severely that he had to lie out all night in a field three miles from his home.

At the District Court to-day Justice Goff gave his decision in the charge of assault brought by the Guard against Keenan, and said that he noted that the jury had found for the Guard and that the Judge had endorsed their finding. Undoubtedly, the defendant Keenan had been drunk at the time of the incident, had assumed a very hostile attitude, and certainly the version of the occurrence given by Guard McDonnell was the true account. Portion of the considerable injuries received by Keenan might have been obtained while he was resisting arrest; but certainly much of them was due to his own drunken state and to his falling on the roadway when there was no one near him.

He (the Justice) at first intended to deal with the case by sending Keenan to prison without the option of a fine, but the fact that he had been injured considerably and that he had lost a lot of money by his action should be taken into consideration. Obviously the action brought by Keenan was an afterthought. The charges made in that and another Court were very serious, because if Keenan had been believed the Guard would have lost his position and gone disgracefully from the Force. The Guard, too, had been put to very heavy expense in the action, and probably would not be able to recover a penny of it from anybody. He found the case brought by Guard McDonnell proved, and he fined Keenan £2 with the alternative of a month's imprisonment.

SLIGO, Friday.

AT the monthly meeting of Sligo Harbour Board the Chairman Mr. H. Campbell Perry) said that the figures for last year constituted a record for the port. The total receipts for 1930 amounted to £11,499, against £10,875 in 1929. Harbour dues for 1930 amounted to £3,883, an increase of £383; import dues were £5,025, an increase of £17; and export dues were £849, an increase of £102.

The tonnage figures showed increased imports of bacon, coal, maize and sugar, and a decrease in flour, wheat and basic slag. Exports showed a substantial increase in eggs, cattle, sheep and pigs, and a slight decrease in butter.

DUBLIN PUBLICITY BALL

Mr. J. C. Browne and Miss Ellan-Kelly as "Irish Hospital Sweepstakes."

County Councils' Powers.

FROM OUR OWN CORRESPONDENT.
MULLINGAR, Friday.

AT the meeting of Westmeath County Council in Mullingar to-day, Mr. Thomas Maguire, presiding, Mr. M. J. Kennedy, T.D. (Fianna Fail) proposed the following resolution:—

"That, whereas the County Councils in the Six Counties have complete de-rating, and yet retain their full power, we, the Westmeath County Council, protest against any attempt at the further curtailment of getting up of a costly managerial system, the powers of County Councils, and the and we direct that copies of this resolution be sent to each County Council and Board of Health."

Mr. Kennedy said that in places where the Councils had been abolished the system was not working very satisfactorily. It was forecasted that the County Councils were to be abolished, and a managerial system brought into operation. These managers would cost a thousand pounds each. In Mayo, the first thing the Commissioner did there was to cut out the special work. Westmeath County Council had always done its business properly, and was above board in its administration of public affairs.

Mr. Brett said that he had great pleasure in seconding the resolution. The curtailment of Councils' powers forecasted was undemocratic and uneconomic.

Mr. Finnerty—I do not think that there is any suggestion to do away with the County Councils.

Mr. Brett—There is.

Mr. Finnerty said that he certainly heard the membership of the County Councils would be reduced and managers appointed. He thought that was a good idea. He proposed a direct negative to the resolution, adding: "I think it would be far more effective if the membership of the County Council was reduced and a manager appointed who would take some of the responsibilities off the members.

Chairman—Do you think it would be well to have another official appointed at a thousand pounds a year?

Mr. Finnerty said that he did not believe that would be necessary.

Mr. Charles Fagan seconded Mr. Finnerty.

When a suggestion was made that the matter be adjourned and notice of motion given for next meeting, Mr. Kennedy said that he could not agree to such a course, as the powers of the County Council might be curtailed in the meantime. "Dublin Corporation," added Mr. Kennedy, "have a managerial system, and they have paralysed everything. In Cork they might as well be a debating society."

On a division three voted for the direct negative and fifteen for Mr. Kennedy's motion, which was accordingly passed.

No Rift.

Apropos the paragraph which appeared in last Wednesday's Irish Times, referring to a rumoured rift between the Cork County Committee of the Irish Tourist Association and the Executive Committee in Dublin, Mr. C. Flynn, B.A., secretary of the Cork body, points out that Cork founded the Tourist Association, and since the removal of the headquarters, to Dublin, Cork has been a loyal supporter of the Executive. Both bodies continue to work in perfect harmony.

Dump in Pig Sty.

Gardener for Trial.

FROM OUR OWN CORRESPONDENT.
CORK, Friday.

EVIDENCE in regard to the discovery of a dump in a pig sty was given at Cork District Court to-day, when Christopher Crowley, of Pouldjuff road, Cork, a market gardener, was returned for trial for being unlawfully in charge of firearms.

Detective Officer D. Heffernan said that after searching for about half an hour, in a ceiling of the pig sty, near the accused man's home, he found the following:—

A .45 Webley revolver, a .38 revolver, a .32 revolver, one parabellum automatic pistol, one "Peter-the-Painter" automatic mauser pistol, 78 rounds of assorted rifle and revolver ammunition, two telephone receivers, two pairs of handcuffs.

The articles, witness said, could not be removed without first removing the ceiling boards. From the condition of the receivers and the handcuffs witness would say that they could not have been there very long. The galvanised iron, underneath which they were hidden, leaked during wet weather.

The accused man denied all knowledge of the arms. He was admitted to bail of £40 and two sureties of £20.

Camolin (County Wexford) beet growers have adopted a resolution demanding 50s. a ton for the coming season's sugar beet crop, in view of the fact that the Carlow Sugar Factory has received an increased subsidy of £54,000.

NIGHT COURT IN LEITRIM.

ATTACK ON ROAD GANGER.

SEVEN MEN CHARGED AND REMANDED.

FROM OUR OWN CORRESPONDENT.
CARRICK-ON-SHANNON, Friday.

AT a Special Court, which was held last night at Glangevlin, Dowra, Civic Guards Barracks, before Mr. P. de Lacy, Peace Commissioner, Superintendent P. Crean, Swanlinbar, charged Patrick McGovern, Carrick, Glangevlin; James McGovern (Frank), Hugh McGovern (James), Danied McGovern, James McGovern (Hugh), James McGovern (James), and Henry McGovern, Cormaclean, with assaulting, wounding and causing grevious bodily harm to Patrick McGovern, Cormaclean, on January 26th last, at Carrick, Glangevlin.

They also were charged with conspiracy and compelling McGovern to abstain from doing an act which he had a legal right to do—work as a ganger on public roads under the Irish Land Commission; using violence to assault McGovern, and intimidation. Also, that they took part in a riot, being armed with offensive weapons and missiles, and caused a disturbance and beat McGovern, to the terror of the citizens of the Saorstat.

They were further charged with taking part in an unlawful assembly.

Guard Morgan deposed to the arrest of the defendants, who made no statement.

GRAIPES.

Anthony McGovern deposed to the defendants being present on the road when Patrick McGovern, Cormaclean, was about to start work as a road ganger on the Land Commission road. Two of the defendants had graipes and a spade, and James McGovern (Hugh) had stones in his hands. Witness said that he also saw stones in the hands of other of the defendants. Pat McGovern the ganger asked Pat McGovern, Carrick: "What are you going to do to-day, Paddy?" The latter replied that the ganger had no right to be working there, and he hit the ganger with a graipe across the face, and then James McGovern (Frank) struck the ganger with a spade in the face.

GANGER'S INJURIES.

Witness saw James McGovern (Hugh) strike the ganger with a stone on the forehead. Witness also saw Hugh McGovern (James) strike the injured man on the back with a graipe. The ganger then went away cut and bleeding, and Pat McGovern, Carrick, broke the ganger's spade. All the defendants had stones where they had no weapons.

When the ganger went towards the Civic Guard barracks all the defendants cheered, and Pat McGovern, Carrick, made an attempt to strike witness, but his brother James stopped him.

The defendants were remanded in bail of £50 each and two sureties of £25 each to the next District Court to be held at Dowra.

WEXFORD, Friday.

INCREASED estimates for the coming year have been adopted by County Wexford Board of Health, inclusive of a sum for the immunisation of school children. An additional scheme submitted by the recently appointed County Medical Officer of Health (Dr. C. Bastible) was postponed for twelve months.

As a result of this decision the Free State Minister for Local Government has promptly communicated with the Secretary of the Board, stating that the establishment of a school medical scheme was mandatory on them, and that he must insist on them carrying out their duties in the matter. For that purpose he has assented to the necessary departure from the terms of the Public Bodies Order, so as to permit the Board formulating a supplementary estimate and demand to cover the estimated cost of the school medical scheme.

He (the Secretary of the Board) was therefore instructed to convene a special meeting of the Board on the earliest possible date to deal with the matter, so that the estimated demand could be submitted to the County Council before the latter struck the rates for the coming financial year.

The Secretary was further instructed to make a careful record of the voting of the members of the Board on the question.

In accordance with the Minister's letter, a special meeting of the Board has been convened.

TRINITY COLLEGE NOTES.

FIAT LUX.

HARMONY AMONG LINGUISTS.

From a Correspondent.

Conditions of living in Trinity are slowly, but inevitably, becoming more up-to-date. The latest example of modernisation is the introduction of electric light into the Rubrics, the oldest building in Trinity. The spirit of light has not yet completely permeated this last stronghold of picturesque gloom, but within a year the smoky flare of the oil-lamp, and the æsthetically satisfying, but ineffectual, flame of the candle will have been finally extinguished. In all other parts of College students have enjoyed the benefits of electric light for some time past, with the exception of a few rooms in the New Square. No one will regret these changes, except the American tourist, who will sigh over the vanishing romance of mediævalism.

The first numbers of the College magazines appeared this week. The College Pen appeared in a new buff-coloured cover, but the motto of this paper appears to be plus ça change; for those who were expecting a change in the literary policy have been disappointed. There is no essential difference in the contents, in spite of the new cover. The editor of T.C.D., unlike most editors of that paper, had the courage to deal with a political issue in his editorial, which takes the Mayo library case for its text, and defends Trinity against the attacks of her pseudo-patriotic critics. The Valentine number next week will give many people an opportunity to say what they think of their enemies, without fear of serious consequences to themselves.

"LOCAL COLOUR."

Mr. R. L. Flynn, a member of the D.U.D.S., is taking part in the production of the "Old Lady Says 'No!'" at the Gate Theatre. He appears as the average type of Trinity student, whose mentality is exhibited in a satirical light. Trinity men who have seen the play noticed that the author made a slight error in one of his references to Trinity. A student is spoken of as inhabiting rooms in a part of College which is, in fact, now used as a sort of dumping ground, the students having evacuated long ago.

Mr. R. J. F. Mayston.

A social event, which promises to be very successful, is the Lady Elizabeth Rowing Club's first annual dance at the Gresham Hotel next Monday. The members of this club are recruited from graduates and undergraduates of Oxford, Cambridge, and Trinity. Many of them were formerly distinguished members of the D.U. Boat Club, including Mr. R. J. F. Mayston, the Captain, and Mr. W. S. J. Carter, both of whom are busily engaged on Committee work for the dance. In many respects it will be very similar to a Trinity Boat Club dance. The Elizabethan Society's dance at the Metropole on the 16th is also arousing much interest, to judge by the number of tables which have already been booked at the hotel.

The Modern Language Society will hold an inter-debate with the French Society on Tuesday in the Regent House at 3.30 p.m. The motion to be debated is "Que cette assemblée approuve le 18 Siècle." The internal discussion which recently rent the Modern Language Society in twain was allayed at the meeting last Tuesday. The delicate susceptibilities of the women members had been wounded by aspersions cast upon them by one of the male members. The women students threatened to boycott the Society. This produced consternation among the men, as without women students this Society would be a sort of Mahommedan Hades. Therefore, the offending male made an ample apology for his remarks, which were made in a moment of indiscreet facetiousness. The amour propre of the ladies was apparently satisfied, and harmony has been restored in the Society.

"A CLOUDED CANE."

A well-known Fellow has recently taken to carrying a multi-coloured walking stick which would have been a joy for ever to the æsthetes of the 'nineties. It is as remarkable as Balzac's famous stick, and whenever the Fellow walks through College students turn and stare at it with open-mouthed curiosity.

The Swimming Club elected their new Captain this week. He is Mr. R. P. P. Wallace. This club seems to be a special preserve for members of the Wallace family.

The Boxing Club's Novices' Championships will be held in the Gymnasium next Tuesday night, beginning at 8 p.m. A club supper will be held afterwards in the Dining Hall. Next Monday night Mr. R. M. Hilliard will read a paper to the Theological Society on "Work in progress in the Oxford Group." The subject of the Neophyte Society's debate is more serious than usual. They will discuss the questions of "Disarmament and World Peace." There is a long list of speakers for the Historical Society's debate on Wednesday on the motion: "That the Cultural Influence of America in Europe is to be commended." Senator Sir John Keane, Bart., will take the chair.

On Thursday night Mr. M. A. Ellison, Treasurer of the Philosophical Society, will read a paper to the Society on "The Poetry of Existence." Mr. Ellison is a son of the Rev. W. A. F. Ellison, Astronomer of Armagh Observatory. He is a fellow of the Royal Astronomical Society, having been elected for research work on double stars.

At a meeting of the Chota Nagpur Mission in the G.M.B. on Tuesday the Rev. J. C. Forrester will be one of the speakers. Many Trinity men will remember Canon Forrester, who was Chaplain in College some years ago. Since leaving Trinity in 1927 he has been Vicar of Bath and Wells.

A Trinity graduate, Mr. A. H. Hillis, has recently been called to the English Bar. In the final examination he gained second place. Mr. Hillis graduated in 1927 with Moderatorship in Classics and Legal and Political Science. He is an ex-editor and ex-chairman of T.C.D.

The Aberdeen Hall in the Gresham Hotel, Dublin, was crowded, when the Irish Live Stock Exporters' and Traders' Association held their first annual dance last night. Spot dances were a feature of the programme, and dancing continued until 3.30 a.m. Among those present were:—Mr. John Fleming (Secretary), Mr. and Mrs. McLaughlin (Burns-Laird), Mr. Murphy (L.M.S.), Miss Lightfoot, Miss Nora Meehan, Miss Millett and party, Norman Redmond, Mr. and Mrs. Kettle and daughter, Mr. Tanham, Mr. J. THE MUSIC OF MOZART.

AN ANNIVERSARY CELEBRATION.

THE JUPITER SYMPHONY.

BY "OBBLIGATO."

In presenting some examples of the music of Mozart at its concert to-day, the Dublin Philharmonic Society reminds us of the 175th anniversary of the birth of that famous composer. We are past the exact date. Wolfgang Amadeus Mozart was born on January 27th, 1756, at Salzburg, in the Austrian Tyrol. His music never was more highly esteemed than it is to-day, and, as the late Sir Charles Stanford asserted, it appeals to none more than to those whose appreciation of music is mature. Men go through their different phases of response to musical urgings and then come back to Mozart. Such is the experience of humble lovers of music, but there are prominent instances, too, to the same effect. In Germany Richard Strauss turned from the hectic style of "Salome" and "Elektra" to invoke the spirit of Mozart in "Der Rosenkavalier." In France the school of composers known as "Les Six," gaining no satisfaction from experiments in tonalities and atonalities, have sought to recover the secret of Mozartean grace and life.

While a flavour of rococo may enhance the charm of some of Mozart's music, the greater works of the composer are so rich in the essentials of musical vitality that one does not think of them as a century and a half old.

HIS UNTIMELY END.

Although we look on Mozart as one of the greatest of composers, those who have studied his music hold the belief that what should have been his greatest work was never done. The compositions of his last years exhibit such an increase in his power of musical expression that we cannot but surmise what marvels might have followed had he not been cut off untimely in his thirty-sixth year. There is this further point: not only was Mozart at the time of his death gaining in mastery of the means of musical expression, but the means, too, were broadening fast at that time. The world of music was becoming a grander world, with rapidly extending horizons. We know what Beethoven, following close after Mozart in that world, did with the orchestra and pianoforte. Both instruments were beginning a new career when Mozart died. What would he have done with them? Beethoven died thirty-five years after Mozart. He was only a student of composition when Mozart died. Suppose that Mozart, masterly and mature, had lived and gone on composing for those thirty-five years, or, say, till the age of seventy, what might he have achieved in that ampler period? Where might he have led the young and ambitious Beethoven, or that boy (not born till four years after the actual date of Mozart's death), who certainly would have been a disciple of the living, as he was an admirer of the dead, Mozart—Franz Schubert?

All that is speculation. It suggests itself because a new grandeur in Mozart's last works conveys not so much a sense of finality as one of mastery that was on the verge of yet greater achievement.

In particular, that sense is conveyed in the last four of Mozart's numerous symphonies. We heard one of these, the one in E flat major, at the Philharmonic Society's first concert this season. The one in G minor is well known to many Dublin musical folk. To-day we are to hear the last and greatest, that in C major, which always has been known as the "Jupiter." This symphony, and the brief, brisk "Figaro" overture together will give us an excellent view of the strength and free flow of Mozart's music.

BORN TO MUSIC.

Mozart was born to music. He may almost be said to have practised it in his cradle; he was little more than an infant when he began to take part in concerts with his sister, Marianne. The father, Leopold Mozart, a flautist, haled the children round Europe, showing them off as musical prodigies. In the course of a concert tour they reached London, where little Wolfgang, then aged eight years, was the subject of a paper read before the Royal Society, where he was discussed as a case of remarkable mental development. Already he was composing; exercises and little pieces in the stile of the days, as penned by him in the year 1864 at London, are extant. At an early age Mozart was appointed to a musical office in the suite of the Archbishop of Salzburg. The appointment was terminated while Mozart was with the Archbishop in Vienna. The composer settled in the Austrian capital, with which his fame, like that of Haydn, Beethoven, and Schubert, is connected. He enjoyed high artistic success, especially as a composer of operas—does not the name of Mozart recall at once "The Marriage of Figaro," "Don Giovanni," and "The Magic Flute"—but died in poverty, and was buried in a pauper's grave. In his short life he composed an abundance of music, including, besides the operas and symphonies, several Masses and a variety of chamber music, and a large proportion of that great output is regarded as still worthy of frequent performance. His life is as interesting as his music is enjoyable. It can be read in any one of the volumes of chapters devoted to him in the several well known series of lives of the great composers. The general reader will find an old standard biography, which still is not seriously out of date, reprinted in the excellent "Everyman" Library.

AN IRISHMAN'S DIARY.

A Historian of Belfast : Pembroke's Town Clerk : Prize Money.
The Botanical Gardens : Mr. Andy Rose : The Strawboys.
Orientals in Dublin : Donne.

Prize Money.

Most boxing referees have a fund of good stories about fights over which they have presided, and Irish boxers are wont to figure largely in these "incidents" of the ring. I especially like the story by Mr. Eugene Corri of a hot-tempered Irishman who was appearing in a bout for a purse of £25 against a much-fancied cross-Channel boxer. There were protracted negotiations before the fight about the division of the prize-money, since the favourite wanted to secure £20 for the winner and £5 for the loser, whereas the Irishman, who expected to be beaten, voted for £15 and £10 respectively. At length the latter's temper flared up. "Oh, to hell with you," he shouted; "the winner take the lot." The Englishman gladly assented, but his opponent was so furious that he fought the fight of his life and won the £25.

A Forthcoming History.

Since my recent note on early banks in Belfast was written, a friend has handed me the prospectus of a forthcoming work, by Mr. S. Shannon Millin, entitled "Sidelights on Two Centuries of Belfast History," and has pointed out that I may have been rash in committing myself on this very question. At any rate, some new facts about these banks must have come to light recently; for it is asserted in the prospectus that the history of the eighteenth century Belfast banks "has been very inaccurately written, and special attention will be devoted to this important branch of commercial activity."

Mr. S. Shannon Millin.

It is fortunate that Mr. Millin had begun to collect material for his book many years ago; for otherwise no record of some important documents would have remained. One such document is included in the prospectus. It is a petition presented to the Irish Parliament by Belfast merchants in 1777. Together with other documents it was photographed by Mr. Millin just before the original shared the fate of many valuable records in the destruction of the Four Courts.

Coloured Pedlars.

The dusky pedlars from the East are still, I am told, very active in pushing their wares in all parts of the country. Incidentally I heard a good story in connection with one of these merchants. He called at a certain Customs office to declare the value of wearing apparel consigned to him. He handed the blank forms to the officer with a smile which bared his exquisite teeth, and then indicated that he could speak only Hindustani. The officer tried to explain that he merely wanted a declaration of value. Eventually the unfortunate official had to make his own valuation of the goods. The pedlar was evidently pleased, to judge by his smiling visage. A few evenings later he called at the officer's residence, and in perfect English he offered the official's wife bargains—all the way from India—at astonishing prices.

Etymological Interlude.

I have recently come across two expressions in which old Irish usage has won its way into modern vernacular. The word "bully" has circled the slang line of the world, sometimes as a term of reproach, sometimes quite the opposite. I have seen many derivations of it without being convinced until I happened upon a countryman's allusion to a friend who had distinguished himself at fisticuffs as "a real buailim sciach." His word was taken up, and bystanders repeated the expression without the sciach, the sound of the first word being practically "bully" in English. I learnt that the expression is frequent all over the country for a good fighter. The phrase means "I strike the shield," and was the time-honoured challenge of the old Irish champions, who suited action to word in calling out an antagonist.

The second phrase is the expression "on the brew," which in Northern Ireland is consistently applied to anyone who is on the dole. Its raison d'être puzzled me considerably for a long time, until I remembered that I had heard applied to someone who had stood a feast the phrase "the brew of the meal." This at once recalled to me the fact that the old name for the Irish public hospitaller was Brugaid—pronounced "brewey"— and gave me the interpretation of the phrase that was troubling me. To be "on the brew" is to be at public charges for support.

Strawboys.

Just now, up and down the country, strawboys are attending weddings and adding to their gaiety and excitement. I had the pleasure of witnessing them a few nights ago at a marriage festival. About midnight a horn blast was heard outside. The dancers cleared off the floor. Girls hugged one another and giggled excitedly. Ten men entered, all with masked faces, and straw hitched to the shoulders and legs. Six of them carried long staffs, or what a friend called "mogers." Having formed a circle in the centre of the floor, the four "unarmed" walked around, and, selecting four girls, took them by the arms. One of the party produced a fiddle and struck up a set of quadrilles. When every figure was danced the horn was blown again and the ten men marched out.

From the moment of entry none of them spoke a word. "That is their principal rule," a friend told me. "Neither is any girl supposed to refuse them a dance—anyhow, they are only delighted to be asked. No strawboy is supposed to take food or drink in the house, no matter who offers it."

"The staffs," he continued, "are a kind of warning to inquisitive persons who might try to rush them and pull off their masks. Half the fun is in trying to guess their identity. Strawboys are supposed to bring luck to newly-weds, and nobody here to-night was more anxious for their appearance than the bride and bridegroom. The more that come the better they will like it, because, besides the luck, it will show they are popular."

A Brighter Hour.

In these dull days of February I have spent a bright hour or two at the Botanical Gardens. There, in the hot-houses, winter seems unknown, and hundreds of strange and delicate plants unfold their leaves in blissful ignorance of it.

Quite a number of flowers are blooming. The gay cineraria makes a glorious show of blue, contrasting with the flaming red of the geranium, while opposite these the more delicate shades of blue and mauve of the primulas throw up to fuller effect a second show of cinerarias. A few narcissi and some failing hyacinths make the house sweet. Some rhododendrons are out, principally the smaller and less familiar species, and above these tower japonica shrubs with their gorgeous flowers of red and white. The orchids are well on—those strange, fantastic flowers, which seem to have no beginning and no ending, but produce a superb variety of colour. The cactus house is looking very fine. The weird and grotesque form of many of these plants is positively ludicrous.

Personally, I cannot understand why so few people seem to appreciate these gardens.

Mr. A. Rose.

The Ulster branch has furnished many distinguished Presidents to the Irish Hockey Union. The name of Mr. Tommy Graham, which was a household word in hockey circles twenty years ago, comes at once to mind. Mr. Raymond Burke and Mr. A. G. Burney furnish further examples, so that Mr. Andy Rose, the President-Elect, has a high standard to maintain. The nominee for next year's chair was at one time a prominent player with Cliftonville, but it is on the administrative side of the game that his best work has been done. He has been in turn Ulster selector, Irish selector and Ulster President, and to him was mainly due the affiliation of the North-West District.

Mr. A. Rose.

Application.

With much writing to be done, I sat for many hours in a Dublin library yesterday. Lunch-time came and went. Dinner-time approached, and I feared that I would be late for that also.

At times the library was full, more often deserted; but a woman seated near me did not seem to notice the hours pass. She was an elderly woman with a massive book in front of her, in which she seemed entirely engrossed.

At 8.30 I rose and went for my hat. The woman was still there. My curiosity got the better of me, and, deliberately passing her on my way out, I looked over her shoulder. Sitting nicely between the pages of the big book was a sixpenny novelette.

Fogs Again.

Writing in the "Diary" a few days ago on the subject of fogs, I indulged in a flight of fancy by venturing to suppose what, if a London fog were thick enough to bear a fall of snow on top of it, would happen when the fog lifted. A correspondent has launched a shaft which brings me to earth again. He is well acquainted with London "particulars," and assures me that our worst fogs are merely a haze in comparison. "These fogs," he says, "offer no physical resistance to movement, but with their large content of carbon particles, sulphur and other noxious fumes, they are almost asphyxiating. It is obvious, therefore, that, if a fog were thick enough to grasp or to support a fall of snow, it would be impossible to breathe in it, and there would be no citizens left in London to worry whether snow or water would fall when the fog lifted."

Pembroke's Last Town Clerk.

Residents of an older generation in Pembroke who know the careful and vigilant attention which Mr. Joshua C. Manly, the retiring Town Clerk of the township, has bestowed upon its municipal affairs, will wish him long years to enjoy his well-earned pension. Not only did he display outstanding ability in the discharge of all his duties, but in times when the personnel of the Council was sharply divided, both on political and municipal questions, he exercised a pacific influence. When the late Sir Robert Gardner and the late Mr. George Perry were members of the Council, and diametrically opposed to each other on the housing question and the laying out of Herbert Park, Mr. Manly's tactful qualities saved the Council from not a few troubled scenes. Once, when a storm was brewing, he hastened into his own office, rang up Sir Robert Gardner's, to ask one of his clerks to say that a client had called and was urgently wanting an interview. The device was successful. Sir Robert hurried off, and the meeting proceeded quietly.

Mr. J. C. Manly.

A Poet of Passion.

The poetry of John Donne, who died exactly 300 years ago, is not in demand to-day, but the anniversary of his death is an occasion when passing interest might well be given to his work and career; for his life story is one of the most interesting in all literature.

An early love affair inspired his pen to some exquisite love poetry, but his first ardour cooled, and he became secretary to Lord Elsinore, only to fall deeply in love again—on this occasion with his lordship's niece. A secret marriage caused him to lose his position and to suffer imprisonment, but he regained his freedom and, later, his wife, after a lawsuit which exhausted his resources.

In 1615 he entered the Church, and became Chaplain to the King, and subsequently Dean of St. Paul's. In this post he drew large congregations whenever he preached.

His memory, however, has endured, not by his ecclesiastical work, but only by his verse. His poetical qualities were uneven. Ben Jonson said that he was "the first poet in the world in some things," but that "he would perish for not being understood," and Dryden termed him "the greatest wit, though not the best poet, of our nation."

A Happy Effort.

Recently I stood on the street watching the efforts of a driver and a number of assistants to lift a horse which had fallen on a slippery thoroughfare. Their efforts were unavailing, because the unfortunate animal could not get a grip and was handicapped by a heavy load. Matters looked serious, with the horse helplessly on his side, until a bystander—who looked, incidentally, like a retired colonel—took a hand in the rescue. He caught the reins and, having wound them first on the foremost hooves, brought them back taut, and repeated the operation with the hind hooves. Next, having ordered the men to push the animal, he held the horse's head downwards. As soon as pressure was applied the horse made another gallant attempt, and must have been as surprised as his driver to find himself on all fours. The reins had provided the grip. I pass on the idea.

QUIDNUNC.

BOYS' BRIGADE OLD BOYS' CHURCH PARADE.

The annual Church Parade of the Old Boys' Union of the Dublin Battalion of the Boys' Brigade will be held in Christ Church Cathedral, Dublin, at afternoon Service (3.30 o'clock) to-morrow. It is expected that the Union will parade some 500 strong. The preacher will be the Very Rev. H. B. Kennedy, B.D., Dean of Christ Church. The offerings, after defraying expenses, will be given to the special repairs fund of the Cathedral.

A SOCIAL GATHERING.

The annual re-union of the staff of the Educational Company of Ireland was held in Clery's Ballroom last night, when there were over three hundred employés and their friends present. A very attractive programme was arranged for the function, and quite an enjoyable evening was spent.

Early in the evening a musical programme was gone through, many well-known Dublin artists taking part. Among those who contributed to the programme were:—Miss K. Martin, Miss Norrie Finn, Miss May Doyle, Lieutenant Doyle (Conductor, No. 1 Army Band), Messrs. O'Dea and Redmond, Mr. I. Lynch, Mr. J. Nolan, Mr. P. Hayden, Mr. T. J. Young, and Mr. D. Beavan. Traditional dances and Irish hornpipes were danced by Miss A. Kehoe, Miss C. Gilmore, Miss K. Hogan, and Miss A. Kavanagh.

Following the concert programme, the party retired to the ballroom, where dancing was indulged in until the small hours of the morning. The music was supplied by Billie Weiner's Band.

The arrangements for the re-union reflected great credit on the Committee responsible. The following comprised the Organising Committee:—Messrs. R. H. Lyon, W. G. Fitzsimmons, H. Francis, G. Greene, T. J. Young, E. Beavan, F. Ebbs, C. Jackson, J. Dunne, T. Cunningham, Mrs. O'Brien, Miss Kelly, Miss Horan, Miss Allen, and Miss Murray.

MUSIC OF THE PAST.

MODERN NOTATION INADEQUATE.

SIR RICHARD TERRY'S LECTURE.

Speaking on "The Romance of Musical Notation" at the Royal Dublin Society, Ballsbridge yesterday afternoon, Sir Richard R. Terry said that it was too much taken for granted that the old musical notation was the crude beginning of what was regarded as the perfect system of modern musical notation.

People, however, were often too apt to confuse change with progress, but the people of these old days had in their system of notation—which the modern theorist scoffed at—something which eminently satisfied the needs of their period.

The great trouble was that the modern form of musical expression was inadequate for the expression of the older music. What they were up against was the tendency to speak of everything in the past as somehow necessarily less perfect than in the present day. When he was a boy he had it impressed upon him that music had reached the state of perfection, but they were all painfully aware that, so far from having achieved that state, there had been a degeneration, and music had fallen away from a serious study to a mere recreation.

INFLUENCE OF PLAINSONG.

The idea of music as a serious study was foreign to the nineteenth century mind, and yet in sixteenth century England they found the musician in the full tide of the intellectual life of the nation. Men like Byrd, Weelkes, Weelby were regarded as the peers of Shakespeare, Ben Jonson, Marlowe, Beaumont Fletcher and so forth.

Referring to the earliest form of musical notation—plainsong—he said that in his school-days boys were brought up to believe that plainsong was a crude and barbaric expression of early European music. However, they found constant reference to it in the literature of the day as something that profoundly moved multitudes of men. It satisfied their intellectual needs, and they could not dismiss it. What they must realise was that their teachers in these days knew nothing of the subject.

THE HISTORY OF MUSIC.

Sir Richard Terry went on to trace the history of music from the eighth century, when plainsong had reached its zenith, touching on the second stage, the polyphonic period, and then through the transition period of the seventeenth century to modern music. The progress from plainsong to the modern music was not a change from crude to a more advanced or perfect form, but simply from one idiom to another. They were always asserting that modern music was better than the clumsy notation of the past, but the more he had gone into the music of the past, the more he found how utterly inadequate modern musical notation was for expressing the subtleties of mediæval music.

By means of diagrams on a blackboard, and with the aid of lantern slides, the lecturer traced the development of the staff, and how the different note-signs were brought into use.

IRISH FOLK-LORE.

DR. HYDE'S LECTURE.

At a meeting of the Irish Folk-lore Institute last night in 33 Upper Merrion street, Dublin, Dr. Douglas Hyde, Chairman of the Institute, delivered a lecture on "The Folk-lore of Connact."

The proceedings were conducted entirely in Irish.

In opening his address, Dr. Hyde said that that meeting was the first of a series which are to be held, and to which the various provinces and districts would supply contributions. He had been asked to give as an introduction to the meetings a lecture on folk-lore in general and Connact folk-lore in particular. Folk-lore consisted of old customs, old songs, games, proverbs, dances, and everything else of antiquity that had come down from grandfather to father, and from father to son. Of these, probably the stories were the most interesting, if not the most valuable, and there were problems connected with them which were scarcely connected with other folk customs. The Institute was doing its best to preserve everything of the kind. They had been doing that for themselves without assistance of any kind until last year, when the Government, seeing the good work that they were doing, stepped in to their aid and rented to them the rooms in which the Institute held its meetings, and gave them a grant for the collection and publication of folk tales.

Dr. Douglas Hyde.

FOLK TALES.

Continuing, Dr. Hyde said that there was no sort of Irish which was so simple, direct and pure as the language of the folk tales. Many of the tales were to be found in altered form scattered through the world in different countries.

The lecturer then quoted various folk tales illustrating ancient literature, and said that of these, perhaps, the most interesting were those which were obviously nature myths. The Scotch had collected great numbers of their folk stories, and in Ireland there had never been o folg-lorist to equal Ian Campbell, of Islay. He (Dr. Hyde) had collected about sixty stories, to many of which parallels were to be found in other countries in Europe.

Mr. P. O Siocfhradha, who presided, in proposing a vote of thanks to the lecturer, referred to Dr. Hyde's work for the Institute, and said that Dr. Hyde was the first to collect the folk-lore of Ireland and had shown the way to others.

MORE MONEY IF NECESSARY.

Mr. Ernest Blythe, Minister for Finance, seconding, said that there was no doubt that a very important work was being done by the Institute, and he thought it would never have been done but for Dr. Hyde. A great deal of the folk-lore was unquestionably dying out, and unless something was done to save it within the next ten years, the greater part would be lost. These stories were worth studying, because they gave an explanation of the mind of the people. Dr. Hyde had referred to the money grant given by the Government. Let no one think they would be unwilling to give more if it was necessary, but he thought it was better not to give too much, because they would be paying for work which otherwise would be done voluntarily, and it would be better that the work should be done voluntarily. They had given a grant of £500, and perhaps they would give a little more if it was shown that there was a real need for it, and that it would serve a useful purpose.

Mr. E. Blythe.

THE MODERN SHIP.

At a meeting of the Dublin University Engineering Society last night in the Engineering School, Mr. A. T. Ryland read a paper on "The Steelwork of Ships." He confined his remarks to a ship about 600 feet long. Mr. R. I. Crawford, proposing a vote of thanks, traced the history of the ship from the earliest times, and gave details of turbine construction and engines.

Mr. T. J. S. Mallagh seconding, gave details of the inside fittings of the modern liner. The following also spoke:—Messrs. Brick, Brennan, Medcalf, Roberts, Bourns, Buchanan, Bain, Beck, and the record and correspondence secretaries. Professor David Clark, M.A., B.Sc., chairman, summing up, mentioned the new bulb-stem on ships, and pointed out the advantages and disadvantages of naval architecture as a profession.

TWO CONVICTS ESCAPE.

HIGH WALL SCALED IN FOG.

BLOODHOUNDS USED IN WOOD SEARCH.

Armed warders from Dartmoor Prison were searching the moors last night for two prisoners who escaped during the afternoon. The men got away under the cover of a thick blanket of fog by scaling a formidable wall.

They are John Mullins (26), also known as James Flanagan, and John Michael Gasken (31), alias Hetherington.

There being a heavy fog over Princetown and the adjoining Dartmoor all day yesterday, special attention, as usual on such days, was given to the prisoners. Late in the afternoon, however, the inhabitants of the little moorland town were startled by the loud ringing of the prison bell, notifying that a prisoner or prisoners had escaped.

As far as can be gathered, the two men were stone dressing inside the prison, and near a thirty-two feet high wall.

SCALED A WALL.

It is alleged that they suddenly got hold of some planking, and scaling this, reached the top of the wall, dropping into the roadway. Their escape was noticed almost immediately, and an alarm was raised. Officers, with their guns, rushed out and scattered in all directions, but the fog was so dense that it was impossible to see many yards. All the police stations near and around Dartmoor were notified, and police were dispatched in all directions. Up to a late hour neither of the men had been found.

The first clue to the possible hiding places of the two escaped men was received just as dusk was falling, when the authorities were informed that articles of prison clothing had been found in the wood known as Tor Royal Plantation. This is part of the estate of the Prince of Wales, and covers about three acres. It is on the fringe of the moor. Hundreds of warders and civilians, patrolling in groups of four, worked through the plantation in the belief that the men would be found hiding in one of the thickets. Heavy rain and a thick mist made progress very slow, and bloodhounds were employed in an endeavour to trace the men.

BUNGALOW ENTERED.

It was reported late last night that a bungalow at Yelverton, six miles from Princetown and nine from Plymouth, had been broken into by, it is believed, the two convicts. When the owner, a Devonport business man, motored home about ten o'clock he found his house in a state of disarray. Clothes had been taken away, and there was evidence that the intruders had had a meal.

The owner states that, on motoring down the lane, he saw a man jump into the gateway, but it did not strike him as anything out of the ordinary at the time. When he found what had happened he reported the matter to the police, and the warders who were doing patrol duty on the main roads to Plymouth afterwards stopped all vehicles and pedestrians who passed.

Blankets From Bantry.

A PROMISING NEW INDUSTRY.

FEW places seem further removed from industrialism than the little town of Bantry, on the western seaboard of County Cork, and an up-to-date woollen mill, giving employment to forty hands, is scarcely a sight that one would expect to see there.

"Bantry Textiles, Ltd.," began life a few years ago, and, after a rather shaky start, is now prospering and developing. The tariff on imported woollen goods has done a great deal to set it on its feet, and the cheap Shannon power, when it arrives, will help it further by cutting down running costs. Thus, as far as the mill is concerned, these two much-disputed Government steps have brought nothing but good. It is turning out blankets at present at the rate of three or four hundred pairs a week, and further developments are contemplated for the future.

The manager was good enough to show me over the mill, and to explain the various processes by which the raw material is converted into the finished article. The wool used is mainly local, though some is imported from the Colonies. To render it easier of manipulation it is first "oiled," and then passed through a series of rollers, from which it emerges in the form of strands. These are then spun, only a few girls being necessary to watch over the dozens of spindles which are in use.

THE WEAVING PROCESS.

I was introduced to a room full of noise and complicated machinery, where weaving—the next process—is carried on. The blue stripes, so notable a feature of the blanket, make their appearance at this stage. The resulting pieces of material look uncommonly like sacking, but their transformation soon begins. They are washed to remove the oil, rolled again, and finally passed through a machine that gives them their characteristic "fluffy" appearance. After that nothing remains to be done except to find a customer for them.

The weather, I was told, has quite a noticeable effect on trade. If the winter starts mildly, sales are not likely to be so good. Even if cold weather should come later, people will be more inclined to carry on with what they have got rather than make a late purchase.

"Bantry Textiles" is not, of course, the only example of this industry in the county, for there are several large woollen mills in the neighbourhood of Cork. But it represents a very welcome thing—industrial enterprise in our smaller towns—and as such it deserves success.

PRINCE'S AIR VIEW OF PANAMA.

CENTRAL AMERICA'S WELCOME.

WONDERS OF THE GREAT CANAL.

Reports from Colon and Panama show that the Prince of Wales and Prince George, who are on their way to Buenos Aires to open a British Trade Exhibition, received enthusiastic welcomes in Central America. They viewed the Panama Canal from the air.

The Oropesa arrived at Colon yesterday morning in glorious weather, and the royal visitors received a wonderful welcome.

The party drove through the trim, spacious streets of Cristobal, which were lined with large crowds, to Francefield, the military aerodrome, some distance outside the city, where two big tri-motor 'planes were waiting with engines running to take them to Panama. On their arrival the men of the United States Aviation Corps were drawn up in long smart ranks, with band and colours, before their machines, of which there must have been at least fifty. The Prince of Wales, followed by his brother and suite, walked down the line with the United States General who was in command, and other air officers.

MEMORABLE IMPRESSIONS.

After bidding farewell to the United States officers the Princes and their suite took their seats and the 'planes roared off, and were soon soaring skywards into a stiff wind, followed by a number of naval and military 'planes acting as escort.

On their half-hour's flight to Panama the Princes had a wonderful bird's-eye view of the famous Canal over its whole length from the Atlantic to the Pacific, landing at the national air port at Panama.

The Press Association's correspondent who flew to Panama shortly after the Prince of Wales and Prince George states that, though the Prince of Wales is already familiar with the Canal, his impression of it from the air must have been memorable; for in this way alone can a full extent of the marvellous engineering wonder be appreciated.

After a splendid flight the aeroplanes landed at Paitilla air port, where a large crowd assembled to greet the Royal visitors.

MALTA DROWNING ACCIDENT.

TWO ENGLISH VICTIMS.

FROM REUTER'S CORRESPONDENT.
MALTA, Friday.

Two English people were drowned here this afternoon. An Englishwoman, while walking along the shore towards Fort Tigne, got caught by a wave and carried out to sea. A Maltese lad, who saw the accident, jumped into the sea and made repeated, but unavailing, efforts to rescue the woman, whereupon Gunner Picton, of the Sixth Heavy Battery, who is stationed at Tigne, went to the rescue, but was also carried away by the sea, and disappeared almost immediately.

Two Naval ratings, belonging to the destroyer Whitley, who were witnesses of the affair, then jumped into the sea, calling out to the woman, who was still struggling in the water, to try to float on her back, but by the time they reached the spot she had been carried away and disappeared.

It was reported late this evening that the wife of a naval officer, who went out on a shopping expedition early this afternoon, had not yet returned. P

BOXING.

IRISH JUVENILE TITLES.

A CLEVER BOXER FROM CLONMEL.

The preliminary rounds of the Irish Juvenile Championships were decided last night in the Gymnasium, Kevin street Barracks, Dublin, where they will be concluded to-night.

Although the entries showed a slight decrease upon those of last year, the standard was distinctly good. One of the most promising of the newcomers is the Clonmel lad, P. Flannery, who showed a keen knowledge of ringcraft in outpointing J. Clarke, of St. Tarcicius, in the first round of the 6st. Class, and went on to beat M. Cullen, also of St. Tarcisius, in the second round. Flannery boxed splendidly, and, though gaining most of his points by clever work with his right, his punches were delivered with a cleanness that marked him as a distinctly useful juvenile.

Another provincial winner was Garry Roche, of Wexford, last year's champion in the 7st. 7lb. Class. Roche, who figured in the 8st. Division, was opposed by a tough little fighter in J. O'Byrne, of St. Tarcicius, who gave him any amount of trouble by his rushing tactics. Roche, however, boxed coolly, and in the last round his powerful right-hand work alone was sufficient to gain him the verdict.

5st. 7lb. CLASS.

First Series—J. Sanders (Portobello) beat J. Byrne (St. Tarsicius) on points; J. Winters (Dolphin) beat T. Garrigan (Swords) on points.

Second Series—S. Hughes (St. Tarcisius) beat Sanders on points.

6st. CLASS.

First Series—J. Maguire (St. Andrews) beat P. McLoughlin (St. Andrews) on points; P. Flannery (Clonmel) beat J. Clarke (St. Tarcisius) on points.

Second Series—Flannery beat M. Cullen (St. Tarcisius) on points.

7st. 7lb. CLASS.

First Series—Hansard (St. Tarcisius) beat P. Curtis (Dolphin) on points; P. Hyland (St. Andrews) beat R. Maher (Avona) on points; T. Dolan (St. Tarcisius) beat P. Tallon (St. Andrews) on points.

8st. CLASS.

First Series—C. Grattan (St. Andrews) beat T. Dunne (St. Andrews) on points; G. Roche (Wexford) beat J. O'Byrne (St. Andrews) on points.

8st. 7lb. CLASS.

First Series—A. Gallagher (Corinthian) beat R. Fullam (St. Andrews) on points.

9st. CLASS.

First Series—T. O'Connor (Avona) beat M. O'Hare (St. Tarcisius) on points.

HEAVY-WEIGHT.

First Series—C. Kelly (Portobello) beat P. O'Reilly (St. Andrews), who was disqualified, in the first round; T. Smithers (St. Andrews) beat P. Fortune (St. Andrews) in the second round; W. Humphries (St. Tarcisius) beat P. Seddon (St. Andrews), who retired, in the second round.

Second Series—Kelly beat J. O'Flaherty (St. Tarcisius) on points.

BOUTS IN BELFAST.

QUICK WIN FOR WILLIE M'DERMOTT.

The charity programme organised by Mr. Hugh McAlevey and Mr. J. O'Connor attracted a good attendance to the Ulster Hall, Belfast, last night. Owing to the non-appearance of Jack Quinn, the Irish flyweight champion, Spider Kelly (Derry) deputised against Percy Denter (Nottingham).

McDERMOTT'S QUICK WIN.

Dave Clarkson (Hamilton) was opposed by Willie McDermott (Dublin), and opened the latter's left eye soon after the start. McDermott, however, punished him with body blows and made him miss a lot. Left hooks by the Scot passed over the head of McDermott, who flashed in a right uppercut towards the end of the first round and put Clarkson down for eight. The end came early in the second; for after McDermott had driven both hands to the body and the left to the head he whipped the right to the jaw like lightning, and Clarkson crashed to the boards, down and out.

PETERSON LUCKY.

Carl Peterson, who is boxing instructor to the Royal Ulster Rifles, was the opponent of Walter Wright (Blackpool), in a welter-weight bout of eight rounds. Wright landed heavily with the left to the body, while Peterson, missed with left swings. The Lancashire man punched hard with both hands, but took a short count in the first round. Wright used his left well in the second, and suddenly whipped a vicious right across. Peterson was obviously ill at ease for the first three rounds, missing frequently with his punches, and being at fault in defence. Although Peterson did better in the fourth, he was missing a good deal, but in the fifth he rocked the Blackpool man with a rib-roasting right. Wright had slowed down considerably, and Peterson continued to improve, but the former countered strongly. Wright was smart in defence, and made Peterson miss, although the latter did well at close range. At the same time, he was lucky to get a draw, for it appeared to most at the ringside that Wright had won.

DECISION UNPOPULAR.

Fred Shaw (Shipley) deputised for George Willis (Newcastle) against Jack O'Brien (Belfast), who claims the Irish Middle-weight Championship, and was far too clever for the Irishman in the first round, being quicker on his feet and punching cleaner. He was warned, however, for using the heel of his glove in the second, but was the more skilful boxer, his straight left gaining points. O'Brien's best work was done at close range, where he punched with power to the body, but Shaw's ringcraft was excellent. The fifth round saw O'Brien scoring with both hands to the body, but Shaw fought back splendidly, being faster and more skilful. The sixth and seventh rounds were of a gruelling nature, both slamming hard to the body. Shaw was the superior boxer, but did not relish O'Brien's relentless attacks to the body. At long range he easily evaded his opponent's punches, and there was a demonstration of disapproval when the referee gave his verdict for O'Brien.

M'ALORAN'S VICTORY.

Frank M'Aloran, Belfast, got the decision over Francois Machline, of Belgium. The Irish lad was in front at the half-way stage on points, but the Belgian was a regular terrier and never left off trying. M'Aloran, however, was too clever for him and was able to avoid his whirlwind rushes. In the closing stages the Belgian forced matters, but M'Aloran fought back freely, and got the verdict after a gruelling contest.

BERG AND CANZONERI.

TERMS NOT YET ARRANGED FOR TITLE MATCH.

NEW YORK, Friday.

Negotiations for a contest for the world's light weight title between Kid Berg and Tony Canzoneri, the present holder of the title, have been going on between the various parties concerned, but Sol Gold, Berg's manager, said yesterday that nothing definite had been agreed to or fixed up, though possibly terms might be arranged next week.

The fight is expected to take place some time in March or April, or in the open air during the summer. Berg, while not feeling any bad effects from his injured shoulder, will leave for Miami on Saturday for a well-earned rest.

LEINSTER CHAMPIONSHIPS.

Great interest is being taken in the Leinster Championships, to be held on Thursday and Friday next, if for no other reason than that the Leinster team to meet Ulster in the annual interprovincial will be selected from the new champions. In addition to the strong entry from the Gardai, many other Irish champions will be competing, so that the tournament should prove one of the best of the season.

Up to the present there are sixty odd entries, representing the principal clubs in Leinster, as follows:—Garda Siochana, St. Andrews, St. Tarsicius, Curragh, Brownstown (Curragh), Portobello, Collins Barracks, Islandbridge, Phœnix, Dublin University, Avona, Corinthian, the Imperial Tobacco Company, Wexford, Trim and Longford.

The weigh-in will take place on 12th inst. at St. Andrew's Boxing Club, 42 York street, Dublin, from 8 a.m. to 10 a.m. and 12-2 p.m. Secretaries of clubs should make a special effort to have their representatives in attendance as early as possible at the hours stated.

GOLF.

WHAT DOES IT MEAN?

THE J.A.C. RELATIONS WITH ST. ANDREWS.

ACCORDING to the official report of the seventh annual meeting of the British Unions' Joint Advisory Committee, authorised for circulation, among the matters discussed were "the Committee's relations with the Royal and Ancient Golf Club of St. Andrews." In regard to these relations, it is stated, consideration as given to a reply received from "that club" to a memorandum submitted to it by the Committee in March, 1930, and it was decided to send a further communication.

The man in the street will, perhaps, from a reading of the bald statement authorised by the Committee, conclude that if the Committee considered the reply of the Royal and Ancient satisfactory the nature of the memorandum sent to St. Andrews and the reply would have been published. That that has not been done, and that the Committee found it necessary to forward another communication suggests to our golf correspondent that the relations between the governing body of the game and the Joint Advisory Committee may possibly be a little strained.

GIFTS FOR HOLING IN ONE.

The effort made by the Committee of the Portmarnock Club to remedy the abuses which had been creeping into the game as the result of business firms presenting free gifts to golfers for holing in one has had an excellent effect.

The matter was taken up by the Golfing Union of Ireland, who adopted a resolution and decided to recommend it to the other National Unions for consideration. The resolution of the Union, which contained an instruction to its clubs instead of the stereotyped request, was considered by the Joint Advisory Committee of the four Unions at its annual meeting and was approved, as follows:

> "That the Central Council of the Golfing Union of Ireland disapproves of the presentation of gifts by non-golfing organisations for golfing performances, and instructs all affiliated clubs not to co-operate or assist in such schemes."

THE J.A.C. MEETING.

The following is the official report of the British Golf Unions' Joint Advisory Committee, authorised by the Committee for circulation:—

"The seventh annual meeting of the Joint Advisory Committee of the British Golf Unions was held in the Golfers' Club, London, on 29th January, 1931, when Mr. L. C. H. Palairet (President of the English Golf Union) was elected chairman for the ensuing year.

"An official report of the proceedings states that among the matters discussed were:—The Committee's relations with the Royal and Ancient Golf Club of St. Andrews; Greenkeeping Research, the calendar of dates of leading golf events, and the presentation of gifts by non-golfing organisations for golfing performances.

"In regard to relations with the Royal and Ancient Club, consideration was given to a reply received from that club to a memorandum submitted to it by the Committee in March, 1930, and it was decided to send a further communication.

"The following were appointed to form the Board of Greenkeeping Research for 1931:—Messrs. L. C. H. Palairet, F. S. Bond and Percy Clough (English Union); G. P. Bryce and James Hay (Scottish Union); A. B. Kidd (Irish Union); J. A. Alexander (Welsh Union); Sir Robert Greig, D.Sc.; Mr. W. Norman Boase, C.B.E., and Mr. Norman Hackett.

Favourable reports of the progress achieved by the Board at the Green-keeping Research Station at Bingley, Yorks, and in visits paid to golf courses throughout the British Isles were submitted, and, as indicating the interest which the work of the Board has evoked, it was stated that subscriptions had been received from golf unions and clubs in British overseas Dominions and in foreign countries. The total income of the Board during 1930 was £3,090, which included the following approximate contributions:—English Golf Union, £1,270; Scottish Golf Union, £510; Golfing Union of Ireland, £285; Welsh Golfing Union, £105. Individual subscriptions totalled approximately £400, and a special grant of £60 had been made by the London and Southern Counties Bowling Association for the construction and maintenance of a miniature bowling green at Bingley.

JOHN DORAN FOR BIRR.

John Doran, assistant to William Nolan at Portmarnock, has been appointed professional and greenkeeper to the Birr Club, and will enter on his duties there on Monday.

Doran has had eight years' experience. He served an apprenticeship of three years in Fred Smyth's shop at Dollymount, was for two years with James Martin at Milltown, and for the last five was at Portmarnock. A first-class club-maker, he is an excellent teacher, and, as a player, is one of the most promising of the younger school of Irish professionals.

Creamery Dispute.

FROM OUR OWN CORRESPONDENT.
TIPPERARY, Friday.

THE following statement was issued by the directors of the Tipperary Co-Operative Creamery to-day:—

"Although there is still no settlement of the labour dispute at the Tipperary Creamery, work was resumed on Tuesday morning by the farmers and their representatives. Every avenue having been explored to bring the dispute to an end, the directors finally offered to leave the whole circumstances to independent arbitration, and to abide by the arbitrator's award. This offer was, however, peremptorily refused."

Interviewed this evening, Mr. Joseph Cahill, local secretary of the Irish Transport and General Workers' Union, said that he was not empowered at present to make any statement on the matter. "We are," he said, "in communication with our head office in Dublin, which is, in turn, in communication with the Free State Ministry of Industry and Commerce."

BADMINTON.

IRELAND'S GREAT VICTORY.

ONLY ONE MATCH LOST TO SCOTLAND.

IRELAND .... 8 SCOTLAND 1

REPEATING victories gained in the last two seasons, Ireland won the International contest against Scotland at the Elm Park Badminton Hall last evening in overwhelming fashion by eight matches to one.

Following on the big victory over Wales a couple of weeks ago, this promises well for our prospects in the most important game of the series against England at Westminster in a month's time.

It seems probable that the team which represented Ireland last evening is the best that this country has ever put in court. The Hamilton brothers showed that they have lost none of the form which enabled them to make a clean sweep of the Scottish titles at Glasgow last season. G. S. B. Mack and J. F. Devlin gave definite evidence of what their opponents may expect by only allowing the opposition in the men's doubles four aces in a straight game win.

Even better, perhaps, was the form shown by newcomers to the Irish team. J. L. Rankin improves with each outing, and T. H. Boyle, who only came into the side against Wales as a substitute, is quickly developing into a stylist of the first order.

Last night's game is notable, too, because we won the women's doubles match. Miss Fleming, who was one of the parties to that success, has been a member of the team for some time, and has before now done good service. Miss Teuton, on the other hand, was making her first appearance in International badminton, and her display was in every way satisfactory. She has a powerful smash, a sound defence, and it stands to her credit that she was also on the winning side in her mixed doubles match.

Our only defeat was that in which a very famous pair of mixed doubles exponents, J. Barr and Miss C. T. Duncan, proved too strong for J. F. Devlin and Miss Hamilton. The deciding factor in this match was really the experienced skill of Miss Duncan, who has improved immensely since she created such a great impression when playing for Scotland at Belfast a couple of years ago. Details:—

ASSOCIATION FOOTBALL.

SECOND ROUND OF THE CUP.

SHELBOURNE'S VISIT TO CORK.

THE second round ties in the Free State Cup will be played to-day and to-morrow, but the League match between Cork and Shelbourne will evoke the greatest interest.

Last Saturday Shelbourne assumed the leadership of the League with a two points' advantage over Dundalk and Brideville, each of whom, however, have played a match more, and a win to-morrow would give them the championship. The question is—Will they be able to reproduce on the Mardyke ground the high-class football which enabled them to depose Brideville? The Cork team are also playing sound football, and, as they will be at home, the visitors may expect to be fully extended.

Speculation is keen anent the result of the Cup-tie to-day at Dalymount Park. Edenville are capable of playing an excellent Cup-tie game, have everything to gain and little to lose, and, with Bohemians going rather shakily at the moment, there are possibilities of a surprise being sprung by the less experienced team. The holders, Shamrock Rovers, will be visited by Bray Unknowns to-morrow; Waterford will be at home to Dolphin, and Cork Bohemians will take on Dundalk at Dundalk.

This is our problem

From July until February we are overwhelmed with orders for wiring installations and we have to employ a very large staff to cope with the work. From February until July the work eases off and we must dispense with the services of a number of our Installations staff. These men remain unemployed until the autumn when the rush of wiring orders begins again.

This is our proposition

To reduce pressure of work during the rush season and to increase business during the slack season we make the following offer:

FROM NOW UNTIL JULY WE WILL INSTAL FREE OF CHARGE TO THE CUSTOMER ONE CONVENIENCE OUTLET FOR EVERY 8 LIGHTING OUTLETS ORDERED.

This is your position

if you decide to take advantage of this offer:
You enjoy immediately the benefits of Electricity.
You get one convenience outlet wired free of charge.
You get a very special promptness and attention in the execution of your order.

We shall be glad to supply further information.

The Man of Macedonia.

The Diocesan Synod of Down and Connor and Dromore has changed its mind. Five years ago the Synod approved a proposal that the diocese should be divided, and that a new bishopric should be established. Discussion of the project has continued since that time, and four months ago the Diocesan Synod authorised a committee to confer with members of the Representative Church Body. The conference was held, and on Tuesday the committee laid its report before a special meeting of the Diocesan Synod. On the basis of this report Viscount Bangor proposed that the scheme for the division of the diocese and for the establishment of a new bishopric should be approved. The Reverend W. H. Good, M.A., Rector of St. Mary's, Belfast, resisted the motion, and his amendment was carried by substantial majorities of both orders—in all, 246 votes against 130. There is no doubt that the Synod's change of mind was influenced mainly by the report of ten members of the committee which had conferred with the Representative Church Body. In 1925 the Diocesan Synod had assumed that, if a new bishopric were created, the cost of the whole scheme would be borne by the general funds of the Church; but it seems now that the whole Church is bound only to a sympathetic consideration of the project. Furthermore, a majority of the Diocesan Synod clearly holds that a new bishop is by no means the most urgent need of the Church's largest diocese.

One bishop in any diocese is a spiritual and ecclesiastical necessity. There are circumstances in which, even in a very populous diocese, a second bishop might be, if not an extravagance, at least a luxury, and those circumstances seem to exist in Down and Connor and Dromore. The Church population of the United Diocese, centred on Belfast, is 240,000 souls, whose welfare is in the hands of 211 clergy. Such a staff for so large a community is, of course, utterly inadequate, and the contrast with some of the Church's smaller dioceses is acute. In Limerick, for instance, 39 clergy minister to a Church population of 4,251, and the 5,744 Church people of Meath have the services of 49 clergy. Belfast lacks not only clergy, but churches and Sunday schools, for its huge industrial population. The clergy—especially in these days of distress—are overloaded with parochial duties, and it was stated at Tuesday's meeting that nearly 50,000 of the Church population of Belfast had lapsed from contact with them. Church contributions have decreased; salaries cannot be found for additional curates, and the parishes are labouring under debts which have a total of more than £40,000. Tuesday's voting shows that, in the Diocesan Synod's view, this almost desperate accumulation of needs outweighs the claims of a new bishopric. The capital cost of such a bishopric might not be less than £50,000. Was this a time, asked Mr. Good, to accept such a burden, "when people were in dire want and unemployment everywhere around them?"

It is not surprising, perhaps, that Belfast's overworked clergy have come almost to resent the placid flow of ecclesiastical existence in some southern dioceses. The complaint has been made that the whole Church denies to the northern diocese the help for which its needs clamour. This feeling may be unjust to Dublin and the South, but it exists, and, so long as it exists, it will be a danger to the Church's welfare. Ten years ago we did not conceal our uneasiness at the possible effects of political partition on the Church's unity; and in some measure our fears have been fulfilled. Belfast and Dublin have fallen apart. The General Synod still meets in Dublin, but, by a sort of conspiracy, it evades topics, however pertinent to the Church's weal, that cover the suppositos cineres of inter-State politics. If, indeed, a breach has begun, all the Church's piety and wit ought to be concentrated on the duty of reconciliation. If the North's complaint that the Church has neglected Belfast be just, it ought to be met generously and without delay. On the other hand, if it be unjust, it ought to be disproved quickly, lest the small sore fester and become a rankling wound. The northern dissentients who conferred with the Representative Church Body recommend "a thorough investigation of the Church's needs and resources as a whole, with a view to greater unity and the more effective use of the resources at her disposal." We think that every wise Churchman in every diocese must endorse this suggestion. A Church is a greater thing that her machinery, and it is no blasphemy to suppose that a real stock-taking—the first in sixty years—might produce a helpful readjustment of Church finance to the social and spiritual needs of a new era. In any case, Tuesday's vote in Belfast has raised issues which the next General Synod cannot ignore.

Australia's Plight.

The financial condition of Australia seems to become more serious every day. When Mr. Scullin, the Federal Premier, took his bold stand against the advocates of debt repudiation, some months ago, confidence in the stability of the Commonwealth was encouraged; but his recall of Mr. Theodore to the Treasury has caused the gravest concern among Australia's friends. The Commonwealth's credit has virtually collapsed. Exchange rates have moved heavily against it. One hundred pounds sterling now cost more than one hundred and thirty pounds in Melbourne and Sydney, and the position is likely to be worse before it improves. Yesterday, at Canberra, a meeting of Federal and State Ministers discussed the situation. They were informed that the fall in the national income of Australia, as a direct result of her financial eccentricities, amounted to some £100,000,000. Money could not be borrowed anywhere; unemployment was increasing at an alarming rate, and at least three years would be needed before the national finances could be rehabilitated. Mr. Scullin explained to his colleagues that before the end of the present month short-term loans to the amount of £55,000,000 would mature, and of this amount £35,000,000 was borrowed in London. In addition to this sum Australia must find £34,000,000 in respect of interest, and her total liabilities for February will be increased further by £10,000,000 in consequence of the unfavourable exchange. A committee of experts had prepared a report for the Ministers, in which it told them frankly that their rakes' progress must be stopped. Mr. Scullin took offence at this attitude, and declared that he would not allow Government policy to be dictated by officials, whereupon the conference, for all practical purposes, collapsed. Sir Robert Gibson, Chairman of the Commonwealth Bank, went straight back to Sydney, and no results of any value may be expected from the gathering. The short discussion that took place, however, gives a remarkable insight into the minds of Australian politicians. Despite the extreme gravity of the situation, and at a time when Australian stocks in London are lower than those of South American Republics, Mr. Scullin announced that he would not be a party to any reduction in wages. Mr. Lang, the Premier of New South Wales, went even farther; for he declared that he proposed to increase wages in his State. In these circumstances Australia's friends cannot be blamed if they are in a condition almost of despair. Only a man of immense energy and ruthless determination can save the country from financial ruin. At the moment no such man is forthcoming.

Motor Races.

We print to-day an announcement which ought to have a large influence on the attendance at this year's Irish Grand Prix motor races. Shortly before Captain Malcolm Campbell left for the United States, to make his successful attempt on the world's "record" land speed, he intimated that, in all probability, the famous Blue Bird would be on show in Dublin about the time of the Grand Prix. We recognise that, while human nature is what it is, such an exhibit will be able to draw an attendance that even the thrill of a motor race cannot draw. The Grand Prix races have become an established feature of Irish life. They not merely provide international contacts of the highest importance, but their value, both immediate and prospective, to the Free State's tourist traffic is anything but negligible. Yesterday, too, an announcement appeared that will have as insistent a bearing upon the North's "place in the sun" as Captain Campbell's promise will have upon the South's sporting ambitions. We refer to the readjustment of handicaps for the Ulster Tourist Trophy. In last year's Ulster race there was a notable reduction of entries, largely because, where no discrimination was made between supercharged and unsupercharged cars, the manufacturers of the unsupercharged types considered their chances of success to be poor. The promoters of the Dublin event always made such a discrimination, and their entries improved accordingly. The readjustment of handicaps in Ulster ought to exert a sensible effect on entries in this year's contest. We trust most earnestly that both events will prosper; for the failure of either would be a serious loss to Ireland.

Iconoclasts.

On Thursday it was reported that a bullet or catapult wound had been found in one of the sculptured figures that adorn the façade of the Underground Railway headquarters at St. James's Park, London. The incident represents another phase of the popular antipathy against Mr. Jacob Epstein, whose relief, "Rima," in Hyde Park was greeted with an outburst some years ago. Like Hippocleides, Mr. Epstein will not care; in all probability he will be delighted. If such an outrage had been committed by a competent judge of art, it might have been regarded as a serious indictment of the sculptor's work; but almost certainly it represents the spleen of some one of that great class which "does not know anything about art, but knows what it likes." As a matter of fact, Mr. Epstein's work on the Underground Railway's headquarters constitutes, perhaps the only decent memorial erected in London within the past ten years. It is difficult to estimate the mind of a person who does his little worst on such a creation, and spares the numerous hideous monuments that really disfigure the city. What London wants is a few Irishmen. Here we have a short way with offending statues. If an Irishman is goaded to fury by a statue, he is not content to sit at a window and shoot bullets at it from an air-gun. Bullets, which merely disfigure and make the monstrosity more monstrous, form a petty protest. Instead, the Irishman removes the statue, and it is seen no more. This course is vastly more efficacious; and, but that the destroyer is actuated more frequently by political rancour than by æsthetic objections, it would be sometimes laudable.

General Inference.—Barometric pressure is now fairly uniform over the country, but a new depression on the Eastern Atlantic will deepen and advance east or north-east. Occasional rain or showers will occur locally at first, though with considerable fair periods, but later unsettled conditions, with rain, are likely to be renewed on the Western Seaboard, and these will probably spread north-east.

Ireland, all Districts.—Moderate variable winds, backing and becoming fresh to strong, southerly; cloud increasing and lowering; some rain later; becoming milder.

Irish Sea and St. George's Channel.—Moderate winds, variable to fresh to strong, southerly; mainly fair at first; cloudy; some rain later; local fog early; sea becoming rather rough to, perhaps, rough.

LONDON LETTER.

QUEEN'S UNIVERSITY AND WESTMINSTER.

39 FLEET STREET, LONDON,
FRIDAY NIGHT.

Mr. Joseph Fisher presided over a meeting of the Council of Queen's University Club, London, held here yesterday, when it was resolved that a protest should be made against the proposal to abolish university constituencies in the Representation of the People Bill. As a result of the meeting, a reasoned document was drawn up, pointing out that, by the Government of Ireland Act, 1920, Northern Ireland was guaranteed representation in the Imperial Parliament; that such representation was to consist of four borough members, eight county members, and a member representing the Queen's University, and that this clause had been confirmed by Article 11 of the Anglo-Irish Treaty. From this point of view it is contended that the representation of Queen's University in Parliament partakes of the nature of a treaty, and cannot be altered to the disadvantage of one of the parties without the consent of both. It is pointed out that the Queen's University, since its foundation by Sir Robert Peel, has been a centre of light and of orderly development in Ireland. It is a self-governing institution, representing all sections of educated opinion in Northern Ireland, without distinction of class or creed or political party.

Rumours and a Denial.

Mr. Snowden's definite denial in the House of Commons last night of the rumours that a big development loan was pending had a great effect on Gilt-edged securities on the Stock Exchange to-day. Prices recovered most of their overnight losses in nearly every case, while there was a restoration of confidence. It is said that the fall in prices was due not only to fears of a big development loan, but because other big issues were pending. This idea was confirmed to-day by the announcement of the details of a very big Indian Government loan. Incidentally, it was pointed out in the Lobby to-day that the Chancellor's statement is a direct rebuff to Mr. Lloyd George in connection with the forthcoming debate on his motion in regard to unemployment schemes.

Parliamentary Procedure.

The Select Committee of the House of Commons, appointed last autumn to consider parliamentary procedure and to report on possible improvements, will begin work during the next few days. The delay has been caused by the singular deadlock which occurred at its first meeting, when it was unable to elect a chairman. The two members nominated for this post—Mr. Ernest Brown, a Liberal, and Mr. Davies, a Socialist—received the same number of votes. The Committee in consequence adjourned. It has just held another meeting, when a member absent from the first meeting was able to be present, and turned the scale in favour of Mr. Brown by one vote. Having elected its chairman, the Committee will now proceed with its duties, and the leaders of the three political parties will be among the first to express their views. Mr. G. B. Shaw has been invited to give evidence before the Committee.

Members' Privileges.

The fact that one of their number has been found guilty and fined in connection with the use of parliamentary vouchers for travelling on the railway was the cause of much disquietude among Labour members to-day, and it was noted that many of them agreed with the opinion expressed by the magistrate on the disgrace that a member of Parliament should be involved in such a case. There have been rumours for some days past that something of the kind was likely to happen, but comparatively few members thought that the case could be so unpleasant as it has turned out to be. Members of the House of Commons, being entitled to free first-class travel between London and their constituencies, in addition to their salaries of four hundred pounds per annum, are making good use of the privilege; for the estimate of thirty-five thousand pounds to cover the cost of travel has been exceeded, and Mr. Snowden finds it necessary to introduce a supplementary estimate. The present system is one of vouchers, which are filled up by the member and are exchanged for tickets. No restriction is placed on the use of the vouchers so long as they are used only by the member, and it is suggested that in a number of cases economy will be better served if the members are provided with season tickets instead of vouchers.

Captain Campbell's Achievement.

Captain Campbell's splendid achievement in winning the world's speed "record" at 245.73 miles an hour with the Blue Bird was noted with enthusiasm in motor circles here to-day. Mr. Kaye Don remarked that it was a magnificent performance, while Sir George Beharrell, President of the Society of Motor Manufacturers and Traders, thinks that it is a wonderful triumph for British workmanship, and an outstanding trial of British sportsmanship, grit and skill. Captain Campbell has spent more money and time in search of "record"-breaking than anybody; for it was he who first tried out a sand course at Pendine, in Wales, and again found a new venue at Verneuk Pan. He has been able to beat the speed "record" more often than anybody, but it has been his fate to suffer eclipse soon after the achievement. On the present occasion he ought to be safe for some time to come.

Free State Trade.

Mr. W. Peters, the United Kingdom Trade Commissioner in Dublin, recently gave a number of private interviews at the offices of the London Chamber of Commerce to members interested in trade in the Irish Free State. It is reported that the representatives of the firms received by Mr. Peters have expressed their appreciation of a welcomed opportunity for discussing points in connection with their respective businesses. Trade circles hope that the precedent now established may be followed by further meetings when necessary.

Scandinavian Currency.

Discussions have been proceeding for some time now for a monetary union between the Scandinavian countries. According to the Frankfurter Zeitung a meeting will be held in Copenhagen this month, at which the Governments of Norway, Sweden and Denmark will be represented, as well as the central banks of those countries. The idea is not new; in fact, it has been suggested on various occasions since the War. Owing to the geographical position, a Scandinavian monetary union seems a much more feasible enterprise than the Latin monetary union which existed for many years before the War. Norway, Sweden and Denmark have had a common gold standard of coinage since 1875, the uniform unit of value being the kroner. The sterling exchange value of the kroner is 18.159 kroner to the pound. Before the War the exchanges of the three countries varied very little from one another, but since the War this uniformity of exchange has not been maintained. At the present moment Swedish currency is a little dearer than those of Norway and Denmark.

FREE STATE EXPORTS GOLD COIN.

The sum of £9,500 in gold coin of legal tender in the United Kingdom was received in London this week from the Irish Free State.

AUSTRALIA'S GRAVE POSITION.

PUBLIC AND PRIVATE FINANCIAL ADVERSITY.

DISSENSION AT MINISTERS' CONFERENCE.

PREMIER'S BAN ON EXPERTS' RECOMMENDATIONS.

AUSTRALIAN Federal and State Ministers met at Canberra yesterday to consider the serious financial position of the country.

Mr. Scullin, the Prime Minister, told the Ministers that no conference had ever been called at a time of graver economic trouble, and he proceeded to state the position and to suggest remedies, as follow:—

THE POSITION.	THE REMEDIES.
Experts estimated the total fall in national income at over £100,000,000. The nation's credit is at a low ebb. Overseas borrowing is impossible. Unemployment is increasing.	A reduction in interest rate on future loans. National spending power must be increased. Farmers must be urgently helped. Lack of confidence of investors in Government Stocks must be removed.

Mr. Scullin refused to allow a report by an Experts' Committee to be submitted to the conference. In consequence, it is stated, the conference is doomed to failure.

The experts' report warned the various Governments that the position is increasingly serious, and declared that the reality of public and private adversity must be faced.

EXPERTS WARN GOVERNMENTS.

FROM REUTER'S CORRESPONDENT.

CANBERRA, Friday.

At the opening to-day of the Conference of Federal and State Ministers to consider a three-year plan to rehabilitate Australian finances, Mr. Scullin, the Prime Minister, declared that no conference had ever been called at a time of graver economic trouble.

In a detailed review of the country's troubles, he said that some experts estimated the total fall in national income at over £100,000,000. The nation's credit was at low ebb overseas; borrowing was impossible, and unemployment was increasing. A Commonwealth deficit estimated in millions, and States' deficits at £5,000,000 were forecast, and next year there would be larger deficits unless conditions changed.

OVERSEAS DEBT.

Mr. Scullin defended the Government against the charge that it failed to honour the Melbourne agreement.

"The task to set ourselves," he said, "was too large for accomplishment by a year's economies." It was utterly unjust to say that the bulk of Commonwealth expenditure was due to departmental extravagance. A plan to deal with the short-term overseas debt was essential. At the end of February it would total £55,000,000, of which £38,000,000 was owed to London. This was additional to an annual liability overseas of £34,000,000 for interest, to which the unfavourable exchange now added £10,000,000.

The Conference must seek a reduction in interest rate on future loans; national spending power must be increased; farmers must be urgently helped; and, above all, the utterly unwarranted lack of confidence of investors in Government stocks must be removed.

CONFERENCE DOOMED.

After Mr. Scullin's address the Ministers got down to business, but trouble soon developed when the Prime Minister refused to allow an Experts' Committee to submit recommendations, and the Conference practically broke down before lunch.

Mr. Scullin stated that the experts must confine their report to statistical data.

"Officials," he said, "cannot dictate Government policy."

He gave the Conference plainly to understand that the plan under consideration must not include wage-cuts.

Mr. Lang, Premier of New South Wales, declared that not only would he not support wage-cuts, but also he intended to raise wages.

The net result now is that the Conference is left without a plan and without a chance of agreeing upon one.

Except for those of New South Wales, the States' representatives express disgust at the proceedings, and admit that the Conference is now doomed to failure.

Sir Robert Gibson, Chairman of the Commonwealth Bank, has already left for Sydney.

MR. SCULLIN.

"POSITION INCREASINGLY SERIOUS."

FROM REUTER'S CORRESPONDENT.

CANBERRA, Friday.

The report of the Experts' Committee, whose recommendations Mr. Scullin refused to allow to be submitted to the Conference of Federal and State Ministers to-day, warns the various Governments that the position is increasingly serious, and declares that the reality of public and private adversity must be faced.

It further estimates the deficits of all the Australian Governments next year, unless remedial action is taken at £25,000,000.

The report points out that Australian stocks are now lower in price in London than the stocks of South American Republics.

THE HOSPITALS "SWEEP."

SUBSCRIPTIONS BETTER THAN IN FIRST DRAW.

Despite many difficulties the sweepstake on the Grand National is making excellent progress, and gives every indication that it will greatly exceed the Manchester November Handicap sweepstake in the amount of money for distribution.

Up to the present approximately £180,000 is available for distribution as prize-money. This sum is more than three times in excess of the amount available at the same time prior to the drawing for the Manchester November Handicap. In addition, the number of books of tickets that have been issued to all parts of the world, and that have not yet come in, exceed the numbers which were out at the same time in the last sweepstake by at least five times.

Some of the prize-winners in the sweepstake on the Manchester November Handicap have sent donations to the Saint Joseph's School for the Blind, Drumcondra, through General O'Duffy. It will be remembered that the Institution for the Blind provided four boys for the purpose of drawing the counterfoils and horses' names.

Enquiries at the Free State Revenue Department have elicited the information that there is no intention to make any deduction from prizes won by subscribers to the sweepstake.

LONDON CASES ADJOURNED.

The hearing was to have been resumed at Bow Street Police Court, London, yesterday, of the summonses taken out in London against John More and Harold Crossley in connection with the Irish Free State Hospital Sweepstake on the Grand National. Summonses taken out against other persons were last week adjourned sine die.

When the case was mentioned by Mr. Fry, the magistrate, a police sergeant stated that by consent the summonses had been adjourned until February 20.

IMPERIAL TOBACCO.

OVER TEN MILLIONS PROFIT.

The report for the year of the Imperial Tobacco Co. (of Great Britain and Ireland), Ltd., to October 31st, 1930, shows a net trading profit of £10,182,976, against £9,970,581 in the previous period. As already known, the year's dividend on the Ordinary is raised ½ per cent. to 9 per cent., and the bonus is repeated at 7½ per cent.

The balance sheet shows stock, etc., at £28,945,520, or nearly £1,000,000 below the figure previously given, and debtors at £6,602,224 are also lower; on the other hand, creditors are higher at £14,075,271. Land, buildings, etc., are over £100,000 up at £5,120,021.

GLOOMY OUTLOOK.

NO IMPROVEMENT LIKELY IN SHIPBUILDING.

Sir James Lithgow, Chairman of the National Shipbuilders' Securities Co., Ltd., speaking at the annual dinner of the Glasgow Ship Owners' and Ship Brokers' Benevolent Association in Glasgow last night, declared that there was not the ghost of a possibility of a greater volume of shipyard work being available in the near future.

The last period of world trade activity, he said, had passed over British trade in general, and shipping interests in particular, without their reaping an adequate reward, and unless they utilised the immediate future to put their house in order, the next trade revival would pass them by in the same way. Whilst it might be quite a good business for a shipowner to refrain from ordering tonnage for a period of ten years, it was quite impossible to conduct a shipyard in that intermittent manner. Steady and full capacity employment was of the essence both of economy and of efficiency.

THE WORLD'S WHEAT MARKET.

RUSSIA'S "DOMINATING" POSITION.

FROM REUTER'S CORRESPONDENT.

WASHINGTON, Friday.

That the Soviets are advancing towards a dominating position in the world wheat market, is the opinion of Mr. Legge, Chairman of the Federal Farm Board.

"The American farmer cannot compete with Russian wheat in the world market. If he attempts to do so he will have to give up riding in automobiles," he said.

Mr. Legge also added that the Americans were unable to compete with Argentine and Australian wheat, each of which had the advantage of low transportation costs.

Mr. McKelvie, a member of the Farm Board, said that there was no question but that Russia, with her unlimited virgin land, would be able to produce great quantities of wheat cheaply for many years, with no land labour costs.

Both Mr. Legge and Mr. McKelvie consider that the latest reports from Moscow show that the Russian agricultural programme is progressing better than the five-year industrial plan.

PEER'S CLAIM TO £60,000 ESTATE.

WILL MADE ABOUT 45 YEARS AGO.

SON DISINHERITED SEVERAL TIMES.

IN the London Gazette last night notice was given by Gervase Disney Alexander, Baron Cobham, of 29 Hanover Court, Hanover street, London, that he claims to be the issue male of the heir male of the body of Sir Thomas Brooke, who died in or about the year 1418, at the date of the death of Francis Capper Brooke, on January 13, 1886, "and that, therefore, I am entitled to the property disposed of by the will of the said Francis Capper Brooke, which will bears date the 28th October, 1885."

It will be recalled that in a notice published in the London Gazette last month the heir male of Sir Thomas Brooke, formerly of Holditch Court, was invited to claim an estate left by Mr. F. C. Brooke, of Ufford, Suffolk, an estate valued at £60,000.

Mr. Brooke disinherited his eldest son Colonel Reginald Brooke, now aged 76, who, in a published interview, stated that his father disinherited him several times—once because of a speech which Colonel Brooke made at a dinner. He was the only person in direct male descent from Sir Thomas Brooke. The will was contested in 1923. He (Colonel Brooke) won in Chancery, but lost on an appeal. His father's will did not say in so many words that he was never to inherit.

COMMANDER KENWORTHY.

Subsequently it was revealed that Lieutenant-Commander Kenworthy, M.P., is a descendant on the female side of Sir Thomas Brooke. Commander Kenworthy then stated that when the three baronies of Cobham, Strabolgi and Burgh were revived, that of Cobham went to Dr Alexander, of Halifax; that of Burgh to Alexander Henry Leith, and that of Strabolgi to Cuthbert Matthias Kenworthy, his father.

Commander Kenworthy added:—"Their sons and I are all descendants of that Sir Thomas Brooke." His solicitors were moving in the matter.

It has since been announced that Lord Burgh and Lord Strabolgi have come forward as claimants, and that there is a further possible claimant—a Mr. Byde.

BUTTER PRICES ADVANCING.

EFFECT OF THE TARIFF.

FROM OUR AGRICULTURAL CORRESPONDENT.

Since the tariff of fourpence per lb. on imported butter was imposed by the Irish Free State Government, sixteen days ago, the price of Irish creamery butter has advanced by 20s. per cwt. The tariff was imposed on the 22nd January last, when the price in Dublin was 145s. per cwt. Next day the wholesale price was 153s.; on the 27th January it was 158s., and on the 30th ult. 163s. per cwt., while to-day's price is 170s., and supplies are exceedingly scarce. There is, in fact, scarcely any Irish creamery butter, either fresh or cold stored, on the market, and excepting those who hold over supplies sufficiently long, the Revenue Commissioners are the only people who have derived any material benefit from the tariff.

It must, of necessity, take another season before the results of the tariff in regard to the Free State butter industry become apparent, and with the expectation that the proposed new marketing scheme will be adopted with slight modification, the prospects of a more extended buttermaking season are encouraging.

In view of the advance to 170s. and 172s. reported to-day, it is probable that retail prices will be increased by another penny per lb. next week. This week's retail price was 1s. 7d. per lb.

FOREIGN BUTTERS.

Danish during the present week has been selling at 1s. 8d. per lb. retail, and supplies on the water have advanced by a further 6s. per cwt. wholesale. When this butter arrives in Dublin next Wednesday it will probably become necessary to advance the retail price to 1s. 9d. per lb. Meanwhile Danish is in plentiful supply. It was quoted on Dublin wholesale market yesterday at 1s. 7½d. per lb. The price of Irish creamery was 1s. 6½d., while Swedish was sold at 1s. 6½d. per lb.

There are ample supplies of butter from Australia and New Zealand, and these were in demand at 1s. 5½d. per lb. wholesale.

Last year Irish and Danish butter was sold at 1s. 9d. per lb. in January, and in February at 1s. 8d. per lb.

UNEMPLOYED IN THE UNITED STATES.

SEVEN MILLION ESTIMATE.

FROM REUTER'S CORRESPONDENT.

NEW YORK, Friday.

What she describes as a "conservative estimate" of 7,000,000 totally unemployed in the United States was made yesterday by Miss Frances Perkins, New York State Industrial Commissioner. She bases her figures on statistics furnished to the Government by the Metropolitan Life Assurance Company, from which the Hoover Employment Committee deduced that there were only four to five million workless.

Miss Perkins declared that she was unable to understand the modest figures of the Government estimate, and said that most observers accused the Government of "soft pedalling" the situation ever since the beginning of the crisis.

PRINCESS BEATRICE.

SLOW. BUT DEFINITE PROGRESS.

The following bulletin concerning the condition of Princess Beatrice was issued last night from Kensington Palace:—

"Her Royal Highness continues to make slow but definite progress. Since any rapid change is not now to be expected, the daily bulletin will be discontinued.—C. Gordon Moore, Thomas Horder."

SIR ANDREW BALFOUR'S DEATH.

It became known yesterday that the death of Sir Andrew Balfour, the well-known authority on tropical medicine and hygiene, and Director of the London School of Hygiene and Tropical Medicine, whose funeral took place at Edinburgh on Thursday, was the subject of an inquest on Monday.

Sir Andrew was undergoing treatment for a nervous breakdown at the Cassel Hospital, Penshurst, Kent, and was found dead in the grounds on Saturday with a cord around his neck.

The inquest on Monday was conducted by Mr. A. H. Neve, the Tonbridge Coroner.

OBITUARY.

COLONEL CHARLES MACNAGHTEN.

The death was announced in Montreal yesterday, at the age of 51, of Colonel Charles Melville Macnaghten, C.M.G., son of the late Sir Melville Macnaghten, former Assistant Commissioner of the London Metropolitan Police. During the war Colonel Macnaghten commanded the Fourth Battalion of the Australian Imperial Force, and was severely wounded at Gallipoli.

Mrs. Sarah Annie Hearn (44) made her fourth appearance before the magistrate at Launceston yesterday on a charge of murdering Mrs. Alice Maud Thomas, her former friend and neighbour, and wife of a Lewannick farmer, whose death, according to the inquest jury, was due to poisoning by arsenic "homicidally administered." The proceedings lasted less than a minute, and Mrs. Hearn was again remanded.

BLUE BIRD.

FAMOUS CAR FOR DUBLIN.

CAPT. CAMPBELL'S NEW FEAT.

94 MILES AN HOUR IN SMALL CAR.

CAPTAIN MALCOLM CAMPBELL set up a new "record" at Daytona Beach yesterday, when he drove a "Baby" Austin car at a speed of 94.061 miles an hour.

He has promised to bring his famous racing car, Blue Bird, which he piloted at a speed of more than 245 miles an hour on Thursday, to Dublin next June, when the Irish International Grand Prix Motor Races will be held in the Phœnix Park.

THE BLUE BIRD.

OWNER'S PROMISE.

Shortly before he left for the United States to make his attempt on the world's highest recorded land speed Captain Malcolm Campbell wrote to Mr. Walter Sexton, the Secretary of the Royal Irish Automobile Club, stating that, all being well, he would bring the Blue Bird over to Dublin with him during the Irish International Grand Prix Motor Races in the Phœnix Park, Dublin, next June.

There is now every probability that this famous car will be seen in Dublin, and, what is more important still, that it will be seen in action in an exhibition run over the two-mile straight. It is not thought that it would be possible for the car to give that exhibition run around the course itself; for it would have difficulty in taking the corners.

PHŒNIX PARK COURSE.

Captain Malcolm Campbell has always been one of the greatest supporters of the Phœnix Park course and the Irish Grand Prix Races, holding that both the course and the races were unequalled in any part of the world. In 1929, and again last year, he competed in the races. Last year the team of Mercedes-Benz cars entered by him won the team prize, Herr Caracciola, the German driver, in one of these cars winning the Grand Prix.

He has already announced his intention of entering a team of three British cars for this year's races, and that he will compete himself as the driver of one of these cars.

A PROBABILITY.

He has not yet divulged the make of car that he is entering, but it would, indeed, be rather amusing if he should elect to drive a "Baby" car. The fact that he took one of them over with him to the United States in order to attempt to put up the world's "record" speed for "Baby" cars is rather significant.

At any rate, Captain Campbell's visit to Ireland after putting up the remarkable speed of over 245 miles an hour should be a memorable one.

ENTRIES FOR THE RACES.

The preparations for the races are now well in hand and the first entry has been received. It is a Mercedes Benz car by Earl Howe. It will be remembered that Earl Howe drove a Mercedes car as a member of Captain Campbell's team in last year's race.

EARL HOWE.

The second entry has been sent in by Messrs. Lincoln and Nolan, the well known motor agents, of Lower Baggot street, Dublin. It is a "Baby" Austin, supercharged, and will, in all probability, be driven by Mr. G. V. B. Cooke, who drove a similar car last year, winning the cup for the best performance by an Irish driver. Many applications for particulars have been received, and it is probable that Major Gardner will enter a team of M.G. Midgets in opposition to the Baby Austins.

ITALIAN CARS.

A team of four Mazarati cars, the latest Italian-sports car, which is said to be subsidised by the Italian Government, is a certain entry. Mr. G. E. T. Eyston and Signor Ramponi are two of the selected drivers.

Some further additions to the Guarantee Fund have been received, but the Race Committee wish it to be known that they are not accepting guarantees of less than £5. The fund will continue to remain open, and further guarantees will be gladly received.

GREAT ACHIEVEMENT.

94 MILES AN HOUR IN "BABY" CAR.

FROM REUTER'S CORRESPONDENT.

DAYTONA BEACH, Friday.

Captain Malcolm Campbell made a new record here to-day in a "Baby" Austin, with a speed of 94.061 miles an hour.

Captain Campbell's first run was clocked at 94.069 miles per hour. His second run was at 93.994 miles per hour The average speed for a kilometre, which was laid out within the measured mile, was 93.926 miles per hour.

Having thus crowned his visit to the new world with two records, Captain Campbell proposes to rest here for about a week, and then to return to England where he expects to resume racing on British speedways.

The old record for cars under 800 c.c. capacity was 89 miles per hour.

Captain Campbell has thus achieved his ambition of showing the world that British cars—giants or midgets—are the world's best.

CONGRATULATIONS FROM BELFAST.

The Lord Mayor of Belfast (Sir Crawford M'Cullagh) sent yesterday the following message to Captain Campbell:—

"Heartiest congratulations from citizens of Belfast on brilliant achievement.—McCULLAGH, Lord Mayor."

DUBLIN STREET ACCIDENTS.

WOMAN BADLY INJURED.

Mrs. Orr, of 25 Merville road, Rathgar, was early this morning removed to the Meath Hospital, suffering from head injuries received in a 'bus accident at Leicester road, Rathmines. Her husband was also treated, but his injuries were slight.

It was learned that the condition of Mrs. Orr is regarded as critical. It appears that the accident was due to the failure of the steering gear of the 'bus.

At about 1.15 this morning a saloon car, which was travelling at a moderate speed, crashed into a tramway standard at the junction of Fleet street and D'Olier street. It was proceeding towards the city from Pearse street. Several of the occupants suffered shock. The car, which was not badly damaged, was removed under its own power.

This is the second similar accident at the same spot within a few weeks.

IRISH BACON INDUSTRY.

THE SUGGESTED TARIFF.

NEXT MONDAY'S MEETING IN DUBLIN.

FROM OUR POLITICAL CORRESPONDENT.

AS already announced in the Irish Times a conference of persons interested in the bacon industry will be held in Dublin on Monday next "to discuss the manner in which the case for a tariff on imported bacon should be presented." The meeting will be held at 3 o'clock at the office of Mr. Arthur Cox, solicitor, St. Stephen's Green. I understand that the idea was initiated by the Waterford Meat Company, a co-operative society.

In this connection it is important to note that for the eleven months to November, 1930—the latest figures available—the Free State export trade in bacon and hams was valued at £1,712,347, a very substantial reduction as compared with the corresponding period in 1929, when it was £2,570,170. For the same period the export of fresh pork was valued at £1,036,485, which was also down as compared with the corresponding period in 1929, when the figure was £1,043,703. In the same period the imports of bacon and hams increased from £1,490,409 to £1,528,404.

AMERICAN BACON.

No doubt, the promoters of a tariff hope to rectify these figures, and prevent the importation of bacon and hams by the imposition of an import tax; in other words, to compel consumers in the Irish Free State to purchase bacon produced in the Free State. In this it is clear that they will have to reckon with a large section of the population, who have a distinct preference for the American product. A tariff might also, it is assumed, raise the price of the home product.

On this subject I understand that Mr. Hogan, the Minister for Agriculture, has very definite views. In fact, he has stated that, in his belief, no tariff on American bacon would result in an increase of either the price of Irish bacon or the price of Irish pigs. If this turns out to be true, the question would arise whether there would be any material increase in the production of pigs, since at the prices at present prevailing farmers are not at all enthusiastic about the pig industry.

THE COST OF LIVING.

Moreover, if the price of the home produce did increase, the cost of living in the Free State would be increased in a corresponding degree. It will thus be seen that, while the bacon curer, the exporter and the producer are all interested, the consumer has also grave reason to be concerned.

No doubt, the Tariff Commission, to which the application will be referred, will obtain all the facts and figures, and its report will be looked for with interest.

LATE NEWS.

BY SPECIAL ARRANGEMENT WITH "THE TIMES."

THE NEW ZEALAND CATASTROPHE.

REPAIRING THE DAMAGE.

The Times to-day, in a leading article, says:—The deep sympathy aroused in this country by the terrible catastrophe that has befallen our kinsmen in New Zealand is taking practical form. The dead cannot be called back to life, and the bereaved cannot be comforted with material aid, but something can be done to assist in repairing the enormous damage the Dominion has suffered by the earthquake, and already many have offered gifts for this purpose.

The High Commissioner for New Zealand has made no appeal for aid; the gifts he has received have come quite spontaneously from donors, who have had no prompting but from their own sympathy. In the letter which we publish this morning, he asks that we should acknowledge in our columns the subscriptions—which should, of course, be sent direct to him and not to The Times—of those who are anxious to give aid to the afflicted. This we gladly undertake to do.

FACING THE TEST.

The people of the devastated area have met the disaster with characteristic heroism, and they will set about the business of repairing the ravages of the earthquake with equal courage. The economic depression that has affected New Zealand, as it has affected most countries, will make the work of reconstruction all the more a burden, and the sturdy self-reliance upon which the people of the Dominion rightly pride themselves will be put to a severe test. The New Zealanders may be counted upon to face the test manfully.

Admiration for the fine spirit they are showing, as well as sympathy for them in their misfortune, will encourage many more in this country to follow the example of those who have already done what they can to help.

GREAT SOUTHERN DIVIDEND.

ONE PER CENT. ON ORDINARY SHARES.

The Great Southern Railway directors yesterday announced the payment of a dividend of 1 p.c. on the Ordinary Stock, with a carry forward of £43,000.

For 1929 the dividend was the same and the carry forward was £95,000.

In view of the fact that the traffic decrease for 1930 was £176,595, repetition of the dividend of one per cent. must be regarded as a remarkable achievement. Apparently there has been a saving in working expenses of something like £124,600. That figure is a fine tribute to good management.

LONG FLIGHT BEGUN.

FLYING BOATS START FOR BASRA.

The squadron of three Rangoon flying boats which yesterday left Felixstowe on a formation flight to Basra, Mesopotamia, spent the night at Calshot, Southampton Water, and to-day will go on to Mount Batten, Plymouth.

The squadron reached Calshot at 12.55 p.m.

When the boats left Felixstowe the leader was piloted by Group Captain Welsh, and Flight-Lieutenant H. A. Hammersley and Flight-Lieutenant R. L. Ragg were the other pilots. The navigator was Squadron-Leader P. H. Mackworth, who will return with the Southampton flying boats which the Rangoons will replace at Basra.

Travelling on one pair of giant skis, three youths have arrived at Toronto from Cobalt, Northern Ontario, having covered the distance of 350 miles in 11 days. The boys described their journey as a "sporting venture," but they all agreed that they would not tackle it again. Their average speed was four miles an hour.

THE BOXER INDEMNITY AGREEMENT.

MONEY FOR CHINESE RAILWAYS AND EDUCATION.

£3,000,000 ORDERS FOR BRITISH MANUFACTURERS.

REUTER'S Agency understands that a representative of the Chinese railways is due to arrive in Great Britain as one of the members of the London Purchasing Commission to be set up in connection with the placing of orders for British railway material arising out of the Anglo-Chinese agreement on the Boxer Indemnity.

It was in 1922 that the British Government informed China that it would remit all future Boxer Indemnity payments, amounting to about eleven million sterling, including interest, this sum to be expended for educational purposes. Up to the present money from this source has accumulated to the total of about three and a half million sterling, and is on deposit at the Hongkong and Shanghai Bank at Shanghai.

THE SCHEME.

HOW THE MONEY WILL BE SPENT.

While the first portion of the Boxer money is to be set aside for the equipment of Chinese railways, it will, it is expected, be used eventually for the promotion of education in China, and the furtherance of Anglo-Chinese cultural development, including possibly an interchange of professors, and the institution of Chairs of Chinese in British Universities.

For the moment the scheme is that the money now on deposit at Shanghai (over three million sterling) shall be employed in the purchase of railway material manufactured in Great Britain, including Northern Ireland. It was provided for by an Anglo-Chinese agreement signed in Nanking last October that the first amount available should be earmarked for the purpose indicated, plus half of all future remissions of the Boxer Indemnity, which will amount to another four million pounds sterling.

This plan will prove a great help to China, whose rolling stock needs renewal, and should materially benefit steel and railway interests in Great Britain, and have an effect on unemployment.

Next developments are dependent on the third reading of the China Indemnity Application Bill, which has already gone through Committee in the House of Commons without amendment, and is expected to have its third reading and to be formally adopted by Parliament within the next fortnight.

PURCHASING COMMISSION.

The Purchasing Commission will be set up as soon as the bill has passed Parliament, and the amount of material to be ordered immediately will depend upon the Commission, which is to consist of British business men of high standing, some of whom have been approached informally. The names of those proposed by the British Government will be telegraphed to China for selection by the Chinese Government.

The London Purchasing Committee will be under the chairmanship of the Chinese Minister in London. It will number two Chinamen and four British.

MR. AMERY AND THE GANGSTERS.

"SCAR-FACE MAC" & "SLIPPERY DAVE."

"HONEST STAN" TAKEN FOR A RIDE.

Mr. Amery, speaking at Morecambe last night, said that, if the Government still remained in office, it was due to a compact undisclosed which Mr. Lloyd George had made with them. Just as much, and no more, political principle was involved in that pact as there was in any of the compacts which were made from time to time between rival gangs of Chicago racketeers to keep others from their pitch and share the loot. "Scar-Face Mac" and "Slippery Dave" had fixed up a deal in order to take "Honest Stan" for a ride. Mr. Lloyd George had no authority for these proceedings from the Liberal Party in the country, which had voted for his candidates on his definite assurance, given on the eve of the election, that he would never put a Socialist Government into office or maintain it there.

MR. AMERY.

Mr. Amery said that he believed the proceedings were directly contrary to the convictions of the great majority of those who still called themselves Liberals.

They were involved by their leader's action in complicity with the Government's policy towards Russia. Hundreds of thousands of men and tens of thousands of women and children were being deliberately done to death as slaves in timber camps, working thirteen or fourteen hours daily, felling and hauling logs. These unhappy wretches perished like flies, whilst those who showed the slightest resentment or attempted to escape were shot down like vermin.

The Government refused to look into these facts, make protests or take measures to stop the importation of goods produced under such atrocious conditions. Lord Ponsonby had frankly declared that the Government had no intention of doing anything in the matter. There was a time when Liberalism stood for hatred of the Prussian and cruelty. Mr. Lloyd George was old enough to have caught echoes of Gladstone's indignation over atrocities no more brutal and less cold-blooded in Bulgaria or Armenia.

ANGLO - FRENCH TARIFFS.

ADVERSE INFLUENCE ON TRADE.

FROM REUTER'S CORRESPONDENT.

PARIS, Friday.

The British Chamber of Commerce in Paris held its annual general meeting this afternoon.

The president, Mr. Henderson, in his address, said: "The constant obstacle of import duties continues to affect to a very adverse degree the opportunities of British manufacturers trying to do business in France, and for many years past our Chamber has not let an occasion slip of calling attention to this fact.

"Our efforts have not been solely confined to this. We have also continued to urge the revision of the Treaty of 1882, so that nationals of either country may receive privileges accorded to the subjects of the country in which they are residents.

"The question of high tariff barriers and the revision of the 1882 Treaty seem to be linked together, and the French Government is apparently ready to negotiate a fresh commercial treaty with the British Government."

MISSING BRITISH FLYERS.

FROM REUTER'S CORRESPONDENT.

TUNIS, Friday.

An Englishman and his wife, whose names are given as Mr. and Mrs. Hatchett, left here yesterday by air for Tripoli on their way to Egypt and Beyond.

It was learned this morning that they had not reached their destination, nor have they been reported from any place en route. As a violent gale was blowing yesterday, some anxiety is felt regarding their fate.

Lord Tyrrell, the British Ambassador in Paris, had an interview with M. Briand yesterday afternoon.—(Reuter.)

GLASS BOTTOMED YACHT.

PANIC CAUSED BY EXPLOSION.

PASSENGERS LEAP INTO THE SEA.

FROM REUTER'S CORRESPONDENT.

OCALA, FLORIDA, Friday.

One man is known to have been drowned and several other people are injured as a result of another accident to a glass-bottomed pleasure yacht cruising in the tropic seas off Florida.

While all the passengers were intent on peering through a glass panel to view the colourful undersea life, a petrol explosion occurred, and the vessel caught fire.

PASSENGERS TERRIFIED.

Passengers leaped into the water in a panic, but it is believed that the majority will be saved, as rescuers are hastening to the spot.

Less than two months ago a number of tourists, in a glass-bottomed ship, lost their lives as a result of a fire followed by two explosions, which threw them headlong into the shark-infested sea.

PLOT TO KILL MUSSOLINI.

ANARCHIST'S CONFESSION IN ROME.

FROM REUTER'S CORRESPONDENT.

ROME, Friday.

A plot to assassinate Signor Mussolini is stated by the police to form part of a confession made by the Anarchist, Schirru, who, after being arrested here, shot three police officials in the police station, and then turned the revolver upon himself.

According to the statement of the police, Schirru, while staying in Paris last summer, conceived a plan to assassinate the Duce. He went to Charleroi, in Belgium, where he constructed two bombs, filled with very powerful explosives. He came to Rome with the intention of carrying out the attempt, and, in his confession to the police, said that everything had been specially prepared for the taking of a room in one of the most exclusive and expensive hotels in Rome, situate in the road along which the Premier passes daily.

A SECOND ARREST.

Two bombs, apparently those referred to in the confession, were found yesterday by the police in a hotel room rented by Schirru.

When Schirru was requested by the police to accompany them to the police station he feigned surprise and spoke in a mixture of English and Spanish. As the party passed the Trevi fountain Schirru stopped and admired it like an enthusiastic tourist. Then he suddenly adopted a violent and menacing attitude.

The police have also arrested a man believed to have been in league with Schirru, on his arrival from Milan. He had with him a number of subversive pamphlets, which he is said to have brought with him from France. He is a native of Lombardy, and for some time has been resident in France.

As a protest against one weaver running six looms, the weavers employed by Joseph Clegg, Ltd., at High Crompton Mills, near Oldham, decided last night to come out on strike to-day unless the experiment was abandoned. About eighty weavers are involved.

THE TAKING OF THE BRITISH CENSUS.

EVERYONE TO BE CLASSIFIED AND CARD-INDEXED.

40,000 ENUMERATORS TO BE EMPLOYED.

MR. S. P. VIVIAN, the Registrar-General, revealed yesterday some of the secrets of the coming census, and told how everyone in the country will be card-indexed and classified. Here are some of his main points in connection with the census:—

Forty thousand enumerators will be recruited, involving about four days' work, and they will be paid between £2 and £4.

One new question will be asked this year as to a person's "usual residence."

A new sorter-counter-printer machine will be used for facilitating the work and minimising the risk of error. The cost of the last census was about £420,000.

STATEMENT OF AGE.

A COMMON MISTAKE.

Mr. Vivian said that mechanical devices were now indispensable in the work, and the greater intelligence of the public had contributed to greater accuracy in the returns.

"One common mistake among some people when stating their ages is to give the age approximately in a round figure," said Mr. Vivian. "They are inclined to say '25' when it might be 24 plus or 26 minus. That brings about a distortion which is very important in connection with insurance and life tables.

"Then there is a very curious error. We have been led to the conclusion that there is a deficiency of infants of the youngest age. It has been suggested that when a householder has an infant without a name—one that has not yet been christened—he leaves that infant out of his returns. So we have said that, if a child has been born but not named, it should be included as 'baby.'

"Locomotion is a good deal easier, habits have altered, and it is becoming increasingly difficult to give any date in the year on which some area of the population is not moving. Hence the new question about a person's usual residence.

"For dealing with the census we have a nucleus staff of the necessary specialists at headquarters, and this is expanded until it reaches a peak of between four and five hundred.

"As regards the local staff we have a skeleton machinery of Registrars of Births and Deaths, numbering between seventeen and eighteen hundrd for England and Wales. Naturally we should like the appointment of the forty thousand enumerators in different districts to benefit the unemployed, and we have given them instructions for that to be done as far as possible.

"If each enumerator were to miss only three families, with an average of ten persons in all, the population would be under-stated by about 500,000. If an enumerator cannot find people at home one day, he must go on subsequent days.

FINDING THE SAILOR.

"Ships moored at anchor in a British port at midnight on census night, or ships fishing or on a coastwise voyage, are included. The Customs officers go round the ports and hand out the schedules. Ships that sail in the night would be asked to post their schedules from the next port.

"People travelling by night trains ought to be entered in the schedule of the household into which they went the first thing in the morning."

The census will be taken on Sunday, April 26th.

SIR JOHN SCOTT DEAD.

WAS A LORD MAYOR OF CORK.

The death of Sir John Harley Scott, which took place yesterday in Cork, has removed one of the most prominent commercial and public men in the South of Ireland. Sir John Scott was the eldest son of the late Mr. Edward Scott, architect, of Cork, and married, in 1899, Maria, daughter of the late Henry Lindsay Young, landowner, of Leemount, Carrigrohane, County Cork. He was a Justice of the Peace for the City and County of Cork, and for the greater part of half a century was closely identified with the public life of the city. He was at one time or another a member of almost all the public boards and charitable institutions. He was formerly Chairman of the Cork Unionists' Association. His connection with the Corporation extended over a very lengthy period, and as far back as 1892, in which year he was knighted, he was selected as High Sheriff of the city. Four years later he was elected Mayor by what was then a Nationalist Corporation. From 1920 to 1924 he was High Sheriff. Sir John was a fearless advocate of the principles he held. He was a convincing and finished speaker, and the attitude which he adopted on the public boards might be fairly described as critical, but helpful. His remarkable grasp of corporate procedure made him a very valuable member of the Corporation elected under the new régime.

SIR J. H. SCOTT.

Amongst the many positions which Sir John occupied were a Trustee of the Cork Savings Bank, a member of the Cork Harbour Commissioners, a Trustee of the Royal Cork Sailors' Home, a member of the General Synod of the Church of Ireland, a past President of the Cork Incorporated Chamber of Commerce and Shipping. For almost fifty years he was a trustee and hon. secretary of the Cork Fever Hospital, an institution in which he took the keenest interest up to his death.

VISCOUNT WILLINGDON.

CREATED AN EARL.

The King has approved that an Earldom of the United Kingdom be conferred upon the Viscount Willingdon, G.C.S.I., G.C.M.G., G.C.I.E., G.B.E., retiring Governor-General of the Dominion of Canada, and Viceroy and Governor-General Designate of India.

ADD Viscount Willingdon on Leader Page

Lord Willingdon's appointment as Viceroy and Governor-General of India was announced on December 20th, and was received with approbation both in Great Britain and in India. He is sixty-four, and has had much administrative experience as Governor of Bombay, 1913 to 1919, of Madras, 1919 to 1924, and as Governor-General of Canada from 1926.

As Mr. Freeman-Thomas, he was captain of the Eton and Cambridge cricket elevens. He married in 1892 the daughter of the first Earl Brassey, and was A.D.C. to his father-in-law when the latter was Governor of Victoria.

COACH TARIFF CLAIM.

MORE COMPLAINTS ABOUT COMMISSION.

THE WORKERS DISAPPOINTED.

THE Irish District of the National Union of Vehicle Builders, in a statement on the Tariff Commission decision on the application by coachbuilders in the Free State, expresses disappointment at the findings.

It is stated that, while the jig system was in operation in Dublin for many years, it was quite evident that the Commissioners, although supplied with a complete list, only visited two of the shops in the city. The two shops that they did visit were at the transformation stage—adapting themselves for 'bus building—and with the variety of small orders were not in a position to adopt the jig.

Referring to "capital being made in the report of cheaper labour in England," the statement draws attention to the rates paid in the Ford factory in Cork.

SKILLED MEN EMIGRATE.

The statement proceeds:—

"One would imagine that the importation of horse vehicles into An Saorstat would be, to use the old saying, like throwing apples into an orchard—this, the land that exported their horse vehicles to all parts of the world; yet we find, as Mr. O'Gorman truthfully points out, that one thousand per year is imported at the consignees' (not the retail) value, averaging £17,000. What a boon this would be to the hundreds of families engaged in this end of the industry all over the country. What might be termed a cottage industry that ought to be encouraged and fostered in order to keep those families in remunerative employment in a healthy atmosphere, rather than have them migrating to an already over-crowded market in the larger cities, with resulting unemployment, or the other alternative—emigration.

"The loss of revenue is dealt with in the report. Had they granted our demand, no amount of loss is estimated. Certainly any man or body of men with a true national outlook will agree that the greatest loss any State can sustain is the loss of its manhood. The very brawn and brain of the nation must emigrate—and highly skilled men at that—otherwise they are condemned to a life of abject poverty, they themselves suffering privations, whilst their families are denied the necessaries of life, which would enable them to be brought up an asset, not a burden, to the State."

The statement ends with the query, "Can the industry be saved?"

PUBLICITY BALL.

GAY SCENES IN THE METROPOLE.

THE seventh annual ball under the auspices of the Publicity Club of Ireland was held last night in the Metropole Ballroom, Dublin, and proved a marked success. The ballroom presented a kaleidoscopic appearance, as fancy costumes of every kind and description were to be seen, representative of all the principal industries in the city. Valuable prizes for every section were presented by many of the leading firms, and the judges had a difficult task to decide which should have their final vote.

During the evening Mr. Hamilton and Miss Walker gave a special exhibition of a new dance, called the "Ta-Lu," which is likely to win favour in the ballroom. It comprises a special seven-step. The piano accompaniment was played by Mrs. Carey, of Belfast, who also composed the music and steps of the dance.

LETTERS TO THE EDITOR.

IRISH LAND ACTS.

TO THE EDITOR OF THE IRISH TIMES.

SIR,—To-day you published an interesting article on the final stages of land legislation. Just fifty years ago—namely in 1881—the Gladstone Act was passed. Under this Act (and the amending Acts of 1887 and 1896) was regulated the procedure of the rent-fixing machine called the Sub-Commission Court. The rental in Ireland, which, in 1881, was about 8¼ millions a year, was reduced under these Acts by two millions a year. This tremendous reduction was ordered by the Sub-Commission Courts, and made the reduced rents to become what was known as the "fair rent" or "judicial rent."

In 1885 Lord Ashbourne passed the first Land Purchase Act. This was followed by various Acts (also given by your correspondent), including the great Wyndham Act, passed in 1903, and finally by the Hogan Act in 1923, and its amending Acts of 1926 and 1927. Under these three Acts, passed in the Free State, the present Government and the Land Commission are doing their level best to finish land purchase compulsorily and speedily. In truth, as they are passing an amending Act in the coming session of the Dail to hasten land purchase, it ought to be completed in four or five years hence, and that will be "a consummation devoutly to be wished."

Up to the present the British Government have advanced to the tenants of Ireland for land purchase about 120 million pounds, and they are guaranteeing to complete the present purchase in Ireland, another 30 millions; so that in a few years (five or ten) land purchase will be completed all over the country, and the tenant farmers all over Ireland will be peasant proprietors. They will then have obtained on loan about 150 million pounds, and the land purchase annuities in all Ireland will be about 3½ millions a year, showing that the original rental, as above mentioned, of 8¼ millions (which the tenants in Ireland were paying in 1881) will be thus reduced to 3½ millions. In other words, in a little over fifty years the tenants in Ireland will have obtained a reduction of five millions a year. This very substantial reduction will have been brought about by and between:—(a) The procedure of the Sub-Commission Courts, which reduced the old (prior to 1881) rents of 8¼ million pounds a year by two million pounds a year; and (b) the Land Purchase code, which is giving the tenant farmers of Ireland a further reduction of three millions a year.

Besides this, landlordism has been abolished, and the tenants are made peasant proprietors. In future, the Irish farmers will only be paying on an average about 15s. a year a statute acre (at the very utmost), payable for a finite period of 49½, 68 or 73 years, according to the Act under which the purchase was made. As a very large number (about two-thirds) of the tenant farmers in Ireland bought out their holdings over twenty years ago, they will only have about forty years more to pay annuities under the Wyndham and preceding Acts, and then their term will be completed and their farms free from any annuity whatsoever. Thus all the land all over Ireland will be free from any annuity in a little over fifty or sixty years from the present time.

Even now the tenant farmers of Ireland are, practically speaking, peasant proprietors; for they have not any landlords, and very probably more than half of them are to-day not paying much more than 10s. a statute acre per year on an average for their land.—Yours, etc.,

"R. E. MINDER."

THE FARMER'S BURDEN.

TO THE EDITOR OF THE IRISH TIMES.

SIR,—I think that all the farmers in the Irish Free State should demand from the Dail a new rating bill, to be passed this year. No industry could stand the system of rating now in force against the farming industry, and no industry is penalised to such an extent in any country in the world. As the whole community derive benefit from the roads and lunatic asylums, it is not just that the farmers should pay nearly all the cost for the upkeep of these services. The land is the farmer's raw material; he pays rates on the valuation of his land; therefore, he is heavily taxed on his raw material. No industry can stand a tax on raw material.

In the case of shops, breweries or other industries it is the valuation of the buildings, etc., that is taxed for rates, not the income that is made. In the farmer's case it is the income he makes that is taxed for rates. In the case of civil servants, barristers, solicitors, doctors and other professions it is only the office or house they occupy that is valued for rates, and not the income they make.

The farmers only demand justice; they do not want concessions. They ask all members of the community to take on their shoulders their just burden and not leave the farmer to carry the whole weight on his back. Those labourers and others who have small holdings derive part of their small income from their plots. They should pay no rates on them, and should be given the same terms that the farmers have got in purchasing their holdings.—Yours, etc.,

ELIAS B. CORBALLY.

TO THE EDITOR OF THE IRISH TIMES.

SIR,—May I be permitted to correct one or two slight discrepancies in your otherwise admirable leading article on the subject of "Egypt and the Wafd," which appeared in your issue of the 29th January? You state that "from 1928 to last October it (i.e., Egypt) endured the indignity of a suspended Constitution, and one might think that it would be eager to accept the new system and to make the best of it." Actually, elections which were held in December, 1929, resulted in a Parliament which functioned, with an overwhelming Wafdist majority, until a few weeks before Nahas Pasha resigned in June, 1930. In other words, during this period the Constitution was not suspended.

The point at issue regarding the new Constitution, which has been drawn up by the present Prime Minister, Sidky Pasha, is an interesting one. When the original Constitution of 1923 was formulated a large and representative committee sat for many months, and the resulting Constitution met with the approval, not only of all political parties, but of the King and of the chiefs of the religious groups. There would seem, therefore, to be some justification for the dissatisfaction of the Liberal Constitutionalists and the Wafd Party when they are told that they can have no hand in discussing the terms of the new Constitution, and that they must not only accept it as it stands, but endure it without any hope of revision for a period of ten years.

The boycotting of elections, although, perhaps, not a practical step in Western politics, is almost the only weapon which is left to the dissenting political parties, in view of the fact that the existing régime is carrying on a ruthless suppression of newspapers and a severe limitation of free speech, particularly in the shape of banned political meetings.—Yours, etc.,

THE WALLACE STATUE.

TO THE EDITOR OF THE IRISH TIMES.

SIR,—I have seen Mr. Frank Westley's letter in your paper. These are the facts about the statue of Wallace which was to be erected here. The movement was inaugurated by me in 1912. The subscriptions received—and these after some years of heart-breaking work—were sufficient only to pay the sculptor's modest fee. The cost of casting the statue has yet to be found, and the cost of transferring it to this city and its erection here in a proper manner. Mr. Westley is correct in saying that the site originally granted by the Corporation for the erection of the statue was used by them for a Shannon Scheme pole. No attempt has been made by the Town Council to provide a new and suitable site.

In order to complete the project a sum in excess of the whole amount subscribed so far would be necessary, and all efforts made here during the past eighteen years to find this sum have been unavailing. All genuine lovers of music should be eager to see that Wallace is duly honoured in the city of his birth; and, now that you have dealt with the subject afresh, perhaps many will wake up to the necessity of doing something to complete the project.—Yours, etc.,

WORKERS AND WAGES.

TO THE EDITOR OF THE IRISH TIMES.

SIR,—I agree with your correspondent when he suggests that demand might be increased and unemployment reduced by firms concentrating on advertising and on all other legitimate ways and means of extending their business. Our present Government has not been slow to recognise this—witness its efforts to advertise our exports and to standardise their quality. Mr. Shanahan wants to know if I regard the present time as propitious for reducing wages. I do not make bold to answer this question offhand, but I suggest that in view of recent index figures, which show a very marked fall in the cost of living, wages might in some instances be reduced with advantage. Thus the cost of production would be lowered without any appreciable hardship to the worker.

The statement made by Mr. J. M. Keynes is an obvious, but profound, truth. Prudent expenditure is to be preferred to mere parsimony. Mr. Keynes's advice is only necessary because at the present time, owing to depression of trade and consequent depression of spirits, there is an undue tendency to unwise economies. No private individual or public institution whose premises may require painting or repairs this year should postpone the necessary work till 1932. The same may be said of firms whose plant may need to be re-conditioned or whose stock may need to be replaced. I need scarcely point out that the ideal citizen is careful of his resources during a boom, and, therefore, has a little more to spend when trade is depressed.—Yours, etc.,

CALEB WALLACE.

MARY E. BYRNE.

There passed to her rest on January 19th Miss Mary E. Byrne, M.A., the distinguished Gaelic scholar, who has been employed for many years by the Royal Irish Academy on their Irish dictionary, and was a valued contributor to all important reviews dealing with research in Celtic studies.

As the Assistant Librarian of the Academy, I came for over thirteen years in constant daily contact with her, which is my only excuse for rushing in where I am ill-qualified to tread. To the Library staff she was a tower of strength. When we were asked for little-known grammatical articles or obscure versions of Irish tales, and when printed authorities failed us, our instinctive thought was: "We must ask Miss Byrne." We always did ask her, sure that a deep, varied and sound store of knowledge would be placed with a ready kindness at the disposal of the inquirer. It was not merely the harassed Assistant Librarian who applied to her. Learned scholars in Ireland and all over the world consulted her in their difficulties—rarely, if ever, in vain.

The present writer, capable only of ignorantly admiring Miss Byrne's Celtic scholarship, wishes to pay a tribute to a singularly charming colleague. Never was a learned scholar less of a recluse or of a "crank," or more vividly interested in people and in life, in art and the drama, in literature and music, in all things lovely and of good report. She had a real sympathy with all suffering, while her intense love of animals was a characteristic aspect of her kindly attitude towards all God's creatures. No one could be more genuinely interested than Miss Byrne in the plays one had seen, and the places one had visited while on holiday, and in all one's hopes and plans. The catholicity of her taste in literature, or the theatre or people, was always a joy and a stimulus, combined, as it was, with sound judgment, a gentle, yet keen, sense of humour, and a happy wit, which could jest in the face of her own illness right to the very end. Unselfish and spiritually-minded, though she "warmed both hands before the fire of life," her treasure was in heaven.

It is not so much the Celtic scholar (irreparable as is this loss) whom we miss in the daily routine of the Library, but the colleague who made that routine so much gayer, the scholar who was so utterly modest about her own learning, the reader who was so unassuming and so considerate in all her dealings with us, the friend whose passing has left a loneliness and a silence among us who knew and loved her.

U.S. MARKETS.

PRICES IMPROVE.

REUTER'S TELEGRAMS.
NEW YORK, Friday.

With little fresh light being thrown on the business outlook, and the market failing to make much progress in either direction, speculative circles became somewhat uneasy. The opening was irregular. An easier tendency developed, but bears were quickly discouraged with the market's lack of responsiveness, and prices rallied as shorts covered. Advances of from 1 to 2 points were numerous. Important buying, however, failed to appear, just as yesterday's decline failed to bring out any important selling. The market appeared to be largely governed by international conditions, for new developments did not provide a stimulus.

A reduction of $18,000,000 in brokers loans for the week was regarded as indicating no "let up" in the strengthening of fundamental market conditions. Meantime the bond market made further upward progress, while a report that a large French bank plans to participate in a loan to Germany was regarded on Wall Street as highly constructive. Bankers' acceptances were reduced one eighth of one per cent. The close was steady.

Government Bonds very steady. Railroad Bonds steady. The day's sales totalled 1,700,000 shares. Money on call closed steady at 1½ per cent. bid and 1¾ per cent. asked. All business during the day was concluded at 1½ per cent. Prime mercantile paper was quoted at from 2½ to 2¾ per cent. Sterling exchange firm. Silver ⅛c. lower at 26½.

CHICAGO MARKETS.

CHICAGO, Friday.

Wheat values advanced owing to advices of only scattered moisture overnight, coupled with reports of influential buying of July and September, which was believed to be for Eastern and foreign account. A set-back occurred later on news that a heavy snowstorm was moving towards the South-Western belt, while realising also helped the decline. Maize improved on an active demand by leading commission houses, a moderate primary movement, and much smaller Argentine exports for the week. Larger country offerings on the advance later caused a partial reaction. Reports of insufficient moisture in Kansas and the North-West caused rye values to strengthen, but the market reacted owing to a forecast of beneficial snow. Early improvement in oats was due to expectations of an increased cash demand, coupled with a small primary movement, but prices later declined in sympathy with corn.

WHEAT opened steady, with old contracts ⅛c. higher to unchanged, and new deliveries ⅛c. higher to ⅛c. lower. The close was barely steady, old being generally ⅛c. higher and new contracts unchanged to ½c. lower.

FREE TRAVEL VOUCHERS.

M.P. WHO ABUSED THE PRIVILEGE.

A DISGUSTED MAGISTRATE.

At Marylebone Court yesterday, Mr. T. Mardy Jones, who has just resigned his seat as Labour member of Parliament for Pontypridd division, and his wife, Margaret Jones, pleaded guilty to summonses in connection with the misuse of Parliamentary railway travel vouchers. It was alleged that Mr. Jones transferred two non-transferable tickets to Mrs. Jones with intent that they should be used for travelling on the Great Western Railway, and that he abetted his wife to travel without having previously paid the fare. It was alleged against Mrs. Jones that she wilfully used two non-transferable tickets between Pontypridd and Paddington.

Each defendant was fined £4 and 30 guineas costs were awarded against Mr. Jones.

Mr. P. W. Pine, solicitor of the Great Western Railway Co., who prosecuted, described the voucher, and pointed out that on it was stated that the vouchers were not transferable, and that they must be presented at the booking office of either of the stations concerned. Mr. Pine added that tickets obtained on Government warrants were for the member and not for his relatives. The offence took place on December 19, when Mrs. Mardy Jones, accompanied by her 12-year-old daughter, took train at Pontypridd to come to London.

WIFE AS MESSENGER.

Defending solicitor said that his clients realised the wrong thing that had been done. In connection with his political duties Mr. Jones urgently required a document from Pontypridd too valuable to be trusted to the post. Rather than make a double journey himself, which he was entitled to do by the use of Government vouchers, but which his Parliamentary duties prevented him from doing, the method he adopted was to ask Mrs. Jones to bring it. To achieve this end he thoughtlessly sent the two tickets, one for his wife and one for his daughter, who was too young to be left at home.

"I only desire to add," said the solicitor, "that both Mr. and Mrs. Jones bear exemplary characters. In fact, rather more than exemplary, because in 1924 they won the Dunmow Flitch.

"The man who is pleading guilty to-day began his working life at the age of twelve at the top of a coal pit, the eldest of a family of six, whose father was killed in a mine. From that he has risen to the prominent position which he holds to-day in public and industrial life."

The Magistrate, in fining the defendants, told Mr. Jones that it was rather disgraceful to find a member of Parliament involved in such a case. In discussing the question of costs the magistrate referred to the case as "disgusting." He added: "We have to remember that he has risen to his present position from a coal mine."

VOUCHER SYSTEM COST.

The Press Association Lobby Correspondent states that the existing system of travel vouthers for M.P.'s is to be discussed by the House of Commons in the course of the next few weeks, on a supplementary estimate. A vote of £35,500 has already been passed for M.P.'s travelling expenses during the current financial year, and, although this represents an increase of £1,000 on the preceding year, the authorities are satisfied that it will not be sufficient to meet all claims up to March 31 next. Accordingly, the Treasury intends to ask for a supplementary grant of £7,000, making £42,500 for the year. The free travel system has been in existence since 1924.

MR. DE VALERA AND INDIA.

VIEWS ON THE POLICY OF NON-VIOLENCE.

At a meeting held under the auspices of the Women's Prisoners' Defence League in the Mansion House last night Mrs. Despard proposed a resolution protesting against "the British atrocities committed in India—the executions, wholesale arrests and tortures." She said that the British Empire in India must come to an end.

Mr. Krishna Menon, who seconded, said that the name of Britain was hated in every Indian home. The Indian people pulled down the Union Jack and put up their own flag. If there was any violence it was on the side of the British and not on the side of Gandhi's followers.

Mr. de Valera, in supporting the motion, expressed the hope that the non-violent method adopted by the Indian leaders would prove successful. The success of that method would do more to stop war than any amount of preaching. If Gandhi won out on the non-violent programme, it was going to give a new weapon to suffering humanity. It was a great experiment, and it was being tried in the best possible conditions. If that method was not successful, then it would be in vain for those who preached pacifist methods. That programme was not weak or mean. It required more courage than the violent method, and he hoped it might be successful. He warned the Indian people against the policy of all British Governments, whether Labour, Tory or Liberal, in causing division among themselves. He was glad to see that the people of India had not been so foolish as to play the enemy's game. He hoped that the Indians would gain their independence, and that the power of the British Empire to do harm would disappear for ever.

Mr. Alex. Lynn expressed the view that a stage would be reached when the Indian non-violent policy would have to become violent.

The resolution was adopted.

CHARLES DICKENS

BORN 7th FEBRUARY, 1812.

Commemorate his Immortal Memory by purchasing a Complete Edition of his Works to-day!

He is still the Master Novelist. The friends you make in the pages of Dickens remain friends for life—they charm you by their very human-ness. You can make all these friends when you get his works.

Dickens has become a National Institution. The greatest Reformer of his age; a lover of his fellow men; a hater of cruelty, oppression, cant, and hypocrisy. All his works are free from any taint of impurity. He never defiles what he touches. The cup of laughter which he holds to men's lips contains no sediment.

Every educated man and woman must know Dickens' Works well—not one or two of them, but all of them; not the stories and novels only, but all his writings.

IN TRAINING FOR A THRONE.

THE HOPE OF THE HAPSBURGS.

PRINCE OTTO OF HUNGARY.

Mr. Henry Leach, in his brilliant monthly contribution to Chambers's Journal, entitled "The Heart of Things," gives a vivid picture of the training of young Prince Otto for the Throne of Hungary. Mr. Leach is exceptionally well-informed upon everything that goes to on in Spain, and we make a short extract from his remarkable picture of the widowed Queen Zita and her son in their exile at a remote Spanish seaside town:—

"The handsomest young prince alive, he is bold as can be in a simple and natural way, nothing at all of a prig, modest but dignified in royal bearing, charming upon every princely point. He is rising to his full manhood in a Spanish corner, watched by Queen Zita with a motherly devotion, pride, and hope almost fanatical. He has been learning well to be all that a good prince should be. He has been taught exhaustively the principles upon which a prosperous and contented people may be established, and the arts of diplomacy; and from the time when he came to understand what guns are for, he has been sedulously, daily, trained in all matters relating to militarism, the command of armies, manœuvring tactics, surprise and shock. He has had no army, not even a small company of soldiers, to practise with, from which to learn by demonstration what has been taught to him in the way of theory. . . .

"The aptest pupil is this charming prince; he has acquired knowledge and understanding rapidly, to the delight of his tutors; and about other things better than about war, they say. Soldiers and guns—he knows their grim importance; but living things like languages seem more real to him after all, and he speaks Hungarian, German, English, Spanish and French, though he was only eighteen years old last November, when he became head of the House of Hapsburg. He is the son of the really gallant and luckless Emperor Charles of Austria, the last of the Hapsburg emperors, who died at Madeira a few years ago, and son of the Empress Zita, the most spirited princess of the House of Bourbon Parma, whose devotion and sacrifice to the idea of preparing this boy of hers to be King of Hungary, to gain the crown for the Hapsburgs once again, as Charles dying begged of her to do, makes us admire and sympathise with her, whatever we think about Hapsburgs or other royal houses, and whatever we think of war and the responsibility that rulers have had for millions of lives lost on battlefields. . . .

"The home of this prince and his mother, exiled from their Hungary, and feared for their influence by all the adjacent Balkan States—the worst war-mongers in the world—is at a small seaside place in the north of Spain, Lequeitio. They were being hunted about until at last they found a peaceful refuge there. When last in Spain I learned with authority some intimate details about them. The young prince is of the most captivating personal appearance, with features that go as far toward feminine beauty as Nature will permit while retaining true masculinity. A fine clear skin of delicate colouring, a sensitive mobile formation of his lips, and wide limpid eyes in whose glance is some sadness always since his dying father spoke to him, so they say, are the dominating features. His look is innocent and pure. His heart and mind are good, he is not in the very least a princely prig, and he seems to look out hopefully on the world. His education has lately been completed at Louvain, in Belgium. The Hapsburg funds have run low since the disasters of the war, and a few years back Zita came near to begging. Now they have a small income from Hungarian sources amounting to about eight thousand pounds a year, and on this they live in an unpretentious Renaissance mansion at Lequeitio, where a miniature court is held, not for the sake of pomp and vanity, but only to keep themselves, and especially the young prince, reminded that they are the Hapsburgs, and that, if they were not, then they were nothing. They look towards the future from this corner of Spain, and wonder, wonder."

Death of Mr. J. MacDermott.

LIMERICK, Friday.

Mr. James MacDermott, Secretary of the Limerick Harbour Board, died in St. Vincent's Hospital, Dublin, this morning at the age of fifty-two years. In December last he took ill at a Rugby football match in Cork, and had since been laid up. He was appointed Secretary of the Harbour Board, with which he was connected as an official for many years, last June, in room of the late Mr. John F. Power. Mr. MacDermott was well known in Irish Rugby football circles, having been secretary of the North Munster Branch for a considerable period. He was a native of Limerick City.

CONGRESS LEADER DEAD.

ONE OF FOUNDERS OF SWARAJ PARTY.

A Reuter's cablegram from Lucknow announces the death of the Pandit Motilal Nehru, President of the Indian National Congress, and leader of the Congress Party in the Indian Legislative Assembly since 1927. He was born in May, 1861, educated at Nuir College, Allahabad, and enrolled as an advocate in the Allahabad High Court in 1895. He was President of the Indian National Congress at Amritsar in 1919, and joined the non-co-operation movement in the following year, suspending his practice at the Bar at the same time.

He was sentenced to six months' simple imprisonment and a fine of 500 rupees for joining the Congress Volunteers' organisation, which had been declared an unlawful organisation in 1921. With C. R. Das, he founded the Swaraj Party of India in the following year. He became a member of the Indian Legislative Assembly in 1923, and leader of the Swaraj Party in the Indian Assembly in 1924. He resumed his practice at the Bar in 1925, and was re-elected to the Indian Assembly the year after.

When he left Allahabad for Lucknow last Wednesday, he was accompanied by Mr. Gandhi, who had indefinitely postponed his departure for Allahabad owing to the Pandit's serious condition.

VICEROY'S SYMPATHY.

A hartal was observed in Bombay, New Delhi, and other centres, after the announcement of the Pandit's death. The Viceroy's Private Secretary has sent the following telegram to Mrs. Motilal Nehru:—"The Viceroy and Lady Irwin regret to learn the sad news of your husband's death, and send you and your family this message of their sincere sympathy and sorrow."

100,000 PERSONS AT FUNERAL.

An Allahabad message says that a hundred thousand people flocked to pay a last tribute to the Pandit, whose body was brought by car from Lucknow for cremation. The flag at the High Court was lowered to half-mast, and there was every mark of public sorrow. Many leading officials were present at the funeral procession. Several persons sustained minor injuries owing to being crushed in the dense crowd.

1,000 PICKETS TO STOP A SALE.

WOMEN FROM MILLIONAIRES' FAMILIES ARRESTED.

FROM REUTER'S CORRESPONDENT.

AHMEDABAD, Friday.

Picketing on an extensive scale was organised by Congress volunteers to-day on the occasion of the sale by auction of licences for liquor shops here. The police arrested the picketers as they arrived, with the result that nearly a thousand, including many ladies from the families of millionaire millowners, were taken into custody. All were released after the sale had come to an end.

[NOTE.—A recent resolution by Congress leaders declared that the picketing of shops dealing in liquor and foreign cloth was no part of the civil disobedience campaign, but was "an exercise of the ordinary right of the citizen as long as it remains strictly peaceful."]

FEW EX-SOLDIERS INVOLVED.

Mr. Wedgwood Benn (Secretary for India), in reply to Major Graham Pole (Labour, Derbyshire), in the House of Commons yesterday, said that, although he had not precise information, he believed it was the fact that few ex-soldiers had been involved in the civil disobedience movement in India, and he regretted that, through mis-hearing a sentence used by him in the debate on January 26th, as published, appeared to throw an unfounded slight on the martial classes in that country, which, he need hardly say, it was far from his intention to do. The approximate number of persons detained on the date referred to was between twenty-three thousand and twenty-four thousand. The number of sixty thousand mentioned in the course of the debate was the approximate figure of the total number of persons who had been imprisoned in connection with the movement since it started nine or ten months ago.

LEOPARDSTOWN TO-DAY.

OLD BACHELOR AND GROUNDSHEET THE LIKELY "DOUBLE."

THAT there was a demand for one or two extra Irish meetings during the winter season is amply testified to by the support accorded to to-day's Leopardstown meeting by owners and trainers. No less than seventy-six runners have been declared, which makes the excellent average of over twelve a race. All that is required to make the meeting a success is a continuance of the mild weather of yesterday, and it looks as if visitors will be treated to a most interesting day's racing.

The totalisator management announce that double event wagers will be accepted on the third and fifth races, which are both handicap steeplechases, and should be very open. In the case of a backer naming a non-runner for the first of the two races run he will be at liberty to substitute another horse, but in the case of his having a non-runner for the later race this does not hold.

The Tower Hurdle Race provides a nice puzzle. Brighter Bird showed smart form when winning over the minor obstacles at Naas last November, and it looks as if he will take a lot of beating here, but Black Monday stays well, and Opalia, as a winner of six races last season, must also come into the reckoning.

The smart sprinter, Knight's Battle, will appear in a new rôle when forming one of the fifteen runners for the Stand Maiden Hurdle Race. On the flat he usually failed to stay more than five furlongs, so it will be interesting to see how he shapes at the timber-topping business. A more likely proposition is Boundary, who won two races over longer journeys at the end of last season.

Opalia is also in the Dundrum Steeplechase, but is more likely to run in the hurdle race. Hy Spy and Old Bachelor, the top and bottom weights, may quite likely fight out the issue.

Punchestown, the winner of the Corinthian flat race at the Christmas meeting, is among the entries for the Silverpark Steeplechase, and if he jumps the country safely he should account for the moderate lot opposing him in this race.

Mr. Arnott holds a strong hand in the Stillorgan Handicap Steeplechase with Sea Fisher and Groundsheet. The latter's form last season was very promising. He is still only five years old, and should keep on improving. Koscie's Star will likely prove his most dangerous rival to-day.

In a field of eighteen runners for the Corinthian Plate the picking of the winner is not an easy matter. Tais Toi won in convincing style at Naas last September, and if he reproduces that form on this occasion will take a lot of beating. Selections:—

Tower Hurdle—Brighter Bird.
Stand Plate—Boundary.
Dundrum Steeplechase—Old Bachelor.
Silverpark Steeplechase—Punchestown.
Stillorgan Steeplechase—Groundsheet.
Corinthian Plate—Tais Toi.

SPORTING GOSSIP.

Newmarket Trainer's Accident.

Mr. Victor Gilpin, the Newmarket trainer, had the misfortune to dislocate his shoulder while hunting with Lord Fitzwilliam's hounds in Huntingdonshire. The injury, although rather painful, is not serious, and Mr. Gilpin is quite able to superintend the work of his horses. He was, in fact, out with both lots yesterday.

Merano Lame.

Merano, Mr. Victor Emanuel's clever hurdler, pulled up lame after the General Peace Hurdle at Lingfield yesterday. As he was leading for most part of the journey and only weakened two hurdles out, he might be considered an unlucky loser.

DUBLIN UNIVERSITY S.C.

At a meeting of the Colourmen, held on February 5th, Mr. R. P. P. Wallace was elected captain for the season 1931.

GOSSIP FROM THE COURSE.

TROYTOWN 'CHASE TO-DAY.

A GREAT HURDLER.

LACOCK'S VICTORY.

FROM OUR TRAVELLING CORRESPONDENT.

LINGFIELD, Friday Night.

THERE was not a deal of interest in the racing this afternoon, but there will be to-morrow, when we soar into the empyrean on the wings of the best programme that has been offered to us during this depressing winter. Gib's first appearance in a hurdle race is a hors d'œuvre; Richmond's descent on a two mile steeplechase, the last event of the day, is a savoury; but there is a baron of beef from which juicy slices will be cut—the Troytown Handicap Steeplechase, which should prove one of the most informative races we have seen this season, for there is a whole batch of horses who will be figuring in the National betting engaged.

The one absentee of note is Easter Hero, who had a race last week, and who, it may be stated, will be ridden in the Grand National by F. B. Rees. Easter Hero's stable companion, Sir Lindsay, will be in the field, but the most interesting National horse in the race will be Gregalach, whose first appearance of the season this will be. I believe that he is in good form and that he is expected to run extremely well, even if he does not win outright. Moloney will ride him to-morrow.

Drintyre is an interesting candidate who is much fancied for the National and is well handicapped here. Then there is Ballasport, also much fancied for the National, and Alike, whose chance at Liverpool is thought something of. To oppose these there will be the tearaway Kingsford, who is hard to beat; Tide, a brilliant young horse, not in the National, and the very smart six-year-old, Solanum, as well as the revived Kepi Amarante, who has dropped low in the scale of weights.

SELECTIONS.

It is a most difficult race in which to make a selection. Tide, Drintyre, Ballasport and Kepi Amarante all have claims, and from these I make a diffident selection of DRINTYRE.

I expect GIB to win the Godstone Hurdle, and Poole's National horse, Richmond II., may be forward enough to win the Cloister Steeplechase.

Poole had another good day to-day, when he won two races—the General Peace Open Hurdle with Mr. A. R. McAlpine's Knight of Knockeevan, and the Surrey Amateurs' Steeplechase with Holiday Hall, whom he rescued out of selling plate company, and with whom he has won so many races for Mr. R. A. L. Harmsworth. I am not sure that this five-year-old, Knight of Knockeevan, who is by Knight of Kilcash, will not prove himself the champion hurdler of the season. He keeps on doing it, and he has not been beaten this season.

VERY CONVINCING.

The way he outjumped the others at the last hurdle and went clean away to win by three lengths and two lengths from Peertoi and Song of Essex, was very convincing. All the same, I think he would have had more to do had not Merano broken down badly.

Mr. Emanuel's American-bred horse was going like a steam engine between the last two hurdles, having led all the way, when he began to falter. He carried on, but was just run out of a place. It is unlikely that we shall see Merano on a racecourse again this season.

There was a full sister to Knight of Knockeevan in this race—Even Me—who is a year older. She lay up with Merano for a mile, but finished last. Owen Anthony, who trains her, had the favourite in this race, Clear Cash, but he never flattered, and appears to have lost his form—only temporarily, I hope.

Holiday Hall had an easy task in the Amateurs' Steeplechase, for after they had gone less than half a mile he went to the front, and then won easily by three lengths from Relation.

There was another amateurs' steeplechase, a selling event, which Captain Mosely won on his own horse, Cylbairn. This young cavalry officer, who is home on leave from India, has had four winning rides on Cylbairn in the course of a few weeks. He was bid up to 185 guineas to-day, which is probably as much as he is worth, but the old horse has done him so well that his owner bought him in. He is the best sort of "once a week" plater that I have seen for some time.

BY BRILLIANT RIDING.

The other selling race, a hurdle event, was noteworthy for a brilliant piece of riding by F. B. Rees on Lacock, who won by two lengths from Ormuzd. Rees has ridden two superlatively good races this week: on Blue Vinny at Gatwick, and on Lacock here.

Mr. Frank Barbour was interested in the performance of Two Royals (who used to be in his stable) in the Manifesto Steeplechase, which he won by three-parts of a length from the Warwick winner, Friar Dominic, and Remus, this being about the best performance he has accomplished in this country. Pardy, who used to be Mr. Barbour's trainer at Bishop's Cannings, now assists the Epsom trainer, Cecil Langlands, who trains Two Royals for Mr. Oliver Martin Smith.

Prince Cherry, who won at Gatwick, was started again, but his 12st. 7lb. was too much for him, and he missed a place. Jack Anthony ran a couple of Irish-bred horses—Dusty Foot, by Martin Lightfoot, and Knight of the Galtees, by Sirrah—in this race. One or other of these may be making a stir in the National Hunt Steeplechase at Cheltenham.

Anthony had a fancied candidate in the last race—The Wrecker—but he was well beaten by the favourite, Mount Hawke, who led all the way.

CROSS-COUNTRY.

INTERNATIONAL RACE.

ENGLAND'S DECISION TO-DAY.

AN important meeting of the Amateur Athletic Association will be held at Manchester to-day, when, among other matters, the letter from the National Cross-Country Union relative to the International Cross-Country Championship in Dublin on March 28, will be considered, and a decision reached as to whether or not England will compete in the race.

A difficulty arose when the Northern Ireland Athletic Association suspended several Free State athletes, a decision which the N.A.C.A. refused to recognise. The Amateur Athletic Association, however, observe rulings of the Northern Ireland body, and in the last amateur championships in London the suspended athletes were not permitted to compete.

A new honorary secretary of the A.A.A., in succession to Sir Harry Barclay, will be elected.

P. Nurmi's British "record" for six miles of 29 mins. 36 2-5 secs. in London last year will be confirmed. Nurmi's time was 25 secs. better than Shrubb's twenty-six years old "record."

SPECIAL SELECTIONS FOR TO-DAY.

DRINTYRE FANCIED FOR THE TROYTOWN 'CHASE.

AMONG the events to be decided at Lingfield to-day is the Troytown Steeplechase, the most important National trial so far this season. Ten of the entries in this event hold the Liverpool engagement, and it is interesting to compare their respective weights in both events. Gregalach has 12st. to shoulder in both events, but Starbox has 10lb. less in the Lingfield race, while others similarly favoured are Drintyre, 7lb.; Sir Lindsay, 6lb.; Glangesia and Ballasport, 3lb., and Rhyticere, Alike and Amberwave, 2lb. less. It appears, then, that Starbox and Drintyre are the best weighted of the National horses. That fact, coupled with Drintyre's recent good form, gives him an excellent chance.

Of those not holding the National engagement Tide and Kingsford appear to hold the best chance. Tide had an enviable reputation last year, and he showed that he is again approaching his best at Newbury, when he beat Alike and Ballasport in a close finish. Kingsford, who is also engaged in the Cloister Steeplechase, has won his last three races.

Gregalach and Sir Lindsay are both on the up grade, and Drintyre showed up well behind Cherry Duck at Sandown. He will be ridden by his owner, Captain Brownhill, who has had many winning rides on the 'chaser, and I expect the combination to be successful once again.

Radio Ray, Peeper and Bibiani should make the Guest Hall Selling Hurdle an interesting race. Peeper has shown up well in all his recent races, and at the weights I prefer him to Bibiani. Radio Ray deserves consideration on his Manchester victory, but he has not done well in his subsequent races. The balance of the form seems to be in favour of Peeper, to whom I give my vote.

Gib has been taken out of the Troytown Steeplechase, but is to take his chance in the Godstone Hurdle. I think that Gib, although a great 'chaser, will not show up so favourably in this branch of the sport, so I have no hesitation in selecting the best of J. M. Bell's pair, Story of Eden and Telegraphic.

Sandro runs for J. Anthony instead of Rosy Covert in the Trespasser Amateurs' Steeplechase, and even with top weight he should go close. Prince Cherry narrowly beat him at Kempton Park, but he was successful in his two previous races, and I regard him as the danger to Michaelmas Day, who, in his last outing, gave weight and a beating to Sandro's stable companion, Rosy Covert.

Poole appears to hold a strong hand in the final race, the Cloister Steeplechase, but Kingsford will probably have taken his chance in the Troytown Steeplechase, while Holiday Hall won yesterday. This leaves the Lewis trainer with Richmond II., who has not won much so far this year. Under these circumstances I shall stand by Shadow, who sprang a surprise at Windsor.

The Oxford crew made three journeys to Iffley and back yesterday, under the supervision of Doctor P. Mallam, who was accompanied in the launch by Mr. Stanley Garton and Mr. G. W. Kitchin. The first time the crew went downstream the order on Thursday was retained, R. Poole (Brasenose) keeping the position at No. 5 in place of J. Waterhouse (Balliol). On the second outing the president, at No. 7, made way for Waterhouse, and displaced W. Erskine-Crum (Christ Church) at bow, while on the third journey Waterhouse retired from the boat, and Erskine-Crum took over No. 7.

ATHLETICS.

THE LADOUMEGUE CASE.

COMMISSION TO HOLD FURTHER INQUIRY.

PARIS, Friday.

Jules Ladoumegue, the French holder of two world running "records," appeared last night before a Commission appointed to inquire into the allegation that he asked for a certain sum before he would run against the German, Otto Peltzer, at Frankfurt. Ladoumegue stated that, having received an invitation from the Eintracht Club, of Frankfurt, to take part in an athletic meeting, he passed the letter on to M. Vitau, manager of his club—the Club d'Athletisme des Sports Generaux.

M. Vitau handed the Commission certain documents, which, he says, ought to prove that he is not to blame.

The Commission decided that further inquiry was necessary before giving its decision.

The French Athletic Federation announced this morning that Ladoumegue would not fulfil his engagement to run against Peltzer on Sunday on account of the bereavement of his foster father. There was no other reason for Ladoumegue's not going.

AVORY BEATEN AT BREMEN.

BREMEN, Friday.

E. R. Avory and Mrs. Strawson, two of the British players, were beaten to-day in the quarter-finals of the German covered courts championships. Results:—

RUGBY FOOTBALL.

TO-DAY'S INTERNATIONAL.

WALES MAY BE WITHOUT BASSETT AT CARDIFF.

THE International championship advances another stage this afternoon, when Wales meet Scotland at Cardiff. Both countries have excellent packs of forwards this season, though the style of play is vastly different. Wales have every reason to be pleased with the achievement of their team in playing a draw with England at Twickenham in a match which they might easily have won, and it is doubtful if the Scottish forwards will get the ball with the same frequency as they did against France. Even granting that G. P. S. Macpherson, who is again included in the Scottish three-quarter line, may prove a match winner on his own account, it looks as if the Welsh side is the stronger one all round. Their play against England made it clear that there was no really weak spot. On the whole, the Welsh three quarters are a faster lot than the Scottish four, and in Powell and Bowcott they have a pair of half-backs well competent to give them plenty of opportunities.

G. P. S. MACPHERSON.

J. BASSETT.

Scotland's hope rests in their forwards taking the game to themselves, as they did in the closing stages against Ireland at Murrayfield last year, and all but succeeded in pulling the match out of the fire after Ireland had established a comfortable lead at half-time. It should be an even game, but Wales seem to have a pull behind the scrimmage, which should about enable them to win.

J. BASSETT DOUBTFUL.

There is a possibility that Wales may be compelled to make a last-minute change in the important position of full-back. Bassett is stated to have been unwell for some days, and there is a likelihood that he may have to withdraw, in which event the vacancy will be filled by either Scourfield, of Torquay, or Bayliss, of Pontypool, both of whom have been officially requested to attend.

Teams:—

WALES.

Full-back—J. Bassett (Penarth) or J. Scourfield (Torquay), or Bayliss (Pontypool).

Three-quarters—J. C. Morley (Newport), Claude Davey (Swansea), T. E. Jones Davies (London-Welsh) and R. W. Boon (Cardiff).

Half-backs—H. M. Bowcott (Cardiff) and W. C. Powell (London-Welsh).

Forwards—A. Skym (Cardiff), H. Day (Newport), Thomas Day (Swansea), T. Arthur (Neath), E. Jenkins (Aberavon), N. Fender (Cardiff), A. Lemon (Neath) and Watcyn Thomas (Swansea).

SCOTLAND.

Full-back—R. W. Langrish (London Scottish).

Three-quarters—George Wood (Gala), W. M. Simmers (Glasgow Academicals), G. P. S. Macpherson (Edinburgh Academicals), I. S. Smith (London Scottish).

Half-backs—H. Lind (Dunfermline) and J. B. Nelson (Glasgow Academicals).

Forwards—J. W. Allan (Melrose), W. N. Roughead (London Scottish), H. S. Mackintosh (West of Scotland), A. W. Walker (Cambridge University), J. Beattie (Hawick), W. B. Welsh (Hawick), J. S. Wilson (St. Andrew's University) D. Crichton-Miller (Gloucester).

Referee—Mr. Boot (England).

CLUB GAMES IN DUBLIN.

WANDERERS AND TRINITY MEET AT LANSDOWNE ROAD.

TO-DAY'S Senior games in Dublin are not of a particularly attractive kind. Wanderers, who will be visited by Dublin University at Lansdowne Road, have not been playing up to their form of the earlier part of the season, and last Saturday suffered a defeat by Palmerston.

Palmerston will find Lansdowne a different proposition at Clonskeagh, even though Arigho and V. J. Pike will be missing from the latter side. Bective Rangers forwards should be too strong for Clontarf in the match at Castle Avenue, and University College are likely to account for Monkstown at Sydney Parade. Probably the best match of the afternoon will be provided by the meeting of Old Wesley and Blackrock College at Donnybrook.

SCHOOLS' CUP SURPRISE.

O'CONNELL'S SCHOOL DEFEAT BLACKROCK.

O'CONNELL'S SCHOOL 6 BLACKROCK COLL. 0

O'Connell's School put up a splendid game yesterday at Donnybrook, when they defeated Blackrock College by 1 penalty goal and 1 try (6 points) to 0.

The winners entered the competition for the first time last season, and after playing a draw with Blackrock College Juniors were beaten in the replay.

O'Connell's School, however, had their revenge yesterday, when, on a pitch which suited their heavy forwards, they managed to qualify for the second round.

The match, which was witnessed by a very large crowd, was one of the most interesting school games seen for a long time. The conditions unquestionably favoured the O'Connell School boys, but they were opposed by a much more experienced side, and, had the conditions been drier, the Williamstown boys might have gained the day. The latter, however, despite their best efforts, were held at bay, and on the general run of the play the O'Connell boys were well deserving of victory.

Gaughran, at full-back for O'Connell's School, played a splendid game. In the early part of the match he seemed nervous, but subsequently did everything which came his way accurately. McGlynn was the best of the middle line, while Curtin, the captain, played a splendid game at half. Filgate showed a great conception of the wing forward game, and he was well supported by Collins and Kelly.

On the Blackrock College side, O'Brien played a safe game at full. Morrisey, Browne and McHenry were also sound behind the scrum, while among the forwards none were better than Culhane, Walsh and Hyde.

All the scores came in the first half. Five minutes from the start the O'Connell forwards rushed down on the Blackrock line, and, the ball being worked over, Lally got the touch for a try, which was not converted. Continuing to attack, O'Connell's soon added to their score, when, from a penalty kick, McGlynn kicked a goal.

The Blackrock boys had much the better of the second half, but, try as they might, they could not break through. Teams:—

O'Connell's School—B. Gaughran; P. Lyons, J. Murray, N. McGlynn, B. Dunne; W. Curtin (capt.), D. Kelly; J. O'Reilly, P. Kelly, W. Filgate, K. O'Dougherty, J. Killoran, G. Duffy, T. Collins, J. Lally.

Blackrock College—D. J. O'Brien; B. A. McHenry, J. G. Campbell, S. J. McHale, H. E. Browne; S. E. Morrisey (capt.), E. F. Dolan; D. B. O'Loughlin, W. E. Hyde, A. J. Carroll, D. L. O'Reilly, T. L. Barry, J. F. Culhane, D. M. Walshe, D. T. Merrigan.

LOSS TO SCOTTISH RUGBY.

MR. AIKMAN SMITH DIES ON WAY TO CARDIFF.

Seized with illness in the train while on the way from Scotland to witness the International match at Cardiff between Wales and Scotland, Mr. J. Aikman Smith, a past President of the Scottish Rugby Union, and for many years honorary secretary of that body, died yesterday under tragic circumstances. He was removed to hospital at Stafford, where he passed away soon after his admission. Although never attaining to any fame as a player, Mr. Smith was a great personality on the legislative side of Rugby football. Born in March, 1859, he was thus within a few weeks of completing his seventy-second year, but his activities and mental alertness were until the end as lively and keen as a man thirty years younger. For forty years he had been connected with the Scottish Rugby Union, undertaking the secretarial duties from 1890 until the season of 1920-1921. In the latter winter he was succeeded by Mr. H. M. Simson, the Scottish Union then having a paid secretary for the first time.

A man of strong force of character, Mr. Smith was very tenacious of his views, particularly in regard to professionalism, or in any matter where the slightest trace of professionalism was supposed to exist. It is not too much to say that the terms "Scottish Rugby Union" and "Aikman Smith" were practically synonymous. In the council chamber he could carry a meeting, and bring those whose opinions differed from his to his own way of thinking by a remarkable flow of rhetoric and great argumentative powers. It is quite certain that his influence in Scottish Rugby will be felt for many years. He was always a strong and bitter opponent of the idea of numbering players, and in this connection it is of interest to point out that of all the international Rugby teams those of Scotland remained unnumbered. There was, however, one occasion—a few years ago against France in Paris—when the Scottish players had numbers on their backs, but even then there was a salve to the consciences of the Scottish Committee, for the numbers did not tally with those given on the programme.

When the International Board was formed in 1890 Mr. Smith was nominated a member of it by the Scottish Union, and he was still on the board at the time of his death. He will be missed by a large circle, for, whether one agreed with his ideas or not, those who did not see eye to eye with him could not fail to appreciate his force of character and dominant personality. His death follows very quickly on that of Sir Andrew Balfour, the late President of the Scottish Union, at whose funeral on Thursday last Mr. Smith was present.

MUNSTER AGAIN VICTORIOUS.

Munster, Leinster's conquerors of the previous day, triumphed over Ulster in the women's inter-provincial hockey match at Clonskeagh yesterday, the score being two goals to one in their favour. A photograph of play.

HOCKEY.

CUP-HOLDERS' BIG TASK.

CAN NAAS TURN THE TABLES ON THREE ROCK ROVERS?

THE semi-final ties of the Leinster section of the Irish Senior Cup take place to-day, when Railway Union, the holders, oppose Pembroke Wanderers, at Park avenue, and Three Rock Rovers receive Naas at Londonbridge road. Both are matches of exceptional interest and should be very open.

Railway Union have shown this season that they can have lapses; for Wanderers held them to a draw in the League a couple of months ago, and in to-day's game they will be without C. Sully, who is still on the injured list. Wanderers have been playing extremely well lately, and are a level, well-balanced side. It should be a fast game, with the defences predominating, and it will not be surprising if Wanderers pull through.

In the other match, Naas will have their only defeat of the season to avenge; for Three Rock Rovers gained a rather fortunate League win at Naas by 2 goals to 1. It will be a great disappointment to the country club if they cannot go through to the final, but they will find Rovers a tough nut to crack. J. M. Cairnes is finding his form again, and this means a lot to Rovers' attack, but the defence does not look altogether sound, and Naas may just get home.

The League matches are comparatively unimportant. Kingstown Grammar School should not have great difficulty in overcoming Clontarf, but National Bank, who travel down to Wicklow, may find the home side too strong for them.

There are also several matches in the Railway, Intermediate and Minor Cups, as well as one in the Irish Junior Cup.

WOMEN'S HOCKEY.

GREAT VICTORY FOR MUNSTER.

ULSTER BEATEN FOR THE FIRST TIME.

MUNSTER............ 2 ULSTER............ 1

For the first time on record Munster defeated Ulster yesterday afternoon at Clonskeagh, after a hard and keenly-contested match, by 2 goals to 1.

Play was very even for the first fifteen minutes. Then Munster got away, and, after a determined attack, Miss C. Murphy shot. Miss Rodden saved, but Miss B Murphy followed in to open the score. Neither side gained much advantage until just before the interval, when Ulster broke through, Miss S Kirkwood sending across for Mrs. Blake to equalise.

Fine open play marked the second half, and so keen was the marking that there was little chance to score. Eventually continued pressure by Munster let Miss P Cummins through to send in a lovely shot from the edge of the circle. Although Ulster worked hard up to the end they failed to equalise.

The Munster team played such a fine, well-combined game that it would be hard to select any outstanding players. Perhaps, in the forward line Miss P. Cummins and Miss B. Murphy deserve special mention. For Ulster Miss Corkery played an excellent game at full-back. Mrs. Chartres was, as usual, very steady, while Miss Peatt was best of the halves. Of a good forward line Mrs. Blake showed to most advantage.

Munster—Misses Hanon (Ashton); Daly (Cork), Priestly (Old Rochelle); Mulligan (Old Rochelle), J. Cummins (Cork), Barry (Ashton); C. Murphy (Cork), B Murphy (Ashton), R. MacSweeney (Cork), P. Cummins (Old Rochelle), and J. Creagh (Mallow).

Ulster—Miss Rodden; Mrs. Chartres (Knock), Misses Corkery (Queen's); P. Moffett (Queen's), Miss P. Peatt (Hereford), O. Moffett (Queen's); G. Kirkwood (Knock), Mrs. Blake (Hereford), Mrs. Towers (Knock), Misses Lindsay (Instonians), and B. Simpson (Knock).

MISS ROSE GETS FIVE.

LEINSTER............ 9 CONNAUGHT............ 1

Leinster had a runaway victory. They were quickly on the offensive, and early on Miss Rose beat the Connaught defence to score from close in. Soon after the same player netted another shot. Connaught then got away, but were well held by the Leinster backs. Miss Mahony cleared up field to Miss Rose, who rushed in, but Miss Grey saved. Miss Cullen, however, scored off the rebound. Before the interval Miss Rose and Miss Cullen added further goals.

After the interval, despite the good defensive work of Mrs. Braund and Miss Sowman, Leinster again got through, Miss Caulfield scoring. Connaught brought off some fine rushes after this, and in one of them Miss Shannon scored. Afterwards Leinster had it more or less their own way. Miss Rose added two and Miss Caulfield one to their list of goals.

For Leinster, Miss Maxwell got little to do; both full-backs played well, and the halves, as usual, were the best part of the team. Of the forwards, Misses Cullen and Rose were most prominent. For Connaught, Miss Guy saved quite a number of shots. Miss Sowman was the better full-back, and Mrs. Braund and Miss Eraut worked splendidly at half. Of the forwards, Misses Stevenson and Sandison were best.

Leinster—Misses Maxwell (Optimists); Mahony (Maids), Stewart (Alexandra); Huet (Maids), Morton (Old College), Hanna (Optimists); Phelan (Wanderers), Caulfield (Trefoil), Rose (Bray), Cullen (Old College), Foster (Optimists).

Connaught—Misses Guy (Tuam); Downing, Sowman (Galway); Keane, Eraut, Mrs. Braund (Galway); Misses Sandison, Quinn (Tuam), Shannon (Galway), Warner (Galway), Stevenson (Sligo G.S.)

Umpires—Miss Heckh and Miss Magee.

GAELIC GAMES.

FOUR PROVINCES ENGAGED.

KEEN GAME EXPECTED AT NAVAN.

(By PAT'O.)

ALL four provinces are engaged to-morrow in the Railway Cup semi-finals. Leinster meet Ulster at Navan in football. The winners meet Kerry. Munster hurlers play Connaught at Birr, with Leinster holding a bye to the final. The Birr game finds Galway alone holding the Western flag, and they have little recent public form. Against them, Munster field the strongest side of recent years—Tipperary (5), Cork (5), Clare (2), Limerick (2), Waterford (1). Gaelic games spring many surprises, but Munster's defeat to-morrow would be unexpected. Galway's long hitting will help them at first, but Munster's balance and team work should make them comfortable winners in the second half. Their goalkeeper O'Meara, of Toome, has played brilliant games. He has had "off-days" on occasions, but yet he is well covered and his front line will make the most of their opportunities, whilst Hurley, Treacy, Cahill and Cross, manning Munster's centre, read as good as any great lines of the past.

Galway's hurling strength is difficult to estimate. There were seventy affiliated teams of all grades in 1930, and should they hit their best form a fast game on this good pitch may result. King, Hearney, Phelan and the Derwan group will be Galway's pillars, but I believe that Martin Kennedy, Tipperary's prolific scorer, will get plenty of the ball, and he rarely sends wide of the mark.

THE NAVAN GAME.

The Navan game finds Leinster and Ulster at full strength. Leinster, as holders of the Railway Cup, are favourites; their team, drawn mainly from Dublin and Kildare, have experience rather than youth at their side. Selectors have been criticised for leaving out Paul Doyle, who has figured creditably in previous finals. Nulty and Rogers will do credit to Meath on their home pitch, and Leinster's backs are old, steady campaigners.

Ulster's team is younger and have made a sounder preparation. A longer ground than Navan would have served them, for they have pace on their side. Cavan's smashing play against Meath in the National League has inspired hope in Ulster, where football has recovered during the autumn, and the wide selection — Cavan (5), Armagh (4), Monaghan (3), Antrim (3)—has given general satisfaction. Antrim's improvement has been steady since the establishment of a new pitch at Belfast, and their players will be closely watched as introducing new features to the Gaelic code. Ulster are stated to be very accurate before goal, and this will help them on the confined end lines at Navan. I believe Leinster will again qualify after a rigorous game, with the probability of a double final between the Eastern and Southern provinces on St. Patrick's Day.

County championships will open in March, and meanwhile Dublin's Senior Leagues are growing in interest. Faughs, holders of the dual honours, have their first outing at Chapelizod, where they meet University College. The students can have little hope of success here, and their footballers are set a serious proposition against the steadily improving Kickhams.

HUNTING.

SOME RECENT RUNS.

THE MEATH HOUNDS.

MEETING on Thursday at College Hill, Tankerstown Laurels, Hussey's gorse and Minerva Bog were drawn blank. A fox found in Parsonstown only ran a few fields, and got to ground at the Reashe. Grimley's bog and Ricetown were blank. There were several foxes in Bengerstown, and hounds hunted on by McCann's Mill to Mitchelstown Cross and on to Rockfield and Carncop into Headstown, where he got to ground. They found again in Headstown, and this fox crossed the river into Julianstown and went through Rockfield, and got to ground in Balsittrick gorse.

The meet yesterday was at Kilmoon. There were several foxes in Mr. Rennel's covert. One went away over Borranstown and on by Primatestown to near Meadstown, and back to the Kilmore road and got to ground. Found in Mr. Rennel's covert again, and this fox ran to Borranstown and got to ground. Then came a great hunt of one hour and forty minutes from Rathfeigh. The fox went away over the Rathfeigh road and on to the Hurley river, which took a big toll of the field. Went on then by Macetown to Corballis covert, right through to Macestown and over the river again on into Corbalton. Going right through here he pointed for Sclators, but turned sharp to the right to Rathfeigh and through the covert and on over the Ashbourne road to near Ardcath, and ran almost to Gorman's Quarry. Leaving Piercestown covert on the right he went by Ashpark and Pluckhimin, and hounds were stopped near Rattranstown after an eight-mile point. It was hard luck on hounds that they did not catch him.

THE SCARTEEN HUNT

On Tuesday, January 27th, hounds met at the Cross of the Tree. The first draw, Ballyscadane, did not hold. Finding a brace in Ballyhoulerhan, one went away across the river and over to the Emly-Knocklong road, then on through Ballyhone to Ballineven. Here the fox went to the left, and on through Kilfrush to Ballincroona, where he got to ground. This was a very fast hunt of about five miles without a check.

Saturday, January 31st, the meet was at Castlegarde. The coverts, as usual, held several foxes. One, going away by the lawn, turned sharp to the right back from the river, and again swinging to the right went on to Doon House and to the Bilboa River, where he ran the bank and on through Coogie. There he crossed the river, which was in heavy flood, and got to ground in the White quarry. Hounds were now six miles from the next draw, Linfield, where, finding in the old garden, the fox was chopped.

Tuesday, February 3rd. Glenefy held several foxes, but, unfortunately, hounds divided. One fox went on by Galbally village, crossed the road, and went over the high ground to Corderry. Turning to the left, he headed for Ballywire, short of which he was lost. The other fox and five couple of hounds went over Glenefy Hill, and, turning to the right, crossed the road and carried on to Duntryleague, where they were found later. A fox from Ballywire laurels ran fast through Ballinagrana to Mooresfort, where several others were on foot. Hounds, sticking to the hunted one, were finally run out of scent in the laurels close to the house. A fox found in some rushes on Mr. Maloney's farm at Ardohill ran to Ardglass, and, after crossing the Emly road, got to ground. Being bolted, he ran to Ballingrana, where he got to ground.

THE NAAS HARRIERS.

The above hounds met at Beggar's End on Wednesday. Hounds first found at Newtown, where a nice hunt of the circular type followed, before hounds were beaten on the road at Forenaughts. The pack next renewed the acquaintance of an outlying fox to the right of Woolpack lane, where, going away very fast, hounds ran through Newtown Bog. Then favouring the right, they pointed for Eadestown, short of which they turned left and crossed the Rathmore road; then right-handed for the Downshire woods. Keeping to the left over Rathmore Hill, they went into the Red Bog and Upper Punchestown. Crossing Coreen Hills hounds continued in a dense fog, and ran over the slate quarry hills towards Tinode. Here a good fox was saved for another day by a hare jumping up to take hounds off their original quarry. This was a really good hunt of one hour and thirty minutes, making a seven miles point over a stiff country.

BILLIARDS.

IRISH CHAMPIONSHIP.

EX-HOLDER'S NARROW WIN OVER YOUTHFUL OPPONENT.

The meeting of F. Burke (Kildare) and W. Bohan (Workingmen's Club, Wellington quay), at the Railway Institute, Inchicore, last night, provided a keen struggle for a large gallery. It was a battle between experience and youth, and Burke, an ex-champion, finally triumphed by 53 points, but Bohan played a fine game for a youth of only 18, and showed distinct promise.

Burke began badly, but drew level at 78 all, and they were again level at 163 all. Burke then took the lead for a time, but Bohan won it back. Two useful breaks of 49 and 44 put Burke again ahead, and he ran out a winner with an unfinished 35. The best breaks were: Burke, 24, 20, 34, 40, 49, 44, 33 and 35 (unfinished); Bohan, 24, 29 (twice), 27, 41 and 22. Result:—F. Burke, 500; W. Bohan, 447.

To-night—P. Fox v. J. Harrison (billiards), 7.30; P. Rylands and W. Ryan (snooker), 8.45.

To-morrow—W. Kavanagh v. G. Byrne (billiards), 4 p.m.; E. Byrne v. P. Fox (snooker), 5.30 p.m.; T. O'Brien v. W. Clarke (billiards), 7.30 p.m.; W. Clarke v. J. Ayres (snooker), 8.45 p.m.

LINDRUM V. NEWMAN.

Despite the fact that he did not have any great recourse to nursery cannons, Lindrum had the better of yesterday afternoon's session at Thurston's, London. He had his first four-figure break of the match when he went from 1,040 unfinished to 1,127. Even in this comparatively short addition he "angled" the red on a corner pocket, and finally came to grief at a wide and thin cushion cannon. For the session Lindrum totalled 783, and averaged 87, Newman's score being 664 and his average 74. Newman had a break of 498, after which Lindrum had 146, 280 and 251 unfinished. Interval—Newman (receives 7,000), 16,114; Lindrum (in play), 7,627.

Lindrum scored his forty-fifth four-figure break of the season, and his second in the present match, during the night session. He took his unfinished break to 581, and after Newman had replied with breaks of 345 and 129, Lindrum at the close was still in play, having scored 1,200. Newman scored 474 and averaged 237, while Lindrum totalled 1,532 and his average was 756. Closing scores:—Newman (rec. 7,000), 16,588; Lindrum (in play), 9,159.

DAVIS V. McCONACHY.

Davis failed to add to his unfinished break of 638 in his match with McConachy at the Catholic Club, Dublin, yesterday. Nevertheless, he had slightly the better of a rather moderate session, scoring 785 points against 620. His subsequent breaks were 288 and 435, breaking down in the latter effort at an exceptionally difficult massé cannon. McConachy's best breaks were 204, 138 and 158 (unfinished). Interval:—Davis, 5,845; McConachy (in play), 5,016.

In the evening session Davis went further ahead, scoring 659 against 399. Both men had only two breaks of note, Davis's being 106 and 416, and McConachy's 177 (full) and 133. Closing scores—Davis (in play), 6,504; McConachy, 5,418.

DUBLIN STEADY.

GREAT SOUTHERN DIVIDEND.

The Ordinary Stock of the Great Southern Railways fell ½ to 15 on Dublin Stock Exchange yesterday, when the announcement was posted that the dividend will again be 1 per cent. for the year 1930. The carry-forward is £43,000, compared with £95,000 last year. There was no movement in the pre-ordinary stocks. In view of the big decline in the traffic receipts the result will be received with satisfaction by the shareholders.

The only feature in the Funds was a sharp rise in India 3½ p.c., which has been unduly depressed. Bank of Ireland Stock rose a point, and Hibernians and Nationals were easier. Guinness units were harder, and closed a few pence better. Dublin Tram issues repeated last prices.

Stagnation ruled in the Industrial section. Chemicals provided the weakest feature, with a fall of 6d. Coats held firm, and Unilevers and Tobaccos did little more than mark time. Dublin Industrials were higher where changed.

Johnston, Mooney and O'Brien's bonus of 1s. per share, in addition to the former dividend, speaks well for the prosperity of the bakery companies, whose preference shares seem to hold attractions for investors.

LONDON FIRMER.

BIG INDIA GOVERNMENT LOAN.

A big India Government Loan, which will take the form of a 5½ per cent. Stock, redeemable 1936-38, was in course of being underwritten yesterday. The issue price will be 97 per cent., and will be of either inscribed stock or stock certificates to bearer. Interest will be payable in January and July, with a first payment of £1 16s. on July 15th next. An offer of conversion will also be made to holders of India 5½ per cent. Stock, due 1932, to an amount not exceeding £5,000,000. Holders who convert will receive £103 12s. 6d. of the new stock for every £100 of the old, and also a full six months' interest on July 15th next.

Although there was no material expansion in the volume of business passing in the London Stock Markets generally yesterday, rather firmer conditions were evident in a number of directions, and on balance the movements resulting from the day's trading were favourable to holders. There was not a great deal going on in the gilt-edged section, and the final values were a shade easier in one or two instances, with India Stocks depressed owing to the pending big new issue. Transactions among Foreign Government Stocks also were on a quiet scale. The firmer tone evident in Home Rails on the previous day continued. Although interest was still on a small scale movements were in the right direction. Among Colonial and Foreign Rails the Buenos Ayres issues marked an appreciable advance, the Southern, Western and Pacific all finishing 1½ points to the good, while Central Argentine Ord. spurted to 50, or 2 points harder. Entre Rios Ord. made good Thursday's depreciation, but the 6 per cent. Cum. Pref. remained at their lower level. Among Industrials, Newspapers provided an outstanding firm spot, and some good rises were scored. Motors again attracted considerable attention with higher values resulting, while there were a number of firm markets among the Miscellaneous Industrials. Among Mines, "Kaffirs" met fresh support. Rubber shares continued heavy and further losses were sustained.

INDUSTRIAL MARKET.

STEADY TONE IN MOST SECTIONS.

CANADIAN MARCONIS ADVANCE.

Quiet conditions prevailed in most sections of the Industrial Market yesterday. The general tendency remained undecided at the opening, but as the session progressed a few buyers came forward, and this gave quotations a harder appearance at the close.

Wall Street sent a few buying orders for some of her favourite counters during the late dealings. Radio Corps. finished a dollar better at 17, while Hydro Electrics improved to 26¾ and International Holdings to 3¼. Columbia Graphophones and Gramophones were the turn harder at 1 13/16 and 1 15/16 respectively.

Cables and Wireless Junr. issues gained modest fractions, the "A" Ord. closing at 18 and the "B" Ord. at 10. Most of the interest in this section centred around Canadian Marconis, which, in anticipation of favourable developments, rose 2s. to 16s. Marconi Marines, however, were dull, the price receding 1/16 to 1 13/16.

Apart from Calcutta Electric, which weakened 2s. to 37s., the Electrical issues maintained a steady front.

In the Motor section, Austin Ord. further improved 1s. to 33s. 6d., and Thomas Tilling gained 1/16 to 5¼. Fords, however, reacted 1/16 to 3 11/16, and Leyland closed dull at 46s. 9d.

Coal and Engineering descriptions generally were allowed to sag.

Newspaper Shares presented a steadier appearance.

Little fresh interest was taken in Breweries. Distillers gave way 1s. to 54s. 6d., and Watney Prefd. were marked down to 68. The rest closed quietly steady, with a few inquiries again noticeable for Benskins and South African Breweries Ord.

Tobacco showed little variation.

The feature of the Provision group was the revival of interest in Liptons, in anticipation of the report. They finished 7½d. higher at 5s. International Tea hardened 3d. to 19s. 9d., Unilevers 1/16 to 1⅞, and Unilever N.V. 1/16 to 1 15/16. The maintenance of the Bovril dividend was up to the best expectations, and the shares advanced 9d. to 35s. R. E. Jones Ord. and Prefce. were unaffected by the happenings at Thursday's meeting.

With the exception of Courtaulds, which hardened further to 1⅝, the Rayon and Textile sections remained uncertain in their movements. Snia Viscosa came on offer at 7s., Bleachers at 12s. 3d., and the Prefce. at 13s. 6d., and Wardle and Davenport at 28s. 9d.

Where changed, Insurance shares continued to move against holders. Prudential "A" were marked down ½ to 23½, following the announcement of the reduced dividend, and the "B" shares declined 1/16 to 1⅞ in sympathy.

Banks were easier in places.

Among Shipping issues, Royal Mail were steadier. A little support was reported for the 6½ per cent. Pref., and they changed hands up to £5. Bargains were recorded in the Ord. between 10s. and 25s., in the 5 per cent. Pref. at 40s., in the 4½ per cent. Debs. at £62 and £63, and in the 5 per cent. Deb. between £23 and £28. France Fenwick were unaffected by the reduction in the dividend.

Among Land shares, Hudson's Bays came back another 1/16 to 1⅝, but Sudans rallied 1/16 to 1 5/16.

The Imperial Chemical issues moved within narrow limits. The Ordinary shed 1½d. to 15s. 10½d., as did the Pref. to 20s. 7½d., but the Deferred were maintained at 4s. 1½d. Turner and Newall found buyers and rose 6d. to 38s. Wall Paper Deferred and British Aluminium again attracted attention, and finished 3d. better at 32s. 9d. and 30s. 6d., respectively. Dunlops advanced 3d. to 12s. 6d., and United Molasses hardened 1½d. to 12s., after being 11s. 9d. Swedish Match "B" opened lower at 11½, but they recovered to 11⅝, and left off without alteration. Kreuger and Toll were finally ⅛ down at 22⅜, after touching 22⅛.

OIL SHARES HARDER.

American advices were responsible for an easing of the quotations of leading counters in the Oil market during the early hours yesterday. No selling pressure was encountered, however, and initial losses were soon made good, while in the afternoon prices moved up further. It was reserved to the Eagle issues, however, to provide once more the best and most active features. Buying of both Mexican and Canadian Eagles on Paris account showed no signs of falling off, and they improved smartly. Anglo-Persians and Burmahs had an easier tendency in the early hours, but finished firm. Venezuelans were uninteresting. United British were bid for among Trinidad issues, but Leaseholds were a dull spot. Among Miscellaneous descriptions Anglo-Egyptian "B" continued in request and further advanced, but otherwise movements were of little importance.

RUBBER SHARES WEAK.

Interest remained on extremely small lines in the Rubber Share Market, and, although commodity values were generally steady, share quotations were lower in many directions, the losses being of quite substantial margins in several instances. The commodity market remained quiet and without new feature. Spot sold 3 13/16d. per lb., April to June 3⅞d. per lb. and July to September 4d. per lb. It is expected that London stocks of raw material will show an advance of some 200 tons on Monday next; Liverpool stocks, on the other hand, may show a decline.

LONDON "STREET" MARKET.

The "Street" presented a deserted and inactive appearance last evening, and, apart from one or two of the leading Wall street favourites, prices were maintained at their "official" closing levels. Columbia Graphophones were the only feature of interest, being bid up to 1⅞, while H.M.V. were fractionally harder at 1⅜. Radios at 17¼ and Hydros at 26¾ displayed a harder tendency, whilst among Oils Royal Dutch and Shell [illegible]

LONDON MINING MARKET STRONGER.

"CHARTERED" ACTIVE AND HIGHER.

The Mining Market maintained a steady tone, and, although dealings were still largely of a professional character, there were indications of an expansion of public interest, especially in certain specialities. In the Kaffir section the deduction of dividends on Thursday made many counters appear cheap and encouraged fresh demand. Advices from the Cape were still of a satisfactory character, while Paris was still inclined to take a modest interest in this market, and at the close the bulk of the movements favoured holders. In the Rhodesian department, Chartered recovered, and fresh buying and some bear covering lifted the quotation appreciably. "Tanks" were better, while of the Gold shares Cam and Motor were still being picked up, and Globes were a harder market. Wankie were again on offer, and relapsed heavily. The Northern issues remained dull. Among Diamonds, the De Beers issues were in some demand and moved up. A rise to £115 12s. 6d. per ton occurred in the price of tin, and there was a strong rumour in circulation to the effect that the Malayan Government had decided to sanction the quota scheme. No official news came to hand during business hours, but the share market was more cheerful, and higher values were returned in several directions. Ashanti Goldfields were again a centre of interest in the West African section, and fresh demand and bear covering caused a sharp rise in the price. The price of copper improved to £43 8s. 9d. per ton, and Rio Tinto were in demand, and registered a sharp recovery. Tharsis and Messina were better. Elsewhere, Panama Corporation were wanted and moved up. Santa Gertrudis were a harder market, but other Silver shares were dullish on the fall in the price of the metal to a new low record level. Closing prices:—

The offer for sale will be advertised in the Irish Times on Monday.

RIVER PLATE GRAIN.

Owing to the sharp revival of activity in chartering for Argentine produce, the position of tonnage in that direction was strengthened by fully 1s. per ton. Thirteen steamers were engaged for prompt and February and March loading. Prompt handy tonnage now ranges from 19s. to 19s. 6d., basis San Lorenzo for U.K.-Continental discharge; the higher figure was paid for near tonnage and 19s. for March. Good-sized tonnage from Bahia Blanca is now on the basis of fully 17s., and it is reported that there is still a good inquiry from shippers. The recent feeling of unsettlement has, at any rate, been removed for the time being. This is largely the outcome of the more active state of the grain markets on this side and on the Continent for wheat, and particularly maize.

SILVER NEARING 1s.

Following Thursday's slight improvement, silver again slumped heavily yesterday. Prices on the London Bullion market were fixed ⅛d. lower at 12⅛d. per ounce for spot and 12 1/16d. per ounce for two months' forward delivery, the lowest prices ever recorded. The previous low record was 12 3/16d. per ounce for both positions, touched last Wednesday. The renewed fall was due to further heavy selling from China and absence of support from other quarters. Recently there has been a moderate demand from India for immediate shipment, but yesterday the Indian market was closed. During the past week silver has depreciated by 1 1/16d. per ounce.

JOHN BROWN AND CO.

At meetings of the first and second mortgage Debenture holders of John Brown and Co., Ltd., yesterday the proposed amalgamation of part of the undertaking with Thomas Firth and Sons, Ltd., was approved in so far as the proposals affect the Debenture holders.

BRITISH TRADE PROPAGANDA CORPORATION.

The Corporation was incorporated on February 2nd last for the purpose of acting as liason agents between the Press and trade in matters of national interest, to further British trade interests at home and abroad by means of propaganda, and to participate in trade amalgamations. The managing director, Mr. C. H. Clendining, who has specialised in trade propaganda for some time, was responsible for the advance publicity regarding the proposed national abattoir, while he also arranged the publicity given to the trade propaganda film, "Ireland's Rough-hewn Destiny," produced under the auspices of the British Government.

CONDITIONS IN AUSTRALIA.

At the annual meeting of the Midland Railway Company of Western Australia, Ltd., Sir George A. Touche, the chairman, said that the outstanding feature of the accounts was the break which they showed in a long record of steady and continuous progress. The net traffic receipts of £127,686 compared with figures in the previous year of £144,163. This falling-off was in no sense due to factors peculiar to the company or to the State of Western Australia. It was the natural reflection of the difficult situation in which the whole Commonwealth of Australia had been placed. The root of the trouble was in the change brought about by world-wide declines in the prices of produce and commodities, and in the great primary products of wool and wheat the slump had been ruinously severe. The accounts for the current year would show a greater reaction to the state of tribulation which Australia was enduring than those submitted, but there was encouragement in the fact that seasonal conditions had been favourable. Without indulging in too easy optimism, they might look forward hopefully.

GUY MOTORS' CHANGE OF FINANCIAL YEAR.

The directors of Guy Motors, Ltd., have decided to alter the date of the end of the financial year of the company by closing the books at December 31 in each year instead of at September 30. This is to take effect immediately, and the profit and loss account to be presented will be for the 15 months ending December 31, 1930.

ASHANTI GOLDFIELDS MEETING.

Owing to the recent activity in Ashanti Goldfields Corporation Shares the chairman's remarks at the meeting held in London were awaited with more than usual interest. The chairman, Mr. J. H. Batty, stated that since 1925 considerable progress had been made in the output, in the reduction of costs and in the raising of net profits. Referring to the administration of gold, the chairman pointed out that the currency systems of the world had been thrown out of gear. Eighty per cent. of the gold was now held in the United States and France, and £80,000,000 a year of new money was not sufficient to meet the world's demand. The resolution was passed authorising the directors to increase the capital of the company to £375,000 by the capitalisation of £125,000 from reserve, for the purpose of making a bonus distribution of one new share for every two shares held.

WHITE STAR PREFERENCE.

It is understood from an authoritative source that the Preference shareholders of the White Star Line will, in the course of the next day or so, receive a circular from the trustees regarding the position of the company in relation to the Royal Mail Steam Packet group, and expressing the view that the best interests of the Preference holders will be served if the moratorium proposed by the Royal Mail Company is granted. The trustees were appointed at the time the Preference issue was made to safeguard the interests of the Preference shareholders and to see that no mortgage or charge should be secured on the assets in priority to the Preference except as specified in the offer for sale. It is understood that the trustees will be able to report that, so far as that particular feature is concerned, there has been no infringement by the company.

MR. R. A. R. FIELD APPOINTED CHAIRMAN OF R. E. JONES.

A meeting of the directors of R. E. Jones, Ltd., was held in London yesterday, when, among other business transacted, it was unanimously resolved that Mr. R. A. R. Field be appointed chairman of the company. It was also unanimously resolved that he be appointed managing director of the company.

BANK AND DISCOUNT MARKET.

The latest Bank of England return shows that the Bank's security holdings, which last week fell by well over £13 millions, owing to "special" selling, are this week practically unchanged. In view of the maintenance of discount rates around the higher level touched last week, it has been expected in some quarters that the return would afford evidence of further "special" sales. The absence of any drop in the security holdings shows that further action by the Bank has been unnecessary. The apparent reason for the maintenance of rates has been increasing monetary stringency, due partly to end-of-month currency demands and partly to tax-transfers.

THE MONEY MARKET.

TREASURY BILL RATE UNCHANGED.

Applications were received at the Bank of England yesterday for £30,000,000 Treasury bills. Tenders dated Monday and Wednesday to Saturday of next week at £99 8s. 1d. get about 65 per cent., above in full, tenders dated Tuesday at £99 8s. 3d. and above receive in full. The average rate per cent. indicated is about 2 3/16, or the same as a week ago.

Conditions were much easier in Lombard street, and borrowers were usually able to satisfy their overnight requirements at 2 per cent. Old money was also renewed at this figure for either a day or a week.

Rates in the Discount market kept firm owing to the slightly higher average at which the Treasury bills were placed. The general quotation for fine three months' bills was 2 3/16 to 2¼ per cent., and Treasuries were called at 2 3/16 per cent. The banks were buyers of Silver fell ⅛d. to 12⅛d. per oz. for spot, and 12 1/16d. for forward delivery owing to the liquidation of stale bull accounts. Gold remained at 84s. 11½d. per oz. fine.

At the Bank of England 2,000 sovs. were taken for export.

Towards the close of business in the Foreign Exchange market yesterday the principal rates moved sharply in favour of London, the outstanding feature being provided by the sterling dollar rate, which was finally quoted at 4.86 1/16, as compared with 4.85 15/16 on Thursday. The Canadian dollar weakened by 1/16c. to 4.86¼. In the Continental section the French exchange finished at 123.96, as against the previous close of 123.91½. Reichsmarks cheapened by 1pf. to 20.43½.

PROVISIONS.

LIVERPOOL.—BACON—In the weekly revision of prices at London no quotable change was made in Danish or Swedish, but at Manchester Danish, Swedish and Dutch was partially 2/- dearer, with Polish unchanged, while Danish and Dutch killings showed a fair decrease from previous return. Continental here, in consequence, is dearer, Danish being raised to 57/- to 61/-, Swedish 51/- to 55/-, Dutch 50/- to 54/- per cwt., with a fair demand, chiefly for best quality. Danish and Irish slightly easier at 78/- to 86/- and American 70/- to 74/- and 58/- to 62/- per cwt., respectively. HAMS quiet at lower prices of 78/- to 84/- for long and 76/- to 82/- for short cut. Shoulders still nominal. CHEESE steady, and New Zealand 1/- dearer at 55/- to 59/- per cwt. for both white and coloured. BUTTER still firm and in fair demand, and New Zealand raised a further 1/- to 118/- to 122/- per cwt. EGGS steady at 13/3 to 13/6 for extra selected Irish hen, 12/6 to 12/9 selected, and 11/3 to 11/6 per 120 for mediums, with duck nominal.

LONDON.—BUTTER—The market displayed firm features during the week, owing to improved inquiries, and prices moved in sellers' favour. Continental markets were also higher. Belgium, France, and Switzerland buying freely in Holland, while Continental countries have also been drawing supplies from the United Kingdom, which has considerably brightened the outlook. Liberal quantities of Argentine have been shipped to France, owing to the preferential tariff given to this description. So far only small quantities of Colonial have been shipped to Canada. Quotations:—New Zealand, finest salted, 114/- to 116/-; good to fine, 110/- to 112/-; inferior, 106/- to 108/-; finest unsalted, 116/- to 120/-; Australian, finest salted, 111/- to 114/-; good to fine, 108/- to 110/-; inferior, 100/- to 106/-; unsalted ranges from 104/- to 116/-; Argentine, finest unsalted, 110/- to 116/-; good to fine, 106/- to 108/-; Danish, 142/-; Dutch creamery, unsalted, 150/- to 152/-; Polish, 108/- per cwt.; Dutch rolls, 16/9 to 17/3 per dozen lb. CHEESE—A dull and featureless market resulted, and trend of prices easier for Colonial. Stocks are excessive, and the prospects of heavy arrivals for the next two months does not encourage confidence to carry stock. It would appear that consumption is adversely affected by abnormally low prices of bacon and frozen meat, both of which are in abundant supply. Canadian makes remain neglected, but holders adhere to full rates, while English receives moderate support. Quotations:—English, finest farmers' 100/- to 106/-; good to fine, 76/- to 98/-; loaf, 90/- to 108/-; factory, 52/- to 56/- per cwt.; Stilton 1/7, Cheshire 9d. to 11½d. per lb.; Canadian, white 70/- to 78/-, coloured 73/- to 76/-; New Zealand, white 50/- to 54/-, coloured 50/- to 54/-; Australian, white 50/- to 51/-, coloured 49/- to 51/-; Dutch Edam, factory, 40 per cent. 58/- to 67/-, 30 per cent. 50/- to 59/-, 20 per cent. 42/- to 50/-; Gouda, full cream, 45 per cent. and over 73/- to 75/-; factory, 40 per cent. 64/- to 68/-, 30 per cent. 55/- to 58/-, 20 per cent. 42/- to 49/- per cwt. BACON continues in good demand, consumption showing considerable expansion of late, but supplies are abnormally heavy. Except for Polish, which was reduced 3/- per cwt., no official change occurred in prices, Northern markets being firm and Danish killings lighter for the week at 127,214. Quotations:—Irish, 78/- to 106/-; Danish, 53/- to 64/-; Dutch, 47/ to 58/-; Swedish, 50/- to 59/-; Polish, 37/ to 47/-; Estonian, 47/- to 51/- per cwt. HAMS—Market dull, and American brands tend easier. English, as to weight, 145/- to 200/-; American, long cut 75/- to 90/-, short cut 82/- to 87/- per cwt. LARD dull, and American easier. Irish bladders, 70/- to 80/-; Danish, 56/- to 58/; American, boxes 46/6, pails 50/-, cartons, 1lb. 51/-, ½lb. 52/6 per cwt. EGGS—Market remained firm on colder weather and lighter Continental supplies, with a fair business passing. Quotations—English, national mark specials, 18/ to 18/3; standard, 16/9 to 17/-; medium, 15/3 to 15/6; pullets, 13/-; ordinary packing, grade 1, 16/- to 16/6; grade 2, 15/-; Irish Free State nominal in absence of supplies. Irish, Northern, 18lb. 18/-, 17lb. 16/9, 15½lb. 16/-, 14lb. 14/-; Danish ranged from 10/- to 16/6; Swedish, 12/9 to 15/-; Dutch, 10/- to 15/6; Belgian, 12/9 to 15/3; Polish, 6/3 to 6/6; Egyptian, 5/- to 6/9; American, 9/6 to 10/-; Italian, 11/6 to 13/3; Chinese, 5/6 to 11/6; Australian, 10/6 to 11/ per 120.

MANCHESTER BUTTER.—Danish official quotations wired ten kroner higher; top now stands at 224 kroner per hundred kilos, against 214 previous week, and 289 corresponding period last year. Spot firm at advanced prices for Continental makes and Colonial is also dearer. Choicest qualities quoted—Danish 146/- to 148/-, special dairies extra, Swedish 134/- to 136/-, New Zealand 119/- to 121/-, Australian 116/- to 118/-. BACON—Rather better undercurrent. Irish unchanged, but prices of 60/68lb. averages have been adjusted to bring them more into line with Continental cures. Danish, Swedish and Dutch unchanged to 2/- lower, according to selection. Irish nominal, Danish 55/- to 62/-, Swedish 49/- to 56/-, Dutch 48/- to 55/-. LARD shows further reduction. English refined 54/6 boxes ex works, American 46/6 to 47/6, according to brand. CHEESE—Position of choicest Cheshire very strong on short supplies; and prices very firm. Fancy Canadian very scarce at 71/- to 73/-. New Zealand again lower at 54/- to 55/-. EGGS steady. Irish Free State extra selected 14/-, selected 13/6, mediums 12/3, ducks 17/6. English new laid 16/6; Northern Ireland, 17lb. 17/-, 15½lb. 15/9, 14lb. 14/9; Egyptians 6/-.

DUBLIN FRUIT AND VEGETABLE.—Good supply of all classes of home-grown fruit and vegetables, but the quality in most cases not up to standard, with the result sales were dragging after the sale of the choice lots offered, and generally prices were against sellers. York cabbage 35/- to 46/-, extra 62/-, inferior 20/- to 30/- per large load; small 10/- to 16/-, extra 23/-; Savoy, large 20/- to 35/-, extra 40/- to 60/- and 74/-, small 8/- to 12/-, special 26/-; Swede turnips, 1/3 to 1/6 per cwt.; mangolds, 1/- to 1/2; cauliflowers, best 2/- to 3/-, extra 4/- to 5/3, inferior 1/- to 1/6, seconds 6d. per dozen; celery 1/- to 1/6, extra 3/3 to 4/ per bunch; carrots 1/4 to 1/10 per dozen, bags 3/- to 3/6; beet 1/6 to 1/9 per dozen, parsnips 1/- to 1/4 per dozen, bags 3/6 to 5/6; leeks 1/6 to 2/- per dozen, bunch 4d. to 6d.; white turnips 4d. to 7d. per bunch, jollies 6d. to 9d.; mint 2d. per bunch; thyme 1d. to 2d. per bunch, sage 3d. per bunch, parsley 9d. to 1/- per tray, bags 4/- to 5/-, lettuce 1/- to 1/3 per dozen; apples 1/6 to 2/- per tray, kegs 4/- to 8/-, barrels 9/6 to 17/-, extra 18/- to 24/-, and chokes 2/6 to 4/6 per float. A much slower demand was experienced for the good supply of foreign stuffs, but values generally show little change, except for best Anjou pears, which are dearer. Apples, Yorks, 37/6 case, Winesaps 13/- to 15/6, Newtowns 13/- to 17/-, others 12/6 to 16/-; oranges, Jaffs 15/- to 17/- per box, Valencias 300's 12/- to 16/- per case, 360/504's 12/- to 15/-; lemons 18/- to 24/- per case, boxes 12/- to 14/-; grape fruit 21/-, extra 28/- per case; grapes, black 1/6 to 2/2 per lb.; Almeria 25/- to 35/- per barrel, Californian red 22/6, Cape peaches 6/- to 10/- per dozen, do. plums 4/- to 6/- per tray; pears, Nelis, 15/- per tray, Anjou 18/- to 26/-, Comice 25/-; tomatoes, Canary 4/ to 6/- per box; rhubarb 1/10 to 2/3 per dozen; French beans 5/- per lb., salad 10/- to 12/- crate, O.K. dates 7/6 per dozen; onions, Spanish 9/- to 11/- per case, Dutch 6/- per bag, do. carrots 6/- per bag.

CORPORATION MARKET, DUBLIN.
Auction Sales daily. Empties Supplied.—(Advt.)

DUBLIN POTATO.—Much larger supply on market, which was far in excess of demand, which was a shade weaker, but values show no change at 5/9 to 6/- per cwt for best lots on offer.

DUBLIN POULTRY.—Supply continues good for season, and all classes of choice quality poultry met with brisk inquiry at very firm prices. Rabbits were in larger supply and a satisfactory clearance effected at the following: Chickens, best, 1/- to 1/1 per lb.; hens, large, 2/- to 2/6 each; others, 1/- to 1/6 each; ducklings, fatted, 3/- to 4/- each; others, 2/ to 2/6; old, 1/- to 1/6; geese, fatted, 7d. to 9d. per lb.; stubble, 3/- to 4/- each; turkeys, prime quality hens, 1/2 to 1/4 per lb.; cocks, 1/- to 1/3; wild duck, 1/6 to 2/- each; widgeon, 9d.; teal, 6d.; woodcock, 1/-; golden plover, 8d. to 10d.; green, 4d. to 6d.; and rabbits, best, 1/- to 1/2 each.

DUBLIN BUTTER AND EGG.—BUTTER—Market remains firm. Both Danish and Colonial makes are dearer, also Irish creamery, which is very scarce. Present production appears to be nil. Australian makes are in plentiful supply, for which there is a good inquiry, as quality is most satisfactory. Irish factory butter somewhat scarce, and met a better demand, particularly the cheaper grades. Finest Irish creams 1/6½ to 1/6¾ lb., factory 1/1 to 1/3, Danish 1/7¼ to 1/7½, Australian fancy grades 1/5¼ to 1/5½, good ordinary 1/5, New Zealand 1/5½. No farmers' lots on offer. Shipping trade this week for eggs appears to have been good, with the result that supplies to this market have been smaller. City trade fairly good, and no accumulation of stocks at the moment. Duck eggs scarce, but not much inquired for. Extra selected 16lb. and 17lb. grades 13/6 to 14/9 lots, ordinary and selected 12/3 to 13/-, small and medium 10/- to 11/9, and duck eggs 16/- to 16/6 per 120.

CORK BUTTER.—The market has undergone no fresh changes. Prices firm. Creameries 162/- per cwt.

DUBLIN FISH.—Demand was much weaker for the fairly good supply on market, there being offered 7 chests lobsters, 80 packages herrings, and a heavy supply from country and local senders. All classes cheaper at the following:—Lobster, 15/- to 20/- per 13, large; medium, 10/- to 12/6; smalls, 5/- to 7/6; soles, 20/- to 30/- per 9 pairs, large; mediums, 10/- to 15/-; slips, 2/6 to 5/-; turbot, 6d. to 8/- each; brill, 6d. to 4/- each; herrings, 6/- to 12/6 box; plaice, 20/- to 50/- per half-box; cod, 20/- to 32/-; whiting, 10/- to 17/6; ray 12/6 to 20/- and haddock, 15/- to 20/-.

PRODUCE.

Crude Egyptian spot 17/-, common edible 21/6, deodorised 23/6. Cocoanut inactive. Ceylon drums February-March 23/9, Galle do. 23/3. Turpentine firmer. American spot 37/-, March-April 37/6 per cwt. OILCAKES.—Linseed Cakes—The market is still sparingly supplied with Continental descriptions, and, with practically no stocks, values are well maintained, in spite of only a relatively small demand. At the same time there are free buyers of ready or near at hand parcels, while for later periods it is extremely difficult to attract any interest, as the impression prevails that prices will, in all probability, decline as the spring advances. London-made sell quietly at about last week's quotations of £8 10/- to £8 15/- while imported remain steady, with some fine quality 10 per cent. Brazilian available at £8 per ton, ex-ship, afloat, and best brands of Spanish at £7 15/-. Cotton Cakes—Owing to a considerable falling off in the shipments of Egyptian, prices have been forced up fully 5/- per ton, and small parcels, afloat, have changed hands at £4 per ton, ex-ship, with February shipments now held at £3 18/9, and March and April at £3 17/6, with every indication that values may further appreciate, owing to the unsaleability of oil and the consequent restricted output from the Alexandrian mills. English meet a rather better inquiry at £4 12/6 to £4 15/-. Decorticated ground nut cakes—Parcels of light coloured 54 per cent. Bombays, now due, may be bought at £6 2/6 to £6 5/-, ex-ship, but for February, loading, £5 15/- would be accepted, and at these figures they should be exceptionally good value. Offals—Straight run middlings are, if anything, the turn lower at £4 10/- to £4 12/6, but bran is without change at £4 17/6 for ordinary, and £5 17/6 for broad. Fancy Plate middlings remain unaltered at £5 per ton, ex-ship, and Plate pollards at £3 15/-. Maize foods—Garton's maize gluten feed is attractively offered at the greatly reduced price of £5 10/-, and maize germ cake meal at £6 10/-. Flake maize is cheaply mentioned at £6, and maize germ meal at £5 10/-.

LIVERPOOL.—CANE SUGAR steady, with sellers remaining at 6/- per cwt. for February shipments c.i.f. COCOA—Spot West African continues quiet, and fine fermented Accra kinds quoted nominal. During the week spot sales, 600 bags; West African at 25/6 to 28/6 per cwt. ex quay and ex store in bond; forward shipments barely steady, with sellers February-March fair fermented Accra at 19/6 and buyers at 19/- per cwt. f.o.b. Later sales c.i.f. Continent at 22/- good fermented Accra, and 21/6 Lagos f.a.q. February-March shipment per 50 kilos. COFFEE—With buyers' and sellers' ideas apart, especially for low descriptions, business curtailed. HEMP—Manila steady, but quiet. JAPANESE PEAS prices fully maintained, with £16 to £16 10/- wanted for store parcels, and £16 to £16 15/- per ton forward shipments. RICE BRAN—Burmah in quiet request, but unaltered at 67/6 per ton for January-March shipments ex ship terms. OIL CAKES—A moderate amount of interest shown for imported descriptions, with £7 10/- asked for American and River Plate Linseed February-March shipments c.i.f. PALM KERNELS—Prices still rather in sellers' favour, with £10 15/- wanted for February-March and March-April shipments, and buyers 2/6 per ton less; later possible buyers £10 15/-. TALLOW—A steadier tone prevails, and 21/6 per cwt. c.i.f. paid for No. 1 South American Frigorific March shipments and buyers.

LIVERPOOL SUGAR.—Tate and Lyle, Ltd., quotations:—Crystals, one's 21/6; granulated, standard 19/6; yellows, thirds 19/3, less 1½ per cent. discount.

MISCELLANEOUS.

DUBLIN HAY AND STRAW.—Hay was in fairly good supply, with only a sprinkling of real choice loads to draw upon. Buyers were in fair attendance, but slow to bid, as most arrivals presented a bad appearance owing to rain, and from start to finish of business values were lower all round, say, 3d. per cwt. on choice, and more at finish of market to clear the poorer sorts. Choice 1st crop 4/6 to 4/9, odd sale 5/- per cwt., 2nd and 3rd crop 4/- to 4/3, old meadow 3/3 to 3/9, other classes 1/9 to 3/- per cwt. Demand was weaker for the fair supply of straw, and at close of business values were fully 3d. per cwt. in buyers' favour, as most arrivals like hay were damp, and even at the reduction were slow to clear. Best 3/- to 3/3, extra 3/6 per cwt. for both classes, inferior sorts down to 2/3 cwt.

Hooded Cloaks.

OLD IRISH CUSTOMS.

THE craze for modern fashions has dealt the death-blow to the hooded cloaks worn extensively by the women folk in the more remote districts of Southern Ireland in other years; and the shawl, too, which was inseparable from the Irish colleen, is fast disappearing. Occasionally, women wearing these cloaks, locally known as "durks," a name peculiar to Munster, are seen in Cork city, and, while the local people apparently take little or no interest in them, a visitor is struck by the strange appearance of the wearers.

In the wild parts of West Cork and Kerry, and along the Western seaboard generally, they are yet reasonably popular; for they provide ample shelter to the women who have to leave their cosy little cottages and search the hills that are washed with sleet, rain and snow in search of lost sheep or goats, or, again, when the women have to climb down mountainy roads and tramp through the sad glens in winter on their way to the nearest market. The long, black folds of the cloak reach down to the very tips of the toes, and the hood, which is part of the one-piece garment, gives the wearer a distinctly nun-like appearance.

Some of these hooded cloaks, as they are more properly known, are generations old; for in many instances they have been handed down from mother to daughter, and so on right down through the years. They have lost their first colouring, and now bear a greenish-blue hue, but the texture, so good was it when first made, has stood the test of time and rough weather. It is thick, made to resist tearing on the boulders, rocks, and thorny hedges, among which these folk of the wild countryside have to travel.

According to what an informant tells me about these cloaks, it was the custom and right, not to mention duty, of the mother to give her durk to her first daughter who married, and for the daughters who married later it was customary to purchase one each of these cloaks in the neighbouring town. This, in itself, was an event for all the mothers in the surrounding countryside; for on the great day of the purchase of what became to be known as the wedding cloak, though it was not worn at the wedding, many mothers gathered in the little whitewashed cottage where the bride lived, and together, after much discussion on the question of price, they set off to inspect the varied wares of every trader in the town.

Those traders had an unenviable time of it. The people of other years did not know what men who call themselves one hundred per cent. salesmen were, and probably it was just as well that in those days there were none of those specimens who profess to be such wonderful salesmen. They would not get a living; for these women, ever guardful of the extra shilling, were impervious to all blandishments of the most expert salesman. They never made a purchase on the spot—that is, in the first shop which they entered. They had a round of inspection of all other shops, but invariably they returned to the first shop and took away the garment.

The young bride never was permitted to come on this quaint shopping expedition; she was considered not to have enough experience of life or of the wiles of salesmen, who might sway her mind and fancy in fashions. She took what was bought for her, and learnt to treasure it. She wore that cloak and was proud of it. Years passed, and she, too, brought up her family, and then she gave that same cloak to her first daughter to marry, and so the custom was carried on. A hooded cloak, slightly faded, would to-day be a wedding present which few brides would care to receive; but not so in those days when the honour of getting that cloak was of greater importance than its value.

It is easy to think of a tiny cottage, set in the rolling mountains and hills of West Cork or Kerry, and inside around the fire is gathered the family, except the father, who may be working some miles away. The mother goes out to find if all the goats—when each family kept a number of these animals—had returned. If one was missing it meant that the hills had to be searched, and the mother invariably grasped her durk from the wall, folded the cloak around her head, and set out to find the young animal which, if not found, would surely die from cold and exposure during the night on the cold mountainside. The woman would go far and wide, calling out in plaintiff tones as if she had lost one of her own children. The young animal found, she would return to her house, leading the little stray with her, and then she would hang the old durk, wet and dripping with rain, on the wall or behind one of the doors, and resume her place among her children.

These hard days have gone for the most part, and no longer are the women folk in the wild districts compelled to suffer such hardships; but even yet, in remote parts, the old durk lives on, and so does the ancient custom.

RATHGAR METHODIST CHURCH.

A series of addresses given by the Rev. R. Lee Cole, M.A., B.D., last year on the positive principles of Protestantism aroused considerable interest, and, by request, Mr. Cole is about to repeat the addresses in the Rathgar Methodist Church, Brighton road, on Sunday evenings. The first of these addresses will be delivered to-morrow evening, and will deal with "Protestantism in History."

CHAMPION ABERDEEN-ANGUS FOR THE FREE STATE.

Considering the depression in the agricultural industry trade for Aberdeen-Angus bulls at Aberdeen yesterday was good. Sir George MacPherson Grant's champion was bought by the Irish Free State for 300 guineas, and the King's reserve champion made 170 guineas. The average of almost £36 for 356 bulls showed a decrease of £6 on the last year's figures.

AUSTRALIAN WOOL SALES.

The fifth series of wool sales at Adelaide, at which 30,000 bales were offered, concluded yesterday. Practically all the offerings were sold. There was keen general competition, and the market was about 10 per cent. higher than at the December sales held here. The highest price realised was 14½d.
